assignment, transfer or conveyance of any part of his property, directly 3 or indirectly, absolutely or conditionally, in order to prefer a creditor or 4 person having a claim against him, or who is or may be under any liability 5 for him, or in order to prevent the property from coming to his assignee 6 in insolvency, or from being distributed under the laws relative to insol- 7

8 vency, he shall not be entitled to a discharge, and a discharge, if received 9 by him, shall be void.

1 SECTION 109. A creditor whose debt was proved or provable against 2 an estate may, within two years after the date of a certificate of dis-
3 charge, apply by petition to the court granting it to annul the same, on 4 the ground that it was fraudulently obtained, specifying all acts men-
5 tioned in section one hundred and six relied on in avoidance, and no
6 evidence shall be admitted as to any other of such acts; but the petition 7 may be amended in the discretion of the court. If after notice to the 8 debtor and a hearing the fraudulent acts charged or any of them are 9 proved and the court finds that the creditor had no knowledge thereof
10 until after the granting of the discharge, it shall be annulled; otherwise 11 it shall not be affected thereby.

1 SECTION 110. If a person who is insolvent or in contemplation of 2 insolvency, within six months before the filing of the petition by or 3 against him, in order to prefer a creditor or person having a claim against 4 him or who is under any liability for him, procures any part of his property
5 to be attached, sequestered or seized on execution, or makes a payment,
6 pledge, assignment, transfer or other conveyance of any part of his prop-
7 erty, either directly or indirectly, absolutely or conditionally, the person 8 receiving such payment, pledge, assignment, transfer or conveyance, or 9 to be benefited thereby, having reasonable cause to believe such person 10 is insolvent or in contemplation of insolvency and that such payment, 11 pledge, assignment, or conveyance is made in fraud of the laws relative 12 to insolvency, it shall be void; and the assignees may recover the property 13 or its value from the person so receiving it or so to be benefited.

SECTION 112. The six preceding sections shall not apply to a payment of money or transfer of property in payment, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in amount, upon a debt contracted for necessaries furnished the debtor or his family.

ALLOWANCE AND SURPLUS.

Allowance to debtor. 1838, 163, §§ 6, 8. G. S. 118, § 92. P. S. 157, § 99. 1888, 67. R. L. 163, § 113. 8 Cush. 109. 160 Mass. 232.

SECTION 113. The debtor shall receive from the assignee one dollar a day for his attendance upon the court or the assignee if required under section eighty-two. He shall also be allowed out of his estate, for the necessary support of himself and family, such amount not exceeding the rate of three dollars a week for each member of his family, and for such time not exceeding two months, as the court orders. A debtor who is discharged shall be allowed five per cent on the net proceeds of all his estate received by the assignee, if such net proceeds after such allowance is sufficient to pay the creditors entitled to a dividend the amount of fifty per cent on their debts; but the allowance shall not exceed in all five hundred dollars. In case of the absence of the debtor or his failure to apply for either of said allowances the judge may allow the same amount to his wife or any minor child or children of the debtor.

Allowance, how paid in case of death. 1838, 163, § 5. G. S. 118, § 93. P. S. 157, § 100. R. L. 163, § 114.

SECTION 114. If an allowance to the debtor on the net proceeds of his estate becomes due and is not paid to him in his lifetime, it shall be paid to his executor or administrator, and be disposed of in like manner as other property of which he may be possessed at his decease.

Surplus to be returned to debtor. 1838, 163, § 13. G. S. 118, § 94.

SECTION 115. If after the payment of all debts proved a surplus remains in the hands of the assignee, it shall be paid or reconveyed to or revert in the debtor or his legal representatives.

ACCOUNTS AND DIVIDENDS.

Accounts. 1838, 163, § 12. G. S. 118, § 95. 1862, 179, § 6. P. S. 157, § 102. 1884, 126. R. L. 163, § 116. 10 Cush. 173, 498. 6 Gray, 364. 14 Gray, 154.

SECTION 116. At the third meeting the assignee shall exhibit under oath to the court and creditors present fair and just accounts of all his receipts and payments relative to the estate, and may be examined relative thereto by the court. If there are two or more joint assignees their accounts may be allowed on the oath of one of them. The notice of the third and all subsequent meetings of creditors shall contain a statement that the accounts of the assignee will be presented, and that creditors may appear and object to the allowance thereof. Special notice of the presentation of accounts may be ordered at other times by the court to be given in such manner as it orders. In all cases the judge shall pass upon the reasonableness of the accounts of assignees, although no creditor objects.

Dividend. 1838, 163, § 12. G. S. 118, § 95. 1879, 245, § 6. P. S. 157, § 103. R. L. 163, § 117. 8 Allen, 318.

SECTION 117. The judge shall at said third meeting order a dividend of the property, or a part thereof, among the creditors who have proved their claims, in proportion to their respective debts; but, at any time after the assignment, upon request of the assignee or a creditor, and upon notice to the creditors and assignee, the judge may order the payment,

6 in whole or in part, of claims entitled to priority or preference under this 7 chapter.

1 SECTION 118. In the order for a dividend under the preceding section, Preferred
 2 the following claims shall be first paid in full in the following order: claims

 6 wages shall have the priority given to wages due to operatives under 1879, 204
 7 section one hundred and eighteen; but all payments under this section P. S. 157, § 105.
 8 shall be charged to the account of the operative who, as principal has R. L. 163, 9 tracted or agreed to do the work, and such payments, and the liability § 120.
 10 herein imposed, shall not exceed the amount due such principal operative 11 for such work performed within the time hereinbefore mentioned. This 12 section shall not apply to cases within the provisions of sections ninety-13 six to one hundred, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and fifty-nine.

SECTION 121. If at the time of ordering the dividend it appears 1 probable that there are just claims against the estate which for sufficient 2 reason have not been proved, the judge in ordering the dividend shall 3 leave in the hands of the assignee an amount sufficient to pay every such 4 absent creditor a proportion equal to that which shall be then paid to the 5 other creditors. Such amount shall remain thus unappropriated in the 6 hands of the assignee until the final dividend is declared, or until the 7 judge orders its distribution. 8

SECTION 122. If a dividend, which the judge has declared or which has 1 become payable to a creditor who has proved his claim under a com- 2 position confirmed by the court remains for six months unclaimed, the 3 assignee, or, in a case of composition, the register, may deposit it in a 4 savings bank or other like institution or invest it in bank stock or other 5 stocks, as the court may order, to accumulate for the benefit of the per- 6 son entitled thereto. Such deposit or investment shall be made in the 7 name of the judge and shall be subject to his order and that of his suc- 8 cessors in office as hereinafter provided. The person making such de- 9 posit or investment shall file in court a memorandum thereof, with the 10 original certificate or other evidence of title thereto, which shall be al- 11 lowed as a voucher for such payment. When the person entitled to the 12 money deposited has satisfied the judge of his right to receive the same, 13 he shall cause it to be transferred and paid over to him. 14

SECTION 123. If money deposited with a register to secure the pay- 1
ment of fees or to carry out a composition confirmed by the court remains 2 unclaimed for one year after the depositor or other person is entitled to 3 receive it, the register may, under the direction of the judge, deposit it 4 in a savings bank or invest it in the manner and subject to the preceding 5
section. 6

All moneys deposited with the registers of the courts of insolvency to 7 secure the payment of fees, and in composition, remaining unpaid to the 8 persons entitled thereto, or to their attorneys, for more than ten years 9 after the date of deposit, may be paid over to the state treasurer. The 10 courts of insolvency shall have full power to regulate such payments and 11 to decree what sums shall be paid and the time of payments thereof. The 12 treasurer shall give his receipt therefor, which shall be in full discharge 13 of the register for the same. 14

Any person asserting a right to money deposited with the state treas- 15 urer hereunder, may establish the same by petition to the court of insolv- 16 ency having jurisdiction over the original case, and the treasurer shall 17 pay such money in accordance with the decree of said court. Such sums 18 as are not so paid within three years after the time of their receipt as 19 aforesaid by the state treasurer shall escheat to the commonwealth. 20 within eighteen months after his appointment, declare a second dividend, 2 if the property was not wholly distributed upon the first dividend, and 3 shall give notice of a meeting of all the creditors of the debtor therefor. 4

At such meeting the accounts of the assignee shall be produced and ex- 5 amined as provided in section one hundred and sixteen and settled by 6 the court; and any balance in the hands of the assignee shall, by order 7 of the judge be divided among all the creditors who have proved their 8 debts, in proportion thereto. 9

1 SECTION 125. If at any time before the final dividend any outstand-
 2 ing debts or other property due or belonging to the estate which cannot 3 in the opinion of the court be collected and received by the assignee with-4 out unreasonable or inconvenient delay, remain in the hands of the as-

SECTION 130. The register shall cause notice of the filing of such petition to be published twice in not more than two newspapers, and shall forthwith make and file a certificate of the fact and date of publication. The actual expense of such publication shall be paid from the amount deposited by the creditor therefor as provided in section one hundred and seventy; but a hearing upon the petition may be had or a warrant issued thereon prior to the completion of the publication of said notice. The court may, after the commencement of proceedings by or against the debtor and before the hearing upon the petition, by injunction restrain the debtor and any other person from making, transferring or disposing of any part of the debtor's property not exempt from attachment, and from any interference therewith; and if probable cause appears for believing that the debtor is about to conceal or remove from the commonwealth his property or his evidence of property, or any part thereof or to make a fraudulent conveyance or disposition thereof, the judge may issue a warrant under his hand to the sheriff of the county or one of his deputies, ordering him forthwith as messenger to take possession of all the property of the debtor, not exempt from attachment, and safely keep it until the further order of the court.

PETITION BY CREDITORS OF INSANE PERSON.

Petition by creditors of insane person. 1880, 217, §§ 1, 4. 1881, 233. P. S. 157, § 116. 1893, 405, § 3. R. L. 163, § 133.

SECTION 133. Any of the creditors of an insolvent insane person, whose claims provable against his estate amount to one hundred dollars, may file a petition under oath in the court of insolvency for the county, if any, where the debtor has last resided or had a usual place of business for three consecutive months before the filing of said petition, otherwise in the court for the county where he resides, or has a usual place of business, stating his insolvency and the nature of their claims, and praying that his property may be seized and distributed according to this chapter. If after public notice and the appointment of a guardian ad litem for such insane person, and a hearing, the court finds that the interests of the debtor and creditors so require, the judge may issue a warrant to take possession of the property of the debtor and thereupon like proceedings shall be had as in the settlement of estates of other insolvent debtors.

1 SECTION 134. In such case, the schedules of creditors and of property
 2 required by this chapter shall be made and filed by the messenger, upon 3 his best information and belief. The debtor shall not be required to attend
 4 at any meeting of creditors nor be subject to examination, unless ordered 5 by the court.

1 SECTION 135. Within six months after recovering from his insanity,
 2 the debtor may petition the court for his discharge, and shall thereupon 3 be required to deliver to his assignee for the benefit of his creditors any 4 property which was in his hands or possession or to which he was entitled 5 at the time of filing the original petition, and which had not come into 6 the hands or possession of his assignee; shall make a full disclosure 7 thereof, and shall take and subscribe an oath that he has so done; shall 8 submit himself to examination thereon, and may within three months 9 after the filing of his petition file the written assent to his discharge of 10 a majority in number and value of his creditors who have proved their 11 claims, as provided in section ninety-nine. If the court finds, at a meet-12 ing of the creditors called therefor, that he has made a full disclosure and 13 delivery of his property as herein required, that he has conformed to this 14 chapter so far as applicable and that his assets have paid fifty per cent of 15 the claims proved against his estate, or that the written assent to his 16 discharge of a majority in number and value of his creditors who have 17 proved their claims has been filed, the judge shall grant him a certificate, 18 which shall state all fiduciary debts exempt from discharge and shall be in 19 the form and have the effect provided by this chapter for discharges of 20 other insolvent debtors.

CONCEALMENT OF PROPERTY.

1 SECTION 136. A debtor who after notice of the filing of a petition by 2 or against him secretes or conceals property belonging to his estate, or any 3 books, deeds, documents or writings relative thereto, or removes or causes
 4 to be removed the same or any part thereof out of the commonwealth, or 5 otherwise disposes of any part thereof, in order to prevent it from coming 6 to the possession of the messenger or assignee, or to hinder, impede or 7 delay either of them in recovering or receiving the same, or who makes a 8 payment, gift, sale, assignment or other conveyance of property belong-9 ing to his estate; or spends any part thereof in gaming, or otherwise except 10 such as may reasonably be expended for the support of himself and fam-11 ily, not exceeding the amount allowable by law, shall be punished by 12 imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years, or in jail 13 for not more than two years.

PARTNERSHIPS.

1 SECTION 137. Upon petition by one or more partners who are in-
 2 solvent to the court for the county, if any, where the partnership has last 3 had a usual place of business for three consecutive months before the 4 filing of such petition, otherwise to the court for the county where it has 5 or last had a usual place of business, after notice to the other partners if 6 within the commonwealth, or upon petition by a creditor of the partners, 7 the judge may issue a warrant as provided in this chapter, upon which the 8 property of the firm and the separate estate of each of the partners, not 9 exempt from attachment, shall be taken, and the creditors of the firm

SECTION 138. The assignee shall be chosen by the firm creditors and shall keep separate accounts of the joint property of the firm, and of the separate estate of each member thereof; and after deducting from the whole amount received by him the total expenses and disbursements paid, the net proceeds of such joint property shall be appropriated to pay the firm creditors, and the net proceeds of the separate estate of each partner shall be appropriated to pay his separate creditors. Any balance of the separate estate of a partner after payment of his separate debts shall be added to such joint property for the payment of the firm creditors. Any balance of such joint property after payment of the firm debts shall be divided and appropriated to and among the separate estates of the several partners according to their respective rights and interests therein, and as it would have been had the partnership been dissolved without insolvency; and the amount so appropriated to the separate estate of each partner shall be applied to the payment of his separate debts. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15

SECTION 139. The two preceding sections shall apply to insolvent limited partnerships formed under chapter one hundred and nine or the corresponding provisions of earlier laws; but the separate estates and separate debts of the special partners shall not be subject to the proceedings against the partnership. 1 2 3 4 5

Separate allowance to each partner. 1838, 163, § 21. G. S. 118, § 111. P. S. 157, § 123. R. L. 163, § 140. 8 Cush. 109. 163 Mass. 295.

SECTION 140. Each partner shall be entitled to allowance as provided in this chapter for the maintenance of himself and family; and the allowance from the net proceeds of the estates as provided in section one hundred and thirteen shall be computed on the firm estate and also on each of the separate estates as if there had been a separate warrant against each; but none of the partners shall receive in all more than five hundred dollars. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

SECTION 142. If upon dissolution of a partnership, one or more of the partners or a new partnership formed by the addition of new members has agreed to pay any outstanding debts of such partnership, or if a person or firm, in consideration of the receipt or transfer of property, has agreed to pay any outstanding debts of the person from whom such property was received or transferred, and the person agreeing to pay has become insolvent, such debts may, if the creditors so elect, be proved against the estate of such insolvent debtor or debtors, and the proof and allowance thereof shall discharge the person originally liable therefor. If the original debtor, in either of such cases has been compelled to pay the debt so agreed to be paid, he may prove the amount so paid as the original creditor might have done. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

CORPORATIONS.

1 SECTION 143. A domestic corporation or a foreign corporation men-
 2 tioned in section three of chapter one hundred and eighty-one, except 3 railroad and banking corporations and foreign insurance companies,
 4 may file a petition signed by an officer duly authorized by a vote of a 5 majority of the corporators present and voting at a legal meeting called 6 therefor, in the court for the county where the corporation has its prin-7 cipal place of business, stating its inability to pay its debts and its will-8 ingness to assign its property for the benefit of its creditors, and praying 9 that such proceedings may be had as are hereinafter provided. The 10 judge shall forthwith issue a warrant, as upon a petition by a debtor
 11 under section twenty, requiring that the notice given by the messenger 12 shall state further that the making of any contract by the corporation is 13 forbidden by law. The proceedings thereon, except as hereinafter pro-14 vided, shall be the same as upon the petition of a natural person, and in 15 the case of foreign corporations shall apply only to property of the cor-
 16 poration within the commonwealth and the oath provided for in section 17 one hundred and forty-five shall be modified in accordance herewith.

 signed by A. B., and now on file in court, is in all respects just and true; that I do verily believe that all the property and estate of said corporation, and all its books of account and papers, have been delivered to the messenger or the assignee; and that if any goods or estate not so delivered hereafter come to my knowledge, I will faithfully and diligently apprise the assignee thereof. And I do further swear that, to the best and utmost of my knowledge, information and belief, there is no part of the estate or effects of said corporation made over or disposed of in any manner in fraud of the laws relative to insolvency or of the creditors of said corporation.

SECTION 149. If a corporation described in section one hundred and forty-three whose property has been attached on mesne process in a civil action founded on a contract for the amount of one hundred dollars or more, provable under this chapter, has not within fourteen days from the return day of the writ, dissolved the attachment as provided by law, or if such corporation has removed any part of its property from the commonwealth, with intent to defraud its creditors, or conceals any part of its property to prevent its being attached or taken on legal process, or has procured its property to be attached or taken on legal process, or has made a fraudulent payment, conveyance or transfer of its property or any part thereof, or has stopped or suspended and has not resumed payment of its commercial paper within fourteen days, any of its creditors whose claims provable against its estate amount to one hundred dollars may, within ninety days thereafter, file a petition on oath in the court for the county where the corporation has its principal place of business, stating the facts and the nature of their claims, and praying that its property or, if a foreign corporation, its property in the commonwealth, may be seized and distributed according to this chapter; and thereupon, if after notice to a domestic corporation by serving on its president, treasurer or clerk, or to a foreign corporation by serving upon the commissioner of corporations and taxation, thirty days at least before the return day of the notice a copy of the petition, and a hearing or upon default of the corporation to appear at the time and place appointed in the notice, the court finds the facts stated in the petition to be true, the judge shall forthwith issue a warrant to take possession of the property of the corporation or, if a foreign corporation, of its property in the commonwealth; and thereupon like proceedings shall be had as upon a warrant issued upon the petition of a corporation.

COMPOSITION.

Composition. 1884, 236, § 1. 1897, 247, § 1. R. L. 163, § 150.

SECTION 150. Instead of proceeding as required by the laws relative to insolvency, an insolvent debtor or an insolvent domestic corporation having capital stock may obtain a discharge from his or its debts as hereinafter provided.

Proposal for composition. 1884, 236, § 2. R. L. 163, § 151.

SECTION 151. At any time after the filing of the petition by or against the debtor and the schedules required by law, he may file a written proposal for composition with his creditors, stating the amount of the proposed dividend, which shall be payable only in money, the date when payable and the security to be given for such payments so far as deferred.

6 Such proposal shall not be considered unless it conforms to such require-7 ments, nor unless it provides for payment in full of all debts and charges 8 entitled to priority.

1 SECTION 152. If the allegations of the petition appear to be true or 2 if a warrant has been issued, the court, upon the filing of the proposal
 3 for composition, may stay or suspend any process or proceeding which 4 would otherwise be required by law and may make appropriate orders
 5 relative thereto or to the custody of the estate. It shall order a hearing
 6 on such proposal or a modification thereof under section one hundred 7 and fifty-six, of which the register shall send notice by mail postpaid to 8 all known creditors not less than seven days before the day appointed 9 therefor, stating the substance of the proposal or modification thereof.

 2 his estate shall until the final hearing on confirmation of the composition 3 be open at all reasonable times to examination by any creditor or his 4 agent, and the court may enforce production thereof; and during such 5 period the debtor or any other person may be examined by the court or 6 by a creditor as provided by section eighty-two.

 3 forty-eight, inclusive, relative to debts and proof of claims, shall apply
 4 to composition proceedings so far as applicable thereto; but the proceed-5 ings shall not be stayed or suspended on account of an appeal from the 6 allowance or rejection of a claim.

1 SECTION 155. In composition proceedings where no warrant has been 2 issued the date of the notice by the register to the creditors of the debtor's
 3 proposal of composition shall have the same effect relative to the proof 4 of claims and the debtor's discharge as the date of the first publication of 5 the issuing of the warrant in voluntary proceedings in insolvency.

1 SECTION 156. The debtor shall be present at the hearing and may 2 then be examined by the court or by a creditor relative to his estate, and 3 other evidence may be offered. At any time before the hearing is closed 4 the debtor may file any modification of his proposal which shall there-
 5 after be considered the proposal. The hearing shall then be adjourned 6 not less than seven days, and if at or before the day to which such or any 7 subsequent adjournment is made the debtor files in court the written 8 assent to the proposal of a majority in number and value of his creditors
 9 who have proved their claims if the same be for the payment of not less 10 than fifty per cent to the general creditors, or if less than fifty per cent, 11 of three fourths in number and value of such creditors, the court shall at 12 the hearing, or at a further adjournment thereof determine whether the 13 composition shall be confirmed, and any creditor may be heard thereon.
 14 Any matters which would prevent or avoid a discharge in insolvency may 15 be considered in ascertaining the expediency of confirming the same, 16 but not as an absolute bar thereto. If the only objection thereto relates 17 to the security for deferred payments, other security may then be offered.
 18 No claim entitled to priority shall be counted nor shall a creditor whose 19 claim is less than fifty dollars be counted in the number of creditors.

SECTION 157. If the court finds that the composition has been duly assented to and is consistent with justice and for the interests of the creditors, it shall order the same to be confirmed; and by the same order shall limit the time within which money for cash payments and vouchers and securities for deferred payments shall be deposited in court; and upon such deposit within the time so limited therefor, the judge shall grant to the debtor a certificate of discharge from his debts, which shall be substantially in the form and have the same effect as though obtained by the other proceedings in insolvency. It shall not be annulled for a cause which was brought to the notice of the court on the hearing for confirmation, or which was then known to the creditor petitioning to have the same annulled; nor shall it bar the debt of a creditor whose name was fraudulently and wilfully omitted from the debtor's schedule of creditors. But the debt of a creditor omitted therefrom by mistake only or want of knowledge, shall be barred and he shall be entitled to and may recover against the debtor the amount of the dividend to which he would have been entitled in the composition proceedings.

SECTION 160. After the expiration of one year from the deposit in court of the money, vouchers and securities, as provided in section one hundred and fifty-seven, the court may, after notice by mail postpaid, to creditors who have not taken up their dividends, order all such money, vouchers and securities then remaining on deposit in said court, to be paid and transferred to the depositor.

SECTION 161. If the money for the cash payments and the vouchers and securities for deferred payments are not deposited in court within the time limited by the order of confirmation, the case shall proceed in insolvency, and the register shall deliver to the assignee all money and securities which are the property of the debtor which shall have been deposited in court; and all other securities and vouchers which shall have been so deposited shall be returned by the register to the persons

8 who furnished or deposited the same or be otherwise disposed of as the 9 judge may order. In such case the stay or suspension of other proceed-10 ings by reason of the attempted composition shall not affect any rights, 11 and the period of suspension shall be excluded in computing other periods 12 of time provided by the laws relative to insolvency.

1 SECTION 162. This chapter shall not release an officer or stockholder
 2 of a corporation from any liability under sections thirty-five to thirty-3 seven, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and fifty-six, but if such cor-
 4 poration applies for a discharge as hereinbefore provided any creditor
 5 may, at any time after the filing of the offer in composition, file a bill in 6 equity in behalf of himself and other creditors of the corporation, against 7 it and all stockholders thereof at the time of the filing of the petition in 8 insolvency by or against the corporation, or against all the officers liable 9 for its debts and contracts, for the recovery of the amounts due from the 10 corporation to himself and the other creditors for which the stockholders 11 or officers may be personally liable by reason of any act or omission on 12 its part or on that of its officers, stating the nature of his claim and the 13 grounds upon which it is expected to charge the stockholders or officers 14 personally. It shall be unnecessary to allege or prove a judgment against 15 the corporation or the return of an execution unsatisfied. If the ground 16 upon which it is expected to charge the officers of the corporation is an 17 excess of debts above the capital stock, the extent of such excess shall 18 be taken to be that existing at the time of the filing of the petition in 19 insolvency by or against said corporation.

 R. L. 164, §§ 21-23.

SECTION 11. Judges of probate shall semi-annually inspect the doings of the registers of their courts, and see that the records and files are made up seasonably and kept in good order; and if the records are left incomplete for more than six consecutive months, such neglect, unless caused by illness or casualty, shall be adjudged a forfeiture of the bond of the register. In case of any neglect causing a forfeiture of the bond of the register or assistant register, the judge shall forthwith give written notice thereof to the state treasurer, who shall thereupon cause the bond to be put in suit; and the amount recovered in such suit shall be applied to the expense of making up the deficient records under the direction of the court in whose records the deficiency exists, and the surplus, if any, shall be carried into the account of such treasurer. This section shall not exempt registers or assistant registers from an action for any other breach of their bond, or from other liability for neglect or misconduct in office.

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE.

Alternative procedure established by rule for small civil cases. 1920, 553, § 1. 1922, 99, § 1. 1928, 144, § 1. 248 Mass. 170.

SECTION 21. The justices or a majority of them of all the district courts, except the municipal court of the city of Boston, shall make uniform rules applicable to said courts, and the justices of the municipal court of the city of Boston shall make rules applicable to that court, providing for a simple, informal and inexpensive procedure, hereinafter called the procedure, for the determination, according to the rules of substantive law, of claims in the nature of contract or tort, other than slander and libel, in which the plaintiff does not claim as debt or damages more than fifty dollars, and for a review of judgments upon such claims when justice so requires. The procedure shall not be exclusive, but shall be alternative to the formal procedure for causes begun by writ. Actions under this and the four following sections shall be brought in the judicial district where the defendant lives or has his usual place of business.

Procedure. 1920, 553, § 1. 248 Mass. 170.

SECTION 22. The procedure shall include the beginning of actions with an entry fee of one dollar but without writ, and without requirement, except by special order of court, of other pleading than a statement to the clerk or an assistant clerk, who shall reduce the same to concise written form in a docket kept for the purpose. The procedure shall include notice by registered mail instead of the mode of service heretofore required, and shall include provisions for early hearing. The procedure may include the modification of any or all rules of pleading and practice, anything contained in other chapters, sections or acts notwithstanding, and may include a stay of the entry of judgment or of the issue of execution. The rules for the procedure may provide for the elimination of any or all fees and costs, and that costs shall be in the discretion of the court. In causes begun under the procedure, the court may on application for cause shown issue writs of attachment of property or person as in causes begun by writ.

Judgment final when removed, when and by whom. 1920, 553, §§ 2, 3. 1925, 132, § 1. 248 Mass. 170.

SECTION 23. A plaintiff beginning a cause under the procedure shall be deemed to have waived a trial by jury and any right of appeal to the superior court and any right to a report to an appellate division; but if said cause shall be removed to the superior court as hereinafter provided, the plaintiff shall have the same right to claim a trial by jury as if the cause had been begun in the superior court. No other party to a cause under the procedure shall be entitled to an appeal or report. In lieu thereof, any such party may, prior to the day upon which he is notified to appear, file in the court where the cause is pending a claim of trial by jury, and his affidavit that there are questions of fact in the cause requiring trial, with specifications thereof, and that such trial is intended in good faith, together with the sum of three dollars for the entry of the cause in the superior court and a bond in the penal sum of one hundred dollars, with such surety or sureties as may be approved by the plaintiff or the clerk or an assistant clerk of the district court, payable to the other party or parties to the cause, conditioned to satisfy any judgment for costs which may be entered against him in the su-

18 perior court in said cause within thirty days after the entry thereof;
 19 and thereupon the clerk shall forthwith transmit such original papers 20 or attested copies thereof as the rules for the procedure may provide, 21 and the superior court may try the cause as transmitted or may require 22 pleadings as in a cause begun by writ, but the cause may be marked for 23 trial on the list of causes advanced for speedy trial by jury. Sections 24 one hundred and five and one hundred and seven of chapter two hundred 25 and thirty-one shall apply in all district courts in causes begun under 26 the procedure. Any party, in lieu of filing the bond required by this 27 section, may deposit with the clerk the sum of one hundred dollars and 28 the provisions of section one hundred and six of said chapter two hundred 29 and thirty-one shall apply.

1 SECTION 24. The court may, in its discretion, transfer a cause begun
 2 under the procedure to the regular civil docket for formal hearing and 3 determination as though it had been begun by writ, and may impose 4 terms upon such transfer.

1 SECTION 25. In any cause begun by writ which might have been 2 begun under the procedure, the rules for the procedure may provide, or 3 the court may by special order direct, that the costs to be recovered by 4 the plaintiff, if he prevails, shall be eliminated in whole or in part.

CRIMINAL JURISDICTION.

1 SECTION 26. District courts shall have original jurisdiction, concur-
 2 rent with the superior court, of the following offences committed within 3 their respective districts or otherwise made punishable therein: all vio-
 4 lations of by-laws, orders, ordinances, rules and regulations, made by 5 cities, towns and public officers, all misdemeanors, except conspiracies and 6 libels, all felonies punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not 7 more than five years, the crimes mentioned in sections eighteen and nine-8 teen of chapter two hundred and sixty-six, and the crimes of forgery of 9 a promissory note, or of an order for money or other property, and of ut-10 tering as true such a forged note or order, knowing the same to be forged, 11 if in either case the sum of money or the value of the property named in 12 such note or order does not exceed fifty dollars.

1 SECTION 43A. There shall be an administrative committee of dis-
 2 trict courts, which shall consist of the three presiding justices for the 3 time being designated by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court 4 under section one hundred and eight of chapter two hundred and thirty-5 one to act in the appellate districts of district courts, other than the mu-
 6 nicipal court of the city of Boston. The committee shall be authorized 7 to visit any district court, other than the municipal court of the city of 8 Boston, as a committee or by sub-committee, to recommend uniform
 9 practices, forms of blanks and records, and to superintend the keeping 10 of records by clerks.

 14 for their services actually performed in the work of such committee as 15 the governor and council shall approve, to be paid from the treasury of 16 the commonwealth.

17 To promote co-ordination in the work of the courts, the administrative 18 committee may call a conference of any or all of the justices of the district
 19 courts, including the municipal court of the city of Boston, or of other 20 officials connected with such courts, and the traveling expenses of such 21 justices or officials for attending any such conferences shall be paid as the 22 other expenses of the respective courts are paid.

1 SECTION 44. Processes issuing from district courts shall be under the 2 seal of the court, signed by the clerk or an assistant clerk or temporary 3 clerk or temporary assistant clerk, and shall bear teste of the justice, or,
 4 in the municipal court of the city of Boston, the chief justice, unless he 5 is a party or unless his office is vacant, and in such cases they shall bear
 6 teste of the special justice who holds the senior commission or the senior 7 associate justice. The process, civil or criminal, of a district court shall 8 run throughout the commonwealth for service in any case or proceeding 9 within its jurisdiction.

SECTION 47. Clerks of district courts, except the municipal court of the city of Boston, shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, account for and pay over to the county treasurer all money received by them from civil business, including fees for blanks and copies, and to city and town treasurers all fines and forfeitures received by them payable to said cities or towns, and render to said treasurers a detailed account on oath of the same. Such payments shall include the balances due and payable at the end of the month last preceding the day of payment. They shall, at the end of a criminal case, pay the fees and expenses of officers entitled thereto from the funds in their hands payable to the city or town liable for the payment of such fees and expenses, if they have sufficient funds therefor, and all such fees and expenses not so paid shall be certified at the end of each month to the treasurer of the city or town liable therefor, who shall pay them to the parties entitled thereto. They shall, at the end of a criminal case or inquest, pay the fees of witnesses for the commonwealth and the fees and expenses of officers at inquests who are entitled thereto, from the funds furnished them by the county treasurer for that purpose, or out of any funds which may be paid into court and are payable to the county. They shall be allowed for the amounts so paid in their settlement with the county, city and town treasurers. If they do not have in their hands sufficient funds returnable to counties with which to pay such fees, as herein provided, they may make written requisition therefor upon the county treasurer, who shall pay to them not more than two hundred dollars each in any one month; but if it appears necessary to the director of accounts, he may approve in addition thereto a requisition for not more than two hundred dollars in any one month, and, upon receipt of a requisition so approved, the county treasurer may pay to them such amount as may be called for therein. They shall account therefor in their regular settlements with the county treasurer and shall be liable therefor on their official bonds. A clerk violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

CLERKS OF COURTS.

Clerk of court for commonwealth. 1859, 196, § 40. G. S. 121, §§ 1, 2. P. S. 159, §§ 1, 2. R. L. 165, § 1.

SECTION 1. The justices of the supreme judicial court shall appoint the clerk of the supreme judicial court for the commonwealth for a term of five years from the date of his appointment, and may appoint an assistant clerk of said court for a term of three years from the first day of January next after his appointment, and may remove them.

His duties. 1859, 196, §§ 42, 43. G. S. 121, §§ 3-5. P. S. 159, §§ 3-5. R. L. 165, § 2.

SECTION 2. The clerk shall attend all sessions of the court, preserve all the files and papers thereof, keep a docket record of all questions transferred, and of all petitions, complaints or other processes presented to the court, and enter thereon the names of the parties in full and of the counsel who appear in their behalf, and a brief description of the nature of the action or proceeding. He shall also record thereon accurate minutes of all orders, decrees or directions of the court in each case, transmit forthwith to the clerks of courts in the several counties all rescripts made or ordered by the court and the papers which belong to the supreme judicial court or the superior court in each case, and receive and keep safely all papers transmitted to him by the clerks of the courts. He shall make copies of all papers on file in said court and of the docket record thereof, if desired, and certify them under the seal of the court. He shall issue such writs or other processes as the court orders, shall charge the fees provided by law for like services for clerks of courts, and, if no express fee is provided, he shall receive a fair compensation for the services required of him in analogy to like services for which a compen-

18 sation is fixed by law. He shall annually, before the last Wednesday 19 of December, account with and pay over to the state treasurer all fees 20 received by him.

1 SECTION 3. There shall be a clerk for the supreme judicial court
 2 for the county of Suffolk, and two clerks for the superior court of said
 3 county, one for civil and one for criminal business; and in each of the 4 other counties a clerk of the courts who shall act as clerk of the supreme 5 judicial court, of the superior court and of the county commissioners.
 6 All of said officers shall hold office for six years beginning with the first 7 Wednesday of January following their election and until their succes-8 sors are qualified.

SECTION 7. The clerks of the courts of the several counties except Suffolk may designate such employees in their offices, as in their judgment may be necessary for the convenience of the public, as deputy assistant clerks of the courts, who shall have the same authority to administer oaths as the assistant clerks of the courts. Under the direction of the clerk, such of his duties as clerk of the county commissioners as he shall designate shall be performed by a deputy assistant clerk. The clerks of the courts may from time to time, as necessity or the public convenience requires, authorize in writing one or more deputy assistant clerks, designated as aforesaid, to act as assistant clerks of the courts and may in like manner invest them with such powers of assistant clerks as may be necessary for the purpose.

Deputy assistant clerks. 1919, 246. 1922, 423, § 1. 1925, 108.

SECTION 8. If by reason of illness or other cause the clerk of the courts in any county, or of the supreme judicial court in Suffolk county, is unable to perform his duties, and there is no assistant clerk or he also is unable to perform the duties of his office, the justices of the supreme judicial court may appoint a temporary clerk, who shall perform the duties of the office until the clerk or assistant clerk resumes his duties. The justices of the superior court may appoint a temporary clerk if a clerk and assistant clerk of that court in Suffolk county cannot perform the duties of the office. When after any such temporary appointment the clerk or assistant clerk resumes his duties, he shall make a record of that fact, with the date, under his signature, in the latest book of records in each of his courts.

Temporary clerks. 1851, 158, §§ 1, 3. 1859, 196, § 9. G. S. 121, § 9. P. S. 159, § 10. R. L. 165, § 8.

SECTION 9. If an assistant clerk of the courts is unable to perform the duties of his office, a temporary assistant clerk may be appointed in the same manner as an assistant clerk and he shall perform the duties of that office until the assistant clerk resumes his duties.

Temporary assistant clerks. 1863, 64, § 1. P. S. 159, § 11. R. L. 165, § 9.

SECTION 10. If at a sitting of any court neither the clerk nor assistant clerk is present, the court may appoint a temporary clerk, who shall perform the duties of the office during the sitting or until the clerk or assistant clerk resumes his duties, unless an appointment under one of the two preceding sections is sooner made or unless a new clerk has qualified.

Appointment by court of temporary clerk. 1815, 37. R. S. 81, § 11; 88, § 13. G. S. 121, § 10. P. S. 159, § 12.

1 SECTION 11. The clerk, assistant clerk, temporary clerk and tempo-
2 rary assistant clerk of a court shall be sworn before a justice thereof,
3 who shall, upon administering the oaths of office, forthwith make return
4 of such act with the date thereof to the state secretary.

2 court for the commonwealth shall, before entering upon the performance
3 of his duties, each give bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for the 4 faithful performance of his official duties, payable to the state treasurer,
5 with sufficient surety or sureties approved by the court. Each clerk,
6 assistant clerk, and each temporary assistant clerk appointed under sec-
7 tion nine, shall give bond in like manner to the county treasurer, in a 8 sum not less than five hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, to 9 be determined by the court; and each temporary clerk appointed under 10 section eight shall give bond in like manner, if required by the court.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL.

Establishment. Purpose.
1924, 244.
1930, 142.

SECTION 34A. There shall be a judicial council for the continuous study of the organization, rules and methods of procedure and practice of the judicial system of the commonwealth, the work accomplished, and the results produced by that system and its various parts. Said council shall be composed of the chief justice of the supreme judicial court or some other justice or former justice of that court appointed from time to time by him; the chief justice of the superior court or some other justice or former justice of that court appointed from time to time by him; the judge of the land court or some other judge or former judge of that court appointed from time to time by him; the chief justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston or some other justice or former justice of that court appointed from time to time by him; one judge of a probate court in the commonwealth and one justice of a district court in the commonwealth and not more than four members of the bar all to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the executive council. The appointments by the governor shall be for such periods, not exceeding four years, as he shall determine.

Annual report, etc.

SECTION 34B. The judicial council shall report annually on or before December first to the governor upon the work of the various branches of the judicial system. Said council may also from time to time submit for the consideration of the justices of the various courts such suggestions in regard to rules of practice and procedure as it may deem advisable.

Compensation Expenses. Secretary.
1927, 293, § 1.

SECTION 34C. No member of said council, except as hereinafter provided, shall receive any compensation for his services, but said council and the several members thereof shall be allowed from the state treasury out of any appropriation made for the purpose such expenses for clerical and other services, travel and incidentals as the governor and council

6 shall approve. The secretary of said council, whether or not a member
7 thereof, shall receive from the commonwealth a salary of thirty-five 8 hundred dollars.

BAR EXAMINERS.

1 SECTION 35. There shall be a board of bar examiners consisting of 2 five persons, residing in different counties, one of whom shall annually
3 be appointed by the justices of the supreme judicial court for a term of 4 five years from October first in the year of his appointment, and who may 5 be removed by them. Such justices may fill vacancies.

Appointment.
1897, 508, § 1
R. L. 165, § 39.

1 SECTION 36. Said board may, subject to the approval of the supreme 2 judicial court, make rules with reference to examinations for admission
3 to the bar and the qualifications of applicants therefor, and determine 4 the time and place of such examinations, and conduct the same; provided,
5 that any applicant for admission to the bar who is a graduate of a college 6 or who has complied with the entrance requirements of a college, or who 7 has fulfilled for two years the requirements of a day or evening high 8 school or of a school of equal grade, shall not be required to take any 9 examination as to his general education. The expenses of said board, as 10 certified by its chairman and approved by a justice of the supreme 11 judicial court, shall be paid by the commonwealth, together with such 12 compensation to each member as the justices of the supreme judicial 13 court approve, but said expenses and compensation shall not be in 14 excess of the amounts paid to the commonwealth under the following 15 section.

3 court to be examined for admission as an attorney at law, and, if found 4 qualified, to be admitted as such; whereupon, unless the court other-
5 wise orders, the petition shall be referred to the board of bar examiners 6 to ascertain his acquirements and qualifications. If the board reports 7 that the petitioner is of good moral character and of sufficient acquire-8 ments and qualifications, and recommends his admission, he shall be 9 admitted unless the court otherwise determines, and thereafter may 10 practice in all the courts of the commonwealth. The petitioner shall 11 pay to the clerk of the court in which his petition is filed a fee of fifteen 12 dollars upon the entry thereof, and a further fee of fifteen dollars upon 13 the entry of any subsequent petition. Such fees shall be paid over to 1919, 71.

1 SECTION 43. No attorney at law shall through any runner, agent or 2 person who is employed by him solicit a person to employ him to present
 3 a claim for damages, or to prosecute an action to enforce such a claim, and 4 no attorney at law shall directly or indirectly give or promise any person
 5 any money, fee, commission, profitable employment or other personal 6 advantage in consideration of his employing such attorney on behalf 7 of a person having a claim for damages, or soliciting or procuring the 8 person who has such claim to employ such attorney to present such claim 9 or to prosecute an action for the enforcement thereof. No attorney 10 shall appear in any suit for the enforcement of a claim in connection 11 with which he has violated this section.

 3 chief deputies and the chief court officer in Worcester county designated 4 under the preceding section, shall hold office during good behavior and 5 until they are removed by the sheriff of the county for which they were 6 appointed, for cause approved by the justices of the court for attendance
 7 upon which they were appointed. Court officers appointed to attend 8 upon both of said courts may be removed for cause approved by the 9 justices of either of said courts. In Suffolk county officers in attendance 10 upon the supreme judicial court or upon the superior court may be inter-11 changed or transferred from either of said courts to the other court by the 12 sheriff, with the approval, in each instance, of the chief justice of the court

The defendant in an action brought in Suffolk county by the city of Boston or by its collector may, if the action is brought in the supreme judicial or superior court, within thirty days after the day for appearance, or if the action is commenced in a district court and removed to the superior court, within thirty days after such removal, file a motion in writing for the removal of the action to Essex, Middlesex or Norfolk county; and the court shall thereupon order it to be removed to the same court in such one of said counties as the attorney of the city of Boston elects.

Actions by and against executors, etc. 1865, 13, § 1. P. S. 161, § 2.

SECTION 11. A transitory action by or against an executor or administrator may be brought in a county in which it might have been brought by or against the testator or intestate at the time of his decease.

Actions relative to land in different counties, etc. 1859, 37. G. S. 123, § 2. P. S. 161, § 3. R. L. 167, § 11. 102 Mass. 458.

SECTION 12. If a tract of land lies in two or more counties, an action relative to it, to which neither a county, the city of Boston nor any corporation named in section eight is a party, may be brought in any of said counties, and the declaration shall be so drawn as to include the whole tract.

Change of venue. 1887, 347. R. L. 167, § 12. 208 Mass. 162.

SECTION 13. If the supreme judicial or superior court finds that a party to an action or proceeding pending therein cannot, by reason of local prejudice or other cause, have an impartial trial in the county where the action or proceeding was commenced, it may, upon the application of either party, order it to be removed for trial to another county. Upon the entry of such order, the clerk of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending shall forthwith transmit all the papers in the case and a certified copy of said order to the clerk of the court for the county to which it has been ordered to be removed. The clerk who receives such papers and order shall forthwith enter them on his docket, and the case shall thereupon proceed as if it had been originally commenced in the county to which it has been removed.

Venue for recovery of forfeitures. R. S. 90, § 17. G. S. 123, § 8. P. S. 161, § 11. R. L. 167, § 13. 216 Mass. 344.

SECTION 14. A civil action for the recovery of a forfeiture, except an action in which the commonwealth is plaintiff, or in which money is sought to be recovered for the commonwealth, shall be brought in the county where the offence was committed, unless the statute imposing the forfeiture otherwise provides.

1 SECTION 15. If a local action commenced in the supreme judicial 2 or superior court has been brought in the wrong county, the court may,
 3 if the error is discovered at the trial, of its own motion order a non-
 4 suit, unless good cause is shown why the trial should be allowed to pro-5 ceed; or, if the error is discovered at any stage of the proceedings of an 6 action, local or transitory, the court may, upon motion of either party, 7 order the action, with all papers relating thereto, to be removed to the 8 proper county upon terms to the defendant; and it shall thereupon 9 be entered and prosecuted in the same court for that county as if it had 10 been originally commenced therein, and all prior proceedings otherwise 11 regularly taken shall thereafter be valid.

FORMS, ISSUING AND RETURN OF WRITS.

1 SECTION 16. Actions at law, unless founded on scire facias or other
 2 special writs, or unless otherwise authorized by statute or by established 3 practice, shall be commenced by original writs. Such writs shall be 4 signed, sealed and bear teste as required by the constitution, and shall 5 be framed either to summon the defendant, with or without an order 6 to attach his goods or estate, or to attach his goods or estate and, for 7 want thereof, to take his body; or, in an action commenced by trustee 8 process, to attach his goods or estate in his own hands and also in the 9 hands of the trustee. Original writs shall be in the form heretofore 10 established by law and by the usage and practice of the courts. If 11 changes in their form are necessary in order to adapt them to changes 12 in the law, or for any other sufficient reason, the courts may make such 13 changes, subject to the final control of the supreme judicial court, which 14 may by general rule regulate such changes in all the courts.

SECTION 24. The first Monday of every month shall be a return day in every county for writs, processes, notices to appear and citations in all actions, suits and other civil proceedings in the supreme judicial court and the superior court, and for the entry in the superior court of actions appealed from district courts. If said first Monday is a legal holiday, such writs, processes, notices and citations shall be returned, and such suits entered, on the day following. Such writs, processes, notices and citations may be made returnable, at the election of the party who takes out the same, at any return day within three months after the date thereof; but said courts may make them returnable at other times. If they issue out of the supreme judicial court for Dukes or Nantucket county, they shall be returnable in Bristol county.

SECTION 26. If the writ requires the officer to attach the goods or estate of the defendant and for want thereof to take his body, the plaintiff or his attorney may by written or verbal directions require the officer to serve the writ by an attachment of goods or estate or by the arrest of the defendant, if such arrest is authorized, and the officer shall serve the writ according to such directions.

1 SECTION 27. An original writ issued by the supreme judicial or the 2 superior court shall be served fourteen days at least before the return
 3 day. An original writ issued by a district court may be directed to and 4 served by any officer qualified to serve civil process in actions involving 5 the amount of damages claimed in the writ, and shall be served not less 6 than seven nor more than sixty days before the return day; but if such 7 writ is to be served in a county other than that in which the court issuing 8 it is held, it shall, except in trustee process, be served at least fourteen 9 days before the return day.

SECTION 43. Railroad cars and engines and street railway cars, in use and making regular passages on railroads or railways, and steamboats so in use upon water routes, shall not be attached upon mesne process unless the officer who makes the attachment has first demanded of the owners or managers thereof other property, upon which to make it, equal in value to the ad damnum in the writ, and such owners or managers have refused or neglected to comply with said demand; except that a steamboat so in use may be attached, if the attachment is made more than forty-eight hours before its fixed time of departure. Such attachment shall be void unless the officer certifies in his return that he has made such demand and that the owners or managers have refused or neglected to comply therewith.

Declaration to be inserted in writ, etc., before attachment of ship or vessel. 1881, 124. P. S. 161, § 39. R. L. 167, § 39. 1931, 426, § 296.

SECTION 44. No ship or vessel shall be attached on mesne process in an action at law unless a declaration is inserted in the writ before service thereof, nor unless the plaintiff or a person in his behalf makes affidavit and proves to the satisfaction of a justice of a court or a master in chancery that he has a good cause of action and reasonable expectation of recovering an amount, exclusive of all costs, equal to at least one third the damages demanded in such writ, which affidavit and the certificate of the magistrate that he is satisfied that the same is true shall be annexed to the writ.

SECTION 45. The press, type, stands, cases, paper and other personal property used in printing and publishing newspapers shall not, within forty-eight hours previous to the issue of any edition of a newspaper, be attached upon mesne process unless the officer who makes the attachment has, at least twenty-four hours previously thereto, demanded of the owners or managers thereof other property, upon which to make it, equal in value to the amount of the ad damnum of the writ and such owners or managers have refused or neglected to comply with such demand. Such attachment shall be void unless the officer certifies in his return that he has made such demand, the time when it was made and that it has not been complied with. Such attachment, made after such demand, shall take effect from the time demand was made, so as to take priority of any mortgage, pledge, conveyance or attachment made subsequent to such demand.

Attaching officer may require security. 1921, 425, § 1.

SECTION 45A. If there is reasonable doubt as to the ownership of personal property or as to its liability to be attached on mesne process, before or after the attachment has been made, the officer may require sufficient security from the plaintiff to indemnify him for attaching or continuing to hold the same. If sufficient security is not furnished within a reasonable time after the officer has made a written demand upon the plaintiff or his attorney, the officer may refuse to attach such property or, if he has attached it, may release it from attachment, without liability to the plaintiff therefor.

Successive attachments on the same writ. R. S. 90, § 55. G. S. 123, § 33.

SECTION 46. Successive attachments may be made upon the same writ by one or more officers and in one or more counties, before, but not after, service of the summons.

1 SECTION 47. Personal property which has been attached or taken on 2 execution by a constable may be further attached or taken on execution
 3 by a deputy sheriff or other competent officer, upon any writ of attach-4 ment or execution which such constable is not qualified to serve; and 5 thereupon such constable shall make return upon and deliver his writ
 6 or execution, with the possession of the property, to such deputy sheriff 7 or other officer, who shall complete the service thereof. If such writ of 8 attachment has been returned into court, the constable shall file in the 9 case a certificate of the fact of such surrender of possession.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCESS.

1 SECTION 84. If the service of a writ, process or order is defective or insufficient, the court or tribunal to which it is returnable may, upon motion of the plaintiff or petitioner, issue further writs, processes and orders, which shall be served in such manner as may be therein directed; and upon due service thereof, the court or tribunal shall thereby acquire the same jurisdiction of the subject and of the parties as it would have obtained if such service had been made in pursuance of the original writ, process or order. The action, suit or proceeding shall be continued from time to time until such service is made.

1 SECTION 85. At any time during the pendency of an action, suit, libel, petition or other proceeding at law or in equity, upon the commencement of which an arrest or attachment is authorized by law, the court for cause may, on motion ex parte, order such arrest of the defendant or such attachment of his property by trustee process or otherwise to secure the judgment or decree which the plaintiff may obtain in said cause; but no arrest of the defendant shall be authorized unless the same facts as are required to be proved to authorize an arrest on mesne process are proved to the satisfaction of the court by affidavit as provided in section two of chapter two hundred and twenty-four. Except in Suffolk county, a clerk of such court may, under the same conditions, order such attachment of the property of the defendant. Such arrest or attachment shall be subject to all the provisions of law relative to arrest and attachment upon mesne process, so far as applicable.

1 SECTION 86. A precept for such arrest or attachment shall be in the same form, so far as practicable, as an original writ of capias and attachment; but the supreme judicial court may by general rules establish forms therefor. Such precept may be served by an officer authorized to serve the original process in the cause, and shall be returnable as may be ordered by the court which issues it.

Precepts, form, etc. 1876, 167, §§ 2, 3. P. S. 161, §§ 86, 87. R. L. 167, § 81. 215 Mass. 341.

SECTION 86A. Upon motion of the plaintiff at any time after a verdict has been rendered or a finding of liability or otherwise made in his favor in any action at law in the superior court, or after a finding in his favor fixing the amount of an unliquidated claim has been made in a suit in equity in the supreme judicial or superior court, and before final judgment or decree therein, such court shall thereupon have jurisdiction in equity by appropriate procedure and process to cause to be reached, held and thereafter applied in payment of any judgment or decree in his favor in such action or suit the same kind of property, right, title or interest, legal or equitable, of a defendant, within or without the commonwealth, which may be reached and applied under clauses (7) and (8) of section three of chapter two hundred and fourteen, and any property, right, title or interest, legal or equitable, real or personal, including any shares or interests in corporations organized under the laws of the commonwealth or of the United States, and located or having a general office in the commonwealth, fraudulently conveyed by the defendant with intent to defeat delay or defraud his creditors or to defeat or delay the plaintiff in the satisfaction of his claim, or purchased, or directly or indirectly paid for, by him, the record or other title to which is retained in the vendor or is conveyed to a third person with intent to defeat, delay or defraud the creditors of the defendant or to defeat or delay the plaintiff in the satisfaction of his claim: provided, that, in reaching and applying hereunder the interest of a partner in partnership property, the business of the partnership shall not be enjoined or otherwise interrupted further than to restrain the withdrawal of any portion of the defendant's share or interest therein until final judgment or decree in such action or suit. If such equitable relief is granted, the defendant may give to the plaintiff a sufficient bond payable to him with sureties approved by the court conditioned to pay him the amount of his judgment or decree within thirty days after it is rendered or made and, upon the filing of such bond with the clerk, the court shall proceed no further in the proceedings to reach and apply and any injunction previously issued in the course of such proceedings shall be dissolved.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY ATTACHED.

SECTION 99. A creditor who is entitled to the benefit of the bond, and who has not joined in bringing the action thereon may bring a writ of scire facias upon the judgment and recover any amount due to him upon the bond; or he may, upon motion at any time before final judgment, become a party to the action upon terms.

Limitation. R. S. 90, § 69. G. S. 123, § 85. P. S. 161, § 102. R. L. 167, § 95.

SECTION 100. No creditor whose cause of action on such bond accrued more than one year before the commencement of the action shall have judgment or execution, and no creditor shall bring a writ of scire facias upon the judgment, unless within one year after his cause of action accrues.

Creditor may be paid, when. R. S. 90, § 70. G. S. 123, § 86. P. S. 161, § 103. R. L. 167, § 96.

SECTION 101. If property which has been sold, or appraised and delivered to the debtor, in the manner before provided is attached by several creditors, any one of them may demand and receive satisfaction of his judgment, notwithstanding a prior attachment, if he is otherwise entitled to demand the money, and if a sufficient amount of the proceeds of the property, or of its appraised value, remains to satisfy all prior attachments.

ATTACHMENT OF SHARE OF JOINT OWNER OF PERSONALTY.

Appraisal at request of part owner. 1835, 143, § 1. R. S. 90, § 73. G. S. 123, § 87. P. S. 161, § 105. R. L. 167, § 97. 2 Met 36. 129 Mass. 127.

SECTION 102. If personal property of two or more part owners is attached in an action against one or more of them, it shall, upon the request of any other part owner, be examined and appraised in the manner provided in sections eighty-eight to ninety-two, inclusive, except that the part owner who makes the application shall, and the debtor shall not, appoint one of the appraisers. This section shall not apply to partnership property.

Delivery to part owner. 1835, 143, § 2, 3. R. S. 90, §§ 74, 77.

SECTION 103. The property so appraised shall be delivered to the part owner at whose request it was appraised, upon his giving bond to the attaching officer in a sufficient sum, with two sufficient sureties,

4 conditioned to restore such property in like good order or to pay to the 5 officer the appraised value of the defendant's share or interest therein, 6 or to satisfy all such judgments as may be recovered in the action in 7 which it is attached, if demanded within the time during which the 8 property would have been held by the respective attachments. Sections 9 ninety-four to one hundred, inclusive, shall apply to such bond and to 10 an action thereon.

Defences in such case. SECTION 110. No attachment shall be dissolved as aforesaid by reason of a defence to the action which is founded on the laws for the limitation of actions or requiring certain contracts to be made in writing, or by reason of any other like defence, if the court finds that the demand is otherwise well founded and is justly and equitably due.

Damages and costs. SECTION 111. The court may, upon such inquiry, award to either party reasonable costs and, if the prior attachment is maintained, may award to the attaching creditor reasonable damages.

Proceedings upon appeal. SECTION 112. If, during the pendency of the proceedings, the action in which the attachment was made is transferred to another court, the inquiry concerning the attachment shall be transferred to the same court and be there heard and determined.

Effect of judgment. SECTION 113. The judgment of the court upon such an inquiry, whether the attachment is thereby vacated or held to be valid and effectual, shall be a bar to any action which may be brought by the petitioner against the party who made the attachment for any supposed fraud or deceit therein.

REDUCTION OR DISCHARGE OF ATTACHMENT.

Excessive and unreasonable attachments, how reduced or discharged. SECTION 114. If an excessive or unreasonable attachment is made on mesne process, the defendant or person whose property has been attached may apply in writing, in any county, to a justice of the court to which such process is returnable, for a reduction of the amount of the attachment or for its discharge; and such justice shall order a notice to the plaintiff, or, if the plaintiff is a non-resident, to his attorney, which shall be returnable before himself or any other justice of the same court as speedily as circumstances permit. If, upon a summary hearing of the parties, it is found that the attachment is excessive or unreasonable, the justice shall reduce or dissolve the attachment or order a part of the goods or estate to be released.

DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENT.

By Operation of Law.

Dissolution of attachment by judgment. SECTION 115. If the final judgment is for the defendant, the attachment, except as provided in section sixty, shall be forthwith dissolved.

Dissolution of attachment if no service made on defendant. SECTION 115A. If real property of the defendant is attached in any action and no service is made upon him, the attachment shall be dissolved unless it appears of record that notice of such action has been given to him, in such manner as the court orders, within one year after the entry of the action.

Dissolution of attachment by death of defendant. SECTION 116. An attachment of real or personal property shall be dissolved if the debtor dies before it is taken or seized on execution and administration of his estate is granted in the commonwealth upon

4 an application therefor made within one year after his decease. The 5 attaching officer shall also, upon demand, and upon receiving from the 6 executor or administrator of such debtor so appointed his legal fees and 7 charges for attaching and keeping the property attached by him, deliver 8 it to such executor or administrator. But no attachment of property, 9 real or personal, shall be so dissolved upon that part of the property
 10 which the debtor had alienated before his decease.

By giving Bond.

1 SECTION 120. A defendant whose property has been attached on 2 mesne process in a civil action may, at any time before final judgment, 3 dissolve the attachment by giving a bond with sufficient sureties, who 4 shall be approved by the plaintiff or by his attorney in writing, by a 5 master in chancery or by a justice of a court if the attachment is made 6 within the jurisdiction of such justice, conditioned to pay to the plaintiff, 7 within thirty days after the final judgment in such action, such amount,
 8 if any, as he may recover; and also to pay to the plaintiff, within thirty 9 days after the entry of any special judgment in accordance with the pro-10 visions of chapter two hundred and thirty-five, the amount, if any, for 11 which such special judgment shall be entered. Sureties shall not be 12 sufficient unless they are satisfactory to the plaintiff, or unless the magis-13 trate finds that each, if there are only two, is worth, in excess of his in-14 debtedness, an amount equal to that for which the attachment is laid;

 22 the same is located. The magistrate shall forthwith cause a copy of the 23 application, with notice of the time and place for the hearing, to be served 24 upon the plaintiff, if he resides in the county, otherwise upon the officer 25 who made the attachment; but the plaintiff or his attorney may in writ-26 ing waive such notice or may approve the bond or sureties at any time, 27 or may agree that the amount of the bond is sufficient without approving 28 the sureties, in which case the appraisal hereinafter provided for need not 29 be made. The notice shall be served twenty-four hours, at least, before 30 the time appointed therein for a hearing and as much earlier as the magis-31 trate may order. At the time and place appointed, after hearing the 32 parties, the magistrate shall appoint three disinterested persons to ex-33 amine and appraise the attached property described in the application, 34 who shall be sworn, shall appraise the property at its fair market value and 35 shall make return of their doings in writing to the magistrate at a time and 36 place fixed by him to which the hearing shall be adjourned. At such 37 adjourned hearing the defendant may give bond to the plaintiff, with 38 sureties, who shall be approved by the magistrate as herein provided.
 39 Upon the filing of such bond, as is required by the provisions of section 40 one hundred and twenty-three, the attachment upon the property de-41 scribed therein shall be dissolved. When successive attachments in favor 42 of different plaintiffs are made upon personal property the defendant 43 may release from the attachments the property attached, or such portion 44 thereof as he may elect, by giving bond with sufficient sureties to be 45 approved as hereinbefore provided. The sheriff of the county in which 46 the first attachment was made shall be the obligee on the bond, which 47 shall be deposited immediately after it is given with the clerk of the 48 courts for the same county, except that in Suffolk county it shall be 49 deposited with the clerk of the superior court for civil business. The 50 bond shall be conditioned on the defendant's paying to such sheriff 51 within thirty days after final judgment in any such action or after the 52 entry of a special judgment in any such action under said chapter two 53 hundred and thirty-five, as the case may be, the amount fixed as the 54 value of the property so released, and the amount so paid shall be held 55 by the sheriff, after deducting the necessary charges, subject to the 56 attachments in the order in which they were made, and shall be disposed 57 of in the same manner as the proceeds of attached personal property 58 sold under section eighty-seven.

1 SECTION 126. The magistrate may adjourn such hearing from time
 2 to time. He shall determine the fees of the appraisers. The applicant
 3 shall pay the fees of the magistrate and the appraisers; but if final 4 judgment is in his favor, they shall be taxed as a part of his costs. The 5 magistrate's certificate of the amount shall be filed before said fees are the commonwealth of a receiver to take possession of such property, if 3 the bill or petition praying for the appointment of such receiver is filed 4 in said court within four months after such attachment was made, 5 unless the court at any time, in its discretion, continues such attach- 6 ment for the benefit of the estate of the defendant. In such case, the 7 court may authorize the receiver to prosecute the action upon which the 8 attachment was made for the benefit of the estate of the defendant and 9 may make further orders to enable the receiver to recover for its benefit 10

SECTION 2. No person shall be arrested on mesne process unless the plaintiff, or if the action is brought in behalf of the plaintiff by a guardian, conservator or next friend, or, where there are several plaintiffs, one of the plaintiffs or a guardian, conservator or next friend of one of the plaintiffs acting as such in the action, or, in the case of a corporation, an officer thereof, makes affidavit and proves to the satisfaction of the court to which the writ is returnable —

First, That one of the parties is a resident of or has a usual place of business in the commonwealth, and, except in actions upon negotiable instruments, that the plaintiff is an original party to the cause of action or is his executor or administrator;

12 Second, That he has a good cause of action and reasonable expecta-
13 tion of recovering a sum amounting to twenty dollars exclusive of costs 14 which have accrued in any former action, in an action of contract, or an 15 amount equal at least to one third of the ad damnum in an action of tort;

16 Third, That he believes and has reason to believe that the defendant
17 intends to leave the commonwealth so that supplementary proceedings
18 will not be effective against him;

19 Fourth, That he knows of no property of the defendant within the 20 commonwealth which can be reached by attachment or otherwise, suf-21 ficient to satisfy any judgment he may recover;

22 Fifth, That he believes and has reason to believe that an examination 23 of the defendant will disclose property of the defendant which ought to 24 be held as security for any judgment the plaintiff may recover;

25 Or, instead of the third, fourth and fifth, that the defendant is an 26 attorney at law or a person, member of a firm, agency or association
27 engaged in the business of collecting money, and that the debt sought 28 to be recovered is for money collected by the defendant for the plaintiff 29 and that the defendant unreasonably neglects to pay.

30 Such affidavit, and the certificate of the court that it is found to be 31 true, shall be annexed to the writ. The court may refuse such certifi-32 cate if an arrest in the particular case would be unjust or unnecessary.
33 No arrest shall be made after sunset unless expressly authorized in the

1 SECTION 6. Except as provided in section five, all proceedings for the 2 examination, commitment or discharge of a defendant arrested on mesne
3 process or on execution, and all supplementary proceedings under this 4 chapter as to a judgment debtor, shall be had in the district court within 5 whose judicial district the defendant or debtor was arrested or lives or has 6 a usual place of business or employment; or, if the defendant or debtor 7 does not live or have a usual place of business or employment within the 8 commonwealth, such proceedings may also be had in the district court 9 within whose judicial district the record of the original action is kept.
10 When arrested on mesne process, the defendant shall be allowed a reason-11 able time to procure bail or sureties for his recognizance, and when 12 arrested on execution the debtor shall be allowed reasonable time to 13 procure sureties for his recognizance. If not released, he shall be taken 14 before a proper court, as provided in this chapter; or if he wishes to tiff or creditor with surety or sureties in a sum not less than the ad dam- 17 num of the writ, unless the court shall expressly fix a smaller sum, con- 18 ditioned that he will have a time and place appointed for his examination 19 before some court having jurisdiction, which time shall be within thirty 20 days after the time of his arrest and, in case of an arrest on mesne process, 21 before judgment, giving notice of the time and place thereof as provided 22 in this chapter, and appear at the time and place appointed for his 23 examination, and from time to time until the proceedings are concluded, 24 and not depart without leave of the court, making no default at any time 25 fixed for his examination, and abide the final order of the court thereon. 26

 If the arrest is made when the court is not sitting and the defendant or 27 debtor does not recognize or give bail, the officer making the arrest may 28 deliver him to the keeper of the jail, to be detained therein until the next 29 sitting of the court, when he shall be delivered to said officer to be taken 30 before the court. If the defendant, when taken before the court, does not 31 give bail or recognize to its satisfaction, the court shall cause a certificate 32 thereof to be attached to the writ, and the defendant shall be committed 33 to jail until he gives bail or recognizes or until the time appointed for his 34 examination, or, if no such time be appointed, then until the further order 35 of the court, when he shall be delivered by the jailer to the officer who 36 made the arrest, or, in his absence or disability, to any other officer, to be 37
 by him taken before the court. 38

No person shall be arrested on execution in a civil action unless the 39 creditor or, in case the creditor is a corporation, an officer thereof, after 40 execution has issued makes application for a certificate authorizing said 41 arrest and files affidavit with and proves to the satisfaction of a district 42 court that he believes and has good reason to believe that the debtor 43 intends to leave the commonwealth so that supplementary proceedings 44 will not be effective against him. If a debtor, after being arrested on 45 execution, gives notice that he desires to take an oath that he does not 46 intend to leave the commonwealth, he shall be examined relative thereto, 47 and either party may introduce additional evidence. If the court is 48 satisfied that the debtor did not when arrested, and does not at the time 49 of examination, intend to leave the commonwealth, it shall make certifi- 50 cate thereof, and discharge the debtor from arrest; and immediately 51 upon such discharge, if the creditor so desires, such debtor shall be re- 52 quired, without further notice, to submit to examination and other 53 supplementary proceeding under this chapter. If the debtor when taken 54 before the court does not recognize to its satisfaction he shall be com- 55 mitted to jail until he recognizes or until the time appointed for his 56 examination, or, if no such time be appointed, then until the further order 57
 of the court, when he shall be delivered by the jailer to the officer who 58
 made the arrest, or in his absence or disability to any other officer, to be 59
 by him taken before the court. 60

If there is reasonable doubt as to the identity of the defendant or debtor 61 or as to the lawfulness of his arrest, at the time of the arrest or thereafter, 62 either in the case of arrest on mesne process or execution, the officer may 63 require sufficient security from the plaintiff or creditor to indemnify him 64 for arresting the defendant or debtor or for continuing to retain him in 65 custody. If sufficient security is not furnished within a reasonable time 66 after the officer has made a written demand upon the plaintiff or creditor 67 or his attorney for such security, the officer shall not be obliged to arrest 68 the defendant or debtor or, if he then has the defendant or debtor under 69 arrest, he may release him from custody without liability to the plaintiff 70

71 or creditor therefor. If a prisoner, arrested or committed on execution 72 in a civil action, escapes with the consent or by the negligence of the 73 officer, the creditor may recover in tort against the officer such damages as 74 he has suffered by the escape, and may also have against the original 75 debtor a scire facias or an action on the judgment. No arrest on execution
 76 shall be made after sunset unless expressly authorized in the certificate 77 for cause.

 3 his principal and exonerate himself from further liability, in the manner
 4 provided for surrender by bail, and all proceedings on such surrender shall 5 be the same as provided in the case of bail. If a debtor arrested on execu-

If the time and place for examination be appointed when the defendant is brought before the court under section six, an oral notice by the court to the arresting officer shall be sufficient.

If the plaintiff or creditor, after the request of a defendant or debtor in custody, makes default in payment of the fees, the defendant or debtor shall, without examination and without payment of fees, be discharged from arrest and shall be exempt from further arrest upon the same execution or upon any process founded on the judgment, and a certificate of such discharge signed by the court shall be annexed to the writ or execution; but if, after the oath that he does not intend to leave the commonwealth has once been refused, the defendant or debtor again applies for the benefit thereof, the fees for such subsequent application or examination thereon shall be paid by him.

SECTION 10. The court may continue the examination from time to time, remanding the defendant to jail if still under arrest. If the plaintiff does not attend the examination, personally or by attorney, the defendant shall be discharged from arrest unless the court extends the time or orders further notice. If the plaintiff does attend, the defendant shall be examined on oath as to his intention to leave the commonwealth and relative to his property, and such examination, if in writing, shall be signed and sworn to by the defendant and filed with the court. Either party may introduce additional evidence. The examination may be oral or in writing, in the discretion of the court. If the court shall be satisfied that the defendant does not, and did not when arrested, intend to leave the commonwealth as alleged, or that he has no property which ought to be held as security for any judgment the plaintiff may recover, or that he has such property but has complied with all orders of the court in relation to said property or with so much of said orders as the plaintiff desires, the court shall order the discharge of the defendant from arrest. If the court shall not be so satisfied, it shall make a certificate that the discharge of the defendant from arrest is refused, and he shall, unless released by the giving of bail or a bond as provided in section thirteen or by the written order of the plaintiff or his attorney, be committed to jail until final judgment, and, if final judgment be for the plaintiff, shall be held in jail thereafter until discharged by order of court in any supplementary proceedings in which service shall be made upon him within ten days after such judgment; or, if no such service shall be made within said ten days, he shall be discharged. After a discharge from arrest is refused, a second examination shall not be given within ten days after such refusal.

Delivery, etc.,

SECTION 11. If, upon the examination, it appears that the defendant has property which ought to be held as security for any judgment the

3 plaintiff may recover, the court may order him to deliver the same or so 4 much thereof as may be necessary to secure the plaintiff, or to execute,
 5 acknowledge if necessary, and deliver, a transfer, assignment or convey-6 ance thereof to the court or to a person or persons named by the court,
 7 to be held in trust, in such manner and form as the court may prescribe.
 8 The court may require the plaintiff, from time to time, to advance the 9 reasonable costs of administering the trust. The court may make such 10 orders as to the disposition, control and management of such property as 11 it shall from time to time see fit. If the plaintiff makes application for 12 supplementary proceedings within thirty days after final judgment in his 13 favor, the court shall order that such property be delivered, transferred, 14 assigned or conveyed to the plaintiff, or to a person in his behalf, to be 15 held, sold or redeemed as provided in sections sixteen and seventeen.
 16 If final judgment is rendered for the defendant, or if the plaintiff fails 17 to make such application within the time aforesaid, or refuses to receive 18 the property, or to advance the reasonable costs of administering the 19 trust, the property shall be returned or reconveyed to the defendant as the 20 court shall order and the court may enforce such order by process for 21 contempt.

 2 mesne process or on execution claims support as a pauper, the jailer shall 3 furnish his support at the rate of one dollar and seventy-five cents a week,
 4 to be paid by the plaintiff or creditor, who in such case shall, if required
 5 by the jailer, either from time to time advance the money necessary for 6 the support of the prisoner or give the jailer satisfactory security therefor.
 7 If the plaintiff or creditor neglects to do so for twenty-four hours after 8 demand upon him, his attorney or the committing officer, the jailer shall 9 discharge the prisoner.

 2 time before final judgment, whether an examination has been held or not,
 3 by filing in court a bond payable to the plaintiff, with surety or sureties
 4 approved by the plaintiff or his attorney or by the court and in a sum not 5 less than the ad damnum of the writ, unless the court shall expressly fix
 6 a smaller sum, conditioned that the defendant shall begin supplementary 7 proceedings under this chapter and cause due notice thereof to be served 8 upon the plaintiff or his attorney of record in the action, within thirty 9 days after final judgment for the plaintiff therein, and shall appear at 10 the time appointed for his examination and from time to time thereafter 11 until the proceedings are concluded, not departing without leave of the 12 court and making no default and abiding all orders of the court relative 13 to his property. An order for the discharge of the defendant, under sec-14 tion ten, shall be a discharge of the surety or sureties on such bond.

delivering to the debtor an attested copy thereof, or by leaving it at his last and usual place of abode, at least seven days before the return day thereof. If due service is not made, the court may order further notice. A judgment debtor who has been arrested on mesne process or on execution, or a person in his behalf, may file such an application and cause service to be made upon the judgment creditor or his attorney of record in the action, in a similar manner, requiring the judgment creditor to appear at such examination; and upon failure of the judgment creditor to appear personally or by attorney the proceedings under this section may be dismissed. The failure of a judgment debtor personally to appear without reasonable excuse upon such summons, or at an examination otherwise appointed, or to submit to the examination as provided in section fifteen, shall constitute a contempt of court. Supplementary proceedings shall be in order for examination at the return day and hour set forth in the summons or further notice, but may by order of court for good cause shown be continued from time to time for examination, and may be brought up for further proceedings at such time or times, and in such manner as the court by general or special rule or order may direct. If the court finds that the debtor has no property not exempt from being taken on execution, and is unable to pay the judgment, in full or by partial payments, or if the creditor fails to appear at the examination, personally or by attorney, the proceedings may be dismissed. If the court is satisfied that the debtor has property not exempt from being taken on execution, the court may order him to produce it, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs of the proceedings, so that it may be taken on the execution; or may order him to execute, acknowledge if necessary, and deliver to the judgment creditor, or to a person in his behalf, a transfer, assignment or conveyance thereof; or if the debtor is able to pay the judgment in full or by partial payments the court may, after allowing the debtor out of his income a reasonable amount for the support of himself and family, which amount need not be stated, order the debtor to pay the judgment and costs of the proceedings in full or by partial payments from time to time; or the court may make an order combining any of the orders above mentioned. The court may prescribe the times, places, amounts of payments, forms of instruments and other details in making any of the orders above mentioned. The court may at any time renew, revise, modify, suspend or revoke any order made in any proceedings under the provisions of this

3 assignment or conveyance made under the provisions of section sixteen
4 upon payment of the judgment and costs and the necessary expense
5 actually paid by the creditor for the care or custody of such property.
6 If such property is not redeemed it shall be sold forthwith at public 7 auction, unless in the transfer, conveyance or assignment thereof it was 8 otherwise provided, and the proceeds, after deducting the expenses of 9 such care, custody and sale, shall be applied to the payment of said judg-10 ment and costs, and the excess, if any, remaining after such payments, 11 shall be paid to the debtor; or the creditor may take said property at a 15 ance, and his refusal thereof shall not impair his right to have his execu-

16 tion satisfied in whole or in part by a levy on other property in the manner 17 provided by law. If, after such transfer, assignment or conveyance has 18 been made and before the sale of the property conveyed thereby, the 19 execution is satisfied in full by levy or otherwise, the court shall order
20 that the creditor reconvey said property to the debtor upon such terms
21 or conditions as it may determine and may enforce such order by process 22 for contempt.

1 SECTION 18. The court may issue warrants for arrest and other
2 processes to secure the attendance of debtors or creditors to answer for 3 any contempt under this chapter. An arrest shall not be made after 4 sunset unless specially authorized in the warrant for cause. Contempt 5 of court under this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not more than 6 twenty dollars or by imprisonment in the common jail for not more than 7 thirty days. A debtor or creditor in custody, charged with contempt, 8 shall be entitled to a speedy hearing therefor, and the officer having him
9 in custody shall remain in attendance until excused by the court. A 10 debtor or creditor in custody, charged with contempt, may be released 11 by the court and the hearing on the alleged contempt may be continued.
12 A sentence for contempt shall not end the proceedings, nor any order
13 made therein, and future violations of the order upon which the sentence 14 was founded, or any other order, may likewise be dealt with as for con-
15 tempt. The court shall retain jurisdiction of supplementary proceedings 16 until an order shall be made expressly dismissing them. If the proceed-17 ings are dismissed, the creditor shall not, within one year after the date 18 of such dismissal, file a new application against the same debtor upon the 19 same judgment or a judgment including the same cause of action, unless 20 the court otherwise orders. There shall be no appeal from any judgment,

First, That, since the debt was contracted or the cause of action accrued, the defendant or debtor has fraudulently conveyed, concealed or otherwise disposed of the whole or a part of his property, with intent to secure it to his own use or to defraud his creditors; or

Second, That, since the debt was contracted or the cause of action accrued, the defendant or debtor has hazarded his money or other property to the value of one hundred dollars or more in some kind of gaming prohibited by the laws of this commonwealth; or Third, That, if the action was founded on contract, the defendant or debtor contracted the debt with intent not to pay it.

Such charges shall be in writing, subscribed and sworn to by the plaintiff or creditor or by a person in his behalf, and shall be considered in the nature of an action at law, to which the defendant or debtor may plead that he is guilty or not guilty, and the court may thereupon hear and determine the same. The plaintiff or creditor shall not upon the hearing give evidence of a charge which is not made or filed as herein provided, nor of a fraudulent act of the defendant or debtor which was committed more than three years before the commencement of the original action.

If the court finds that the defendant or debtor is guilty of the charges so alleged, he shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the common jail for not more than one year, and the proceedings for the examination of the defendant or debtor as to his property or ability to pay may be continued by the court to enable the defendant or debtor to appear.

A party aggrieved by a judgment rendered under this section may appeal therefrom to the superior court in the same manner as from a judgment of a district court in civil actions. If the plaintiff or creditor appeals, he shall before allowance thereof recognize with sufficient sureties to enter and prosecute his appeal, to file therewith a copy of all the proceedings on said charges, and to pay all costs if judgment is not reversed. If the defendant or debtor appeals, he shall recognize in like manner, and with the further condition that if final judgment is against him he will, within thirty days thereafter, surrender himself to be taken on execution and abide the order of the court, or pay to the plaintiff or creditor the amount due him upon the claim or execution as the case may be. In the superior court trial shall be by a jury or, with the consent of both parties, by the court.

The payment by the debtor of a debt for necessities, or a debt due on any judgment on which he has previously been summoned to appear in supplementary proceedings, or a reasonable fee for counsel relative to the proceedings, shall not render him liable for contempt.

SECTION 7. If a defendant in an action in the supreme judicial or superior court is absent from the commonwealth or his residence is unknown to the officer serving the writ, and no personal service has been made on him or his agent appointed under section five, or if the service of a writ is defective or insufficient by reason of a mistake of the plaintiff or officer as to where or with whom the summons or copy ought to have been left, the court, upon suggestion thereof by the plaintiff, shall order the action to be continued until notice of the action is given in such manner as it may order. If the property of an absent defendant has been attached and the residence of such defendant is known to the plaintiff and no legal service can be made upon him within the commonwealth, except by publication, the court may order personal service to be made on him in such manner as it may direct and, upon proof that service has been so made, such defendant shall be held to answer to the action. If the defendant does not appear, the court may order the action continued and further notice given to him in such manner as it may direct.

1 SECTION 8. If, after such notice, the defendant does not appear
 2 within twenty-one days after the day specified therefor, a default shall 3 be entered and judgment rendered against him as provided in section 4 one.

1 SECTION 9. If judgment in a personal action is rendered under the 2 preceding section upon the default of a defendant who is absent from 3 the commonwealth or whose residence is unknown, the plaintiff shall 4 not take out execution thereon within one year thereafter, unless he 5 files with the clerk of the court a bond payable to the defendant with 6 one or more sureties, approved by the clerk or, upon appeal from his 7 decision as to the sufficiency of the sureties, by a justice of the court
 8 rendering the judgment, in a sum equal to double the amount recovered,

 2 able to a district court and the defendant is absent from the common-
 3 wealth, so that no service can be made on him and he has no agent or 4 attorney residing in the commonwealth, the court may order the action
 5 to be continued until notice thereof is given to the defendant in such 6 manner as it may direct. If, upon proof that such notice has been given,
 7 the defendant fails to appear on the return day of such notice, judgment
 8 may be entered for the plaintiff. Thereupon execution may issue for 9 the plaintiff, upon his giving bond to the defendant with sufficient surety

SECTION 3. If a corporation operating a railroad, street railway or electric railroad, by reason of its negligence or of the unfitness or negligence of its agents or servants while engaged in its business, causes the death of a passenger, or of a person in the exercise of due care who is not a passenger or in the employment of such corporation, it shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, to be recovered by an indictment prosecuted within one year after the time of the injury which caused the death, which shall be paid to the executor or administrator, and distributed as provided in section one; but a corporation which operates a railroad shall not be so liable for the death of a person while walking or being upon its railroad contrary to law or to the reasonable rules and regulations of the corporation, and one which operates an electric railroad shall not be so liable for the death of a person while so walking or being on that part of its railroad not within the limits of a highway. Such corporation shall also be liable in damages in the sum of not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, to be assessed with reference to the degree of culpability of the corporation or of its servants or agents, which shall be recovered in an action of tort, begun within one year after the injury which caused the death, by the executor or administrator of the deceased, and distributed as provided in section one. If an employee of a railroad corporation, being in the exercise of due care, is killed under such circumstances as would have entitled him to maintain an action for damages against such corporation if death had not resulted, the corporation shall be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as it would have been if the deceased had not been an employee. But no executor or administrator shall, for the same cause, avail himself of more than one of the remedies given by this section.

Action against employer for death
 1887, 270, § 2.
 R. L. 106, § 73.

SECTION 4. If, as the result of the negligence of an employer himself, or of a person for whose negligence an employer is liable under section one of chapter one hundred and fifty-three, an employee is instantly killed,

4 or dies without conscious suffering, the surviving wife or husband of the 5 deceased or, if there is no wife or husband surviving, the next of kin, who,
 6 at the time of such death, were dependent upon the wages of the deceased
 7 for support, shall have a right of action for damages against the employer.
 8 This section shall not apply to injuries caused to domestic servants or 9 farm laborers by fellow employees.

Tenth, Interest accruing as damages for the detention of money or otherwise may be declared on, in addition to other forms of pleading authorized by law, by including in any count followed by an account annexed or bill of particulars the words "and interest", and by stating in the account annexed or bill of particulars the time and amount for and upon which interest is claimed and the amount of interest so claimed.

Eleventh, Written instruments shall be declared on by setting out a copy or such part as is relied on, or the legal effect thereof, with proper averments to describe the cause of action. If the whole contract is not set out, a copy or the original, as the court may direct, shall be filed upon motion of the defendant. If it is necessary and the court so orders, the copy so filed shall be part of the record as if oyer had been granted of a deed declared on according to common law. No profert or excuse therefor need be inserted in a declaration. If the instrument relied on is lost or destroyed, or if it is not within the control of the party relying on it, the substance thereof, as nearly as may be, and the reason why a copy is not given, shall be stated.

Twelfth, The condition of a bond or other conditional obligation, contract or grant declared on shall be set forth. The breaches relied on shall be assigned, and the performance of conditions precedent to the right of the plaintiff to maintain his action shall be averred or his reason for the non-performance thereof stated.

SECTION 9. In an action of ejectment or quare ejectionem for the recovery of the possession of real property for a term of years or other interest for which such an action may be maintained, the action may be described in the writ as an action of ejectment, and a declaration in general terms, substantially in the form set out in the schedule at the end of this chapter, shall be sufficient; and, if the defendant is wrongfully in possession, it shall not be material how he obtained such possession. The plaintiff shall annex to such declaration a statement of the particulars of his title, which shall be deemed part of the declaration, and the court may require him to file a statement of such other particulars, as to damages claimed or otherwise, as it deems proper. The writ need not contain the particulars of title, and if the writ does not contain them, they shall be filed in the same manner and the like provisions of law shall be applicable thereto as in the case of a declaration in a personal action.

1 *SECTION 11. In actions of contract or of tort, unless an arrest of 2 the person is made or except as provided in section forty-four of chap-
 3 ter two hundred and twenty-three, the writ need not contain a declaration 4 or any description of the cause of action in which it is intended to de-5 clare, except the name of the division thereof; but if in such actions in 6 district courts the declaration is not inserted before the service of the writ,
 7 the defendant shall, upon motion, be entitled as of right to a postpone-

* SECTION 41. Whenever two or more persons claim any interest in property, or the proceeds or value of, or damages for the taking, detention or conversion of, any property deposited with any public warehouseman, or other depository for hire, or with any pledgee as security for a loan, such bailee or pledgee may, either in any action against him for the recovery of such property, or for such proceeds, value or damages, or as an original suit brought, if in the superior court, in the county, or if in a district court, in the judicial district, where such property is situated or was last held by such bailee or pledgee, file a petition stating the names and residences of all known claimants. After such notice as the court may order upon the petition to all such claimants, and within such time after the return of such order of notice as the court shall allow, such claimants shall file in said court written statements of their several claims, and any claimant failing to file such claim may be defaulted. The court shall hear and determine the rights and interests of the respective parties in and to such property, proceeds, value or damages, and shall enter judgment accordingly, and upon such final judgment may order such return or delivery of the property, and award such execution or executions for damages or costs or both for or against the respective parties as justice requires. Failure to comply with any such order for the return or delivery of such property may be dealt with as the court directs. The goods may remain in the custody of the bailee or pledgee until final judgment, and shall then be delivered as the court orders. If the petition herein provided for be filed in an action of replevin, any order for the return of the property replevied, or any part thereof, may be for its return to such party to the proceedings as is adjudged entitled to possession thereof; and if the order is not complied with, the bond in such case may, by leave of said court, be put in suit, in the name of the obligee therein, but for the benefit of the party entitled to said property, and in such suit the court may award judgment and execution in accordance with the respective interests of the parties thereto.

SECTION 59. In any action of contract in which the defendant has appeared, any plaintiff, or if a corporation its treasurer, may at any time before the case is on the short list, so called, file an affidavit verifying the cause of action and stating that in his belief there is no defence thereto; and thereupon the clerk shall issue an order requiring the defendant to show cause in writing and on oath why judgment should not be given for the plaintiff. The plaintiff shall immediately give written notice of such order, in such manner as is prescribed by rule of court, to the defendant or his attorney of record, and unless the defendant, within seven days after such notice, or within such further time as the court allows, consents to a default and to judgment for the amount demanded, if the claim is to recover a debt, or liquidated demand, or unless by affidavit setting out specifically and clearly the substantive facts upon which he relies he discloses such facts as the court finds entitle him to defend, the court shall advance said action for speedy trial; but if, upon a hearing under such order and notice, the court does not so advance the action, it may award the defendant reasonable costs. The court shall require the defendant to disclose specifically and clearly the substantive facts upon which he relies. If, in an action removed by the defendant from a district court, the court is satisfied, upon an inspection of the declaration, that the plaintiff seeks to recover solely for his personal labor, with or without interest, the court shall upon motion advance such action for speedy trial. In any action in which a defendant has appeared and answered, such defendant, or if a corporation its treasurer, may at any time before the case is on the short list, so called, file an affidavit stating that in his belief there is no merit in the action; and thereupon the clerk shall issue an order requiring the plaintiff to show cause why he should not become nonsuit. The defendant shall immediately give written notice of such order, in such manner as is prescribed by rule of court, to the plaintiff or his attorney of record, and unless within seven days after such notice, or within such further time as the court allows, the plaintiff consents to a nonsuit, or unless by affidavit setting forth specifically and clearly the substantive facts upon which he relies he discloses such 34 facts as the court finds entitle him to maintain his action, the court shall 35 advance said action for speedy trial. In any trial any affidavit filed by 36 any party, as herein provided, may be given in evidence against him.

Expediting the Collection of Debts.

1 *SECTION 59B. In any action of contract where the plaintiff seeks 2 to recover a debt or liquidated demand, he may, at any time after the 3 defendant has appeared or, in a removed case, after its entry, on affidavit
 4 by himself or by any other person who can swear to the facts of his own
 5 knowledge, verifying the cause of action and stating that in his belief
 6 there is no defence thereto, move for the immediate entry of judgment 7 for the amount of the debt or demand, together with interest if any is 8 claimed. The motion may be set down for hearing upon four days'
 9 notice and after hearing the court may, unless the defendant by affidavit,
 10 by his own evidence or otherwise shall disclose such facts as the court
 11 finds entitle him to defend, enter an order for judgment for the amount 12 of the debt or demand, with interest if any is due, and costs. Judgment 13 as aforesaid shall be entered at the expiration of seven days from the 14 order unless the defendant in the meanwhile files a demand for trial; 15 and if such demand is filed as aforesaid the case shall be advanced for 16 speedy trial. If the defendant does not appear at said hearing or file 17 at or before the time set for hearing an affidavit setting forth specifically 18 and clearly the substantive facts upon which he relies as a defence, the 19 court may enter judgment by default.

Providing for Prompt Informal Trials in the Superior Court.

1 ¶ SECTION 60A. In any action at law or suit in equity after issue
 2 joined in the superior court, any party to the proceeding may, by a writ-
 3 ing filed in the clerk's office, offer to waive any or all of the following:—
 4 (1) A trial by jury if it has been claimed.
 5 (2) The right to file interrogatories except as allowed by the court.
 6 (3) The rules of evidence to the end that any evidence may be received 7 which the court considers probative.
 8 (4) The right to appeal from, or take exceptions to, any ruling, order, 9 judgment or decree except on a question of substantive law.

A written notice of such offer with a copy thereof shall be served by 10 registered mail, with return receipt requested, upon the other party or his 11 attorney not less than ten days before the trial of the action or suit. If 12 such offer is not rejected by a writing filed in the clerk's office within ten 13 days after such notice or within such further time as the court may on 14 motion allow, such offer shall be deemed to have been accepted and the 15 matters in controversy shall be tried and determined in accordance there- 16

1 † SECTION 96. A party aggrieved by any order of the superior court
 2 sustaining or overruling a demurrer which alleges that the facts stated in 3 the pleadings demurred to do not in law support or answer the action, or 4 a party aggrieved by an order for judgment upon a case stated, or by any 5 order decisive of the case founded upon matter of law apparent on the 6 record in any proceeding, may appeal therefrom to the supreme judicial 7 court; but no appeal or exception shall be entered in the supreme judicial 8 court until the case is in all other respects ripe for final disposition by the 9 superior court. An issue of law joined in the superior court shall not be 10 waived by consent of parties after such appeal has been entered in the 11 supreme judicial court, but that court may, for good cause, allow the 12 parties to withdraw or amend their pleadings, and, if they result in an 13 issue of fact, the case shall be remanded to the superior court for trial.
 14 An appeal from an order of the superior court shall be claimed within 15 twenty days after it is made, and, except as otherwise herein provided, 16 no judgment shall be entered while an appeal is pending. If exceptions 17 are taken upon the trial of an action, any appeal taken in the case shall be 18 entered at the same time with such exceptions in the supreme judicial 19 court, and a party failing so to enter his appeal shall be deemed to have 20 waived it. If an appeal is groundless and intended merely for delay, the 21 court, on motion and after such notice as its rules require, and upon such 22 terms, if any, as it deems reasonable, may order judgment to be entered 23 notwithstanding the appeal, and at the same time may award or stay 24 execution. If execution is not awarded, any attached property or other 25 security taken shall stand as if no judgment had been entered, until final 26 disposition is made of the case.

 action or other civil proceeding which he might have begun in the supe- 2 rior court, he shall be deemed to have waived a trial by jury and his 3 right of appeal to the superior court, unless the said action or other civil 4 proceeding is removed to the superior court as hereinafter provided, in 5 which case the plaintiff shall have the same right to claim a jury trial as 6 if the action or proceeding had been originally brought in the superior 7 court; provided, that if a declaration in set-off is filed in such action, 8 the plaintiff may of right remove the cause and claim a jury trial in the 9 manner and upon the terms set out in the following section, within the 10 time allowed him for filing an answer to such declaration in set-off. 11
 This and the seven following sections shall not apply to actions under 12 chapter two hundred and thirty-nine. 13

1 *SECTION 104. No other party to such action shall be entitled to an
 2 appeal. In lieu thereof, in case such action is an action of contract, tort 3 or replevin in which the debt or damages demanded or the value of the 4 property detained exceeds the jurisdictional limit of said district court
 5 effective immediately prior to September first, nineteen hundred and 6 twenty-nine, any such other party may, within two days after the time 7 allowed for entering his appearance, file in said court a claim of trial by 8 the superior court, with or without jury, and an affidavit by his counsel 9 of record, if any, and if none, the affidavit of such party, that in his 10 opinion there is an issue of fact or law requiring trial in the cause, and 11 that such trial is in good faith intended, together with the sum of three 12 dollars for the entry of the cause in the superior court, and a bond in the 13 penal sum of one hundred dollars, with such surety or sureties as may be 14 approved by the plaintiff or the clerk or an assistant clerk of said district 15 court, payable to the other party or parties to the cause, conditioned to 16 satisfy any judgment for costs which may be entered against him in the 17 superior court in said cause within thirty days after the entry thereof;
 18 and, in lieu of such an appeal in case such action is not an action of con-19 tract, tort or replevin as aforesaid, any such other party may, within 20 two days after the time allowed for entering his appearance, file in said 21 court a claim of trial by jury, and an affidavit by his counsel of record, 22 if any, and if none, the affidavit of such party, that in his opinion there 23 is an issue of fact requiring trial in the cause, and that such trial is in 24 good faith intended, together with the sum of three dollars for the entry 25 of the cause in the superior court, and a bond as hereinbefore provided.
 26 The clerk shall forthwith transmit the papers and entry fee in the cause to 27 the clerk of the superior court, and the same shall proceed as though then 28 originally entered there, but, if a trial by jury is claimed, may be marked 29 for trial upon the lists of causes advanced for speedy trial by jury.

 2 persons in which separate judgments are authorized by section two or 3 four and in which the debt demanded does not exceed the jurisdictional 4 limit of said district court in effect immediately prior to September first,
 5 nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, the party seeking removal may specify 6 in his claim of jury trial the parties as to whom such trial is claimed, in 7 which case the cause shall be removed as to such parties only as are 8 specified in such claim, and said district court shall retain jurisdiction
 9 as to the remainder. In such case the clerk shall transmit attested copies

* SECTION 108. There shall be an appellate division of each district court for the rehearing of matters of law arising in civil causes therein. Said division of the municipal court of the city of Boston shall consist of three justices thereof, to be designated from time to time by the chief justice thereof. The appellate division of each other district court shall be holden by justices of such other district courts, not exceeding three in number out of five justices assigned to the performance of such duty by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court, as follows:— Such last mentioned chief justice shall assign five justices of district courts within the counties of Essex and Middlesex and that part of Suffolk included in the jurisdiction of the East Boston district court, the district court of Chelsea, the municipal court of the Charlestown district, the municipal court of the Brighton district, the municipal court of the Dorchester district, the municipal court of the Roxbury district, and the municipal court of the South Boston district, to act in the appellate divisions of such district courts within those counties and that part of Suffolk county, which shall be known as the northern appellate division district; shall assign five justices of district courts within the counties of Norfolk, Plymouth, Barnstable, Bristol, Dukes and Nantucket and that part of Suffolk included in the jurisdiction of the municipal court of the West Roxbury district, to act in the appellate divisions of such district courts within those counties and that part of Suffolk county, which shall be known as the southern appellate division district; and shall assign five justices of district courts within the counties of Worcester, Franklin, Hampshire, Hampden and Berkshire to act in the appellate divisions of district courts within those counties, which shall be known as the western appellate division district. Such assignment may be made for such period of time as such chief justice may deem advisable. In each of the foregoing three districts one of the justices so assigned shall be designated by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court as presiding justice who shall from time to time designate those of the appellate justices who shall act on appeals in each district court in that district and direct the times and places of sittings. Two justices shall constitute a quorum to decide all matters in an appellate division.

A justice acting in the appellate division of a district court other than the court of which he is a justice shall be allowed in addition to his compensation as such justice the sum of fifteen dollars for each day he so acts, and his necessary traveling expenses, incidental expenses and necessary clerical assistance while so acting, to be paid by the county in which he so acts, upon his certificate approved by the county commissioners; provided, that the total sum expended for such incidental expenses and clerical assistance shall not exceed in any year the sum of fifteen hundred dollars in the northern appellate division district or the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in either of the other two appellate division districts; and no deduction shall be made from the compensation of such justice under section six of chapter two hundred and eighteen on account of compensation paid to a special justice of his

48 court for service at any session which such justice is unable to hold by 49 reason of so acting.

50 Any party to a cause brought in the municipal court of the city of 51 Boston after August thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twelve, or in 52 any other district court after September thirtieth, nineteen hundred and 53 twenty-two, aggrieved by any ruling on a matter of law by a single 54 justice, may, as of right, have the ruling reported for determination by the 55 appellate division when the cause is otherwise ripe for judgment, or 56 sooner by consent of the justice hearing the same. The request for such 57 a report shall be filed with the clerk, in the municipal court of the city
58 of Boston, within two days after notice of the ruling, and, in any other 59 district court, within five days after such notice, and when the objection 60 is to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the claim for a report shall 61 also be made known at the time of the ruling. The justice whose ruling 62 is complained of shall not sit upon the review thereof. If the appellate 63 division shall decide that there has been prejudicial error in the ruling 64 complained of, it may reverse, vacate or modify the same or order a new 65 trial in whole or part; otherwise it shall dismiss the report, and may 66 impose double costs in the action if it finds the objection to such ruling
67 to be frivolous or intended for delay. If the party claiming such report 68 shall not duly prosecute the same, by preparing the necessary papers or 69 otherwise, the appellate division may order the cause to proceed as though 70 no such claim had been made, and may in like manner impose costs. A 71 single justice may, after decision thereon, report for determination by 72 the appellate division any case in which there is an agreed statement of 73 facts or a finding of the facts or any other case involving questions of 74 law only. If a single justice is of opinion that an interlocutory finding or 75 order made by him ought to be reviewed by the appellate division before 76 any further proceedings in the trial court, he may report the case for 77 that purpose and stay all further proceedings except such as are neces-78 sary to preserve the rights of the parties. The municipal court of the 79 city of Boston shall make rules regulating the procedure and sittings of 80 the appellate division of said court, for the preparation and submission 81 of reports and the allowance of reports which a single justice shall dis-82 allow as not conformable to the facts, or shall fail to allow by reason of 83 physical or mental disability, death or resignation, for the reporting of 84 cases reserved for report when a single justice shall fail to report the 85 same by reason of physical or mental disability, death or resignation, 86 and for the granting of new trials.

1 *SECTION 109. An appeal to the supreme judicial court shall lie from 2 the final decision of the appellate division of any district court. Appeals 3 taken hereunder from the appellate division of the municipal court of the 4 city of Boston shall be heard by the supreme judicial court for the com-
5 monwealth, and such appeals from the appellate division of any other
6 district court shall be heard at the same sittings as other questions of law
7 arising in the county in which the judicial district of such district court
8 lies. Claims of appeal shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district 9 court within five days after notice of the decision of the appellate division.
10 The appeal shall not remove the cause, but only the question or questions 11 to be determined. The completion of such appeal shall be in accordance 12 with section one hundred and thirty-five. The expense of the preparation 13 of the necessary papers and copies of papers and their transmission, and 14 the entry fee in the supreme judicial court, shall be taxed in the bill of † § || SECTION 119. If in any civil action tried before a jury in the supreme judicial or the superior court a bill of exceptions duly filed is not allowed by the presiding justice within three months after the date of the verdict therein, because the same is not found by him to be conformable to the truth, or is not found to state the facts and evidence in the case correctly and fully, the presiding justice may in his discretion reserve the case and send to the supreme judicial court for the commonwealth the whole record of the case, including the pleadings and the evidence taken by the official stenographer and written out from his notes, and certified by him to have been so taken and written out; or so much of said record as is material to the issue. Said record shall be accompanied by the certificate of the presiding justice that the same is a true copy of the record and proceedings in said case, or of the part thereof transmitted, and shall be entered in the supreme judicial court for the commonwealth; and thereupon said record so made and certified shall stand in lieu of a bill of exceptions in all respects, and the questions raised by the exceptions in said cause shall be heard and determined by the full court on such record. In case of the disability

19 or death of the presiding justice, any justice of the same court may 20 exercise the powers herein conferred. The expense of transcribing the 21 stenographer's notes and of copying exhibits shall be borne by the

 2 judge are alleged, or any question of law reserved, in the course of a trial
 3 by jury, and the circumstances are such that, if the ruling or direction
 4 at the trial was wrong, the verdict or finding ought to have been entered 5 for a different party or for larger or smaller damages or otherwise than as 6 was done at the trial, the justice may reserve leave, with the assent of 7 the jury, so to enter the verdict or finding, if upon the questions of law
 8 so raised the court shall decide that it ought to have been so entered. The 9 leave reserved, as well as the findings of the jury upon any particular 10 questions of fact submitted to them, shall be entered in the record of the 11 proceedings, and if upon the questions of law it shall be decided, either 12 by the same court or by the appellate court, that the verdict or finding 13 ought to have been entered in accordance with the leave reserved, it shall 14 be entered accordingly, unless the supreme judicial court, in accordance 15 with section one hundred and twenty-two, one hundred and twenty-

* † § || SECTION 124. Whenever a question in dispute at the trial of an issue of fact in any civil action or proceeding depends upon the decision of a question of law, the full bench of the supreme judicial court, upon appeal, exceptions or report or otherwise, may, if satisfied that it has before it all the facts necessary for determining the question in dispute, direct that such judgment or decree be entered or that such other action be taken as shall accord with the determination of the full court; or, if the full court shall be of the opinion that it has not before it sufficient facts to determine said question, it may direct such issues or questions as it shall think proper to be tried before a jury if the case be a jury case, or otherwise before a judge, and may direct in the alternative the action to be taken upon the verdict or finding. When any such question of law shall arise in a trial, the judge shall, by leaving appropriate questions to the jury, or by his own findings where the trial is without a jury, ascertain so far as is practicable all the facts both as to liability and damages necessary on any theory of the law to enable the court to make the proper final disposition of the case, unless in the opinion of the court such a course is inexpedient under the circumstances of the case. When special questions are submitted to a jury, the judge may or may not take a general verdict, and may report the case on the answers of the jury, or make such other order thereon as he deems proper. A judge reporting to the full court for its determination a question as to the correctness of any rulings of law made by him at a trial, or on a motion for a new trial, may make in any proper case a provision in the report that, if his rulings were correct, a judgment or decree shall be entered for the party in whose favor the rulings were made, and that, if his rulings were wrong, the judgment or decree shall be entered in accordance with such rulings as he ought to have made.

† § || SECTION 133. If, at law, in equity or in probate proceedings, an appellant or an excepting party, or, in a case reported after a verdict, finding or decision, the party at whose request it is reported, or, in a case reported without decision under section one hundred and eleven, the plaintiff neglects to enter the appeal, exceptions or report in the supreme judicial court or to take the necessary measures by ordering proper copies to be prepared or otherwise for the hearing of the case, or if an appellant or an excepting party neglects to provide a transcript of the evidence or of the instructions to the jury within the time ordered by the justice under section one hundred and twenty-one, the court in which the appeal was taken or by which the exceptions were allowed or the case reported may, upon the application of the adverse party and after notice to all parties interested, order the appeal dismissed, the exceptions overruled or the report discharged, and thereupon, in the case of appeal or exceptions, the decision, ruling, order or decree appealed from, or excepted to, shall be in full force and effect. Whenever after the entry in the supreme judicial, superior or probate court of a decree after rescript from the full bench of the supreme judicial court in a suit in equity or in probate proceedings, an appeal is claimed from the decree, the justice by whom or by whose order the decree was entered may inquire into any reasons assigned for the appeal, and if he deems that the decree conforms to the terms of the rescript and the appeal is claimed merely for the purpose of delay, he may order the appeal dismissed, and such proceedings may forthwith be had and such processes may forthwith issue as are necessary to carry out the provisions of the decree. And if a further appeal is claimed from an order so dismissing an appeal it shall not operate to suspend or supersede the carrying into effect of the terms of the decree, and the full bench of the supreme judicial court may order such dismissal of appeal affirmed and the imposition of reasonable terms and double costs to the appellee.

Waiver of Appeal or Exceptions.

Waiver of appeal or exceptions. 1900, 372, § 2. R. L. 173, § 116.

* † § || SECTION 134. A written waiver of an appeal or of exceptions in any civil proceeding may be filed and acted upon in the court in which they were taken at any time before the entry thereof in the appellate

4 court; but in any case where an attachment of property has been made,
 5 no appeal shall be waived except by leave of court after notice to the 6 adverse party.

Transmission of Papers.

1 * † § || SECTION 135. In all cases to be brought before the full court
 2 of the supreme judicial court, including cases from the supreme judicial 3 court when held by a single justice, the superior court, the land court, 4 the probate court, the appellate division of any district court, the clerk, 5 recorder, register or other appropriate official of the court below, at the 6 expense of the appellant or excepting party, or, upon a case reserved or 7 reported, at the expense of the plaintiff or of the party at whose request 8 it is reserved or reported, shall prepare and transmit to the supreme 9 judicial court for the commonwealth, or for the proper county, one copy
 10 of every paper on file in the case necessary to a full presentation of all 11 questions of law intended to be raised before the full court, except papers
 12 used in evidence only, and of all papers made part of the case by reference 13 in the record, for the use of the chief justice, and a like copy for the clerk 14 of the supreme judicial court which shall be kept on file in said court;
 15 five typewritten copies of any opinion or statement of reasons for decision 16 filed by the court below, for the use of the full court; one copy of the 17 record of the court below which transmits the questions of law, for the use 18 of each associate justice, each party and the reporter of decisions. In 19 appeals from the appellate division of the municipal court of the city of 20 Boston under section one hundred and nine, the court may order the 21 expense of the necessary papers to be borne by some party other than 22 the appealing party, or may in its discretion provide the required type-23 written copies of the opinion or statement aforesaid without charge.
 24 Original papers used in the trial in the court below which are needed before 25 the full court of the supreme judicial court shall be transmitted to its 26 clerk to be kept on file by him until the rescript in such case is sent. The 27 expense of such copies and transmission shall be taxed in the bill of costs 28 of the prevailing party, if he has paid it.

29 In order to carry any question of law from the supreme judicial court 30 when held by a single justice or from any other court to the full court of 31 the supreme judicial court upon appeal, exception, reservation, report or 32 otherwise as authorized by law, the party having the obligation to cause 33 the necessary papers hereinbefore specified to be prepared shall give to the 34 clerk, recorder, register or other appropriate official of the court in which 35 the case is pending, within ten days after the case becomes ripe for final 36 preparation and printing of the record for the full court, an order in 37 writing for the preparation of such papers and copies of papers for trans-38 mission to the full court of the supreme judicial court. As soon as may be 39 after receiving such written order, the clerk or other official shall make 40 an estimate of the expense of the preparation and transmission of the 41 necessary papers and copies of papers aforesaid and shall give such party 42 notice in writing of the amount of such estimate. Such party, within 43 twenty days after the date of such notice from the clerk or other official, 44 shall pay to him the amount of such estimate and such further amount 45 beyond such estimate as the clerk or other official may find to be then 46 due for such preparation. The clerk or other official then without delay 47 shall prepare the papers and copies of papers aforesaid for transmission 48 and when they are ready shall give notice in writing of such fact to the 49 party ordering them, who, within five days after the date of such notice, shall pay to the clerk or other official any balance then due therefor and shall enter the case in the supreme judicial court for the commonwealth, or for the proper county. The court in which the case is pending, or any justice or judge thereof, may, for cause shown after hearing, extend the time for doing any of the acts required by this paragraph. The entry of the case shall not, except as otherwise provided by law, transfer the case, but only the question to be determined.

Arrest of Judgment.

(1) Rent of house No. _____ street,
 _____, for one month, due 1st July, 19____, under an indenture of lease dated 1st January, 19____, $ _____
 (2) Interest on same from _____, $ _____.

Instruction: Interest is declared on by adding or inserting the words "and interest". An item of interest is also included in the bill of particulars.

2. ACCOUNT ANNEXED.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant owes him _____ dollars, according to the account hereto annexed.

3. PROMISSORY NOTES.

10 Allen, 556.

(a) Payee against Maker. — And the plaintiff says that the defendant made a promissory note payable to the plaintiff or order, a copy whereof is hereto annexed, and the defendant owes the plaintiff the amount thereof, and interest.

(b) Bearer of Note payable to Bearer against Maker. — And the plaintiff says that the defendant made a promissory note, a copy whereof is hereto annexed payable to G H or bearer, and the plaintiff is the bearer of the said note, and the defendant owes him the amount thereof, and interest.

Instruction: If payments are endorsed on the note, the declaration may be varied as follows: "a copy whereof, with the endorsements thereon, is hereto annexed, and the defendant owes the plaintiff the balance thereof, and interest". If payments have been made which are not endorsed on the note, the allegation should be varied accordingly.

(c) Endorsee against Endorser. — And the plaintiff says that C D made a promissory note, a copy whereof with the endorsements thereon is hereto annexed, payable to the defendant or order, and the defendant endorsed the same to the plaintiff, and payment of the said note was duly demanded of the said C D, who neglected to pay the same, and due notice thereof was given to the defendant. And the defendant owes the plaintiff the amount of the said note, and interest.

(d) Endorsee against Maker and Successive Endorsers. — And the plaintiff says that the defendant C D made a promissory note, a copy whereof with the endorsements thereon is hereto annexed, payable to the defendant E F or order, and the said E F endorsed the same to the defendant G H or order, and the said G H endorsed the same to the plaintiff, and payment of the said note was duly demanded of the defendant C D who neglected to pay the same, and due notice thereof was given to the defendants E F and G H. And each of the defendants severally owes the plaintiff the amount of the said note, and interest.

(e) Payee against Anomalous Endorser. — And the plaintiff says that A B made a promissory note payable to the plaintiff or order, a copy whereof, with the endorsements thereon, is hereto annexed, and the defendant endorsed the said note before it was delivered to the plaintiff, and payment of the said note was duly demanded of the said A B, who neglected to pay the same, and due notice thereof was given to the defendant. And the defendant owes the plaintiff the amount of the said note, and interest.

(f) Endorsee against Anomalous Endorser. — And the plaintiff says that A B made a promissory note payable to C D, a copy whereof, with the endorsements thereon, is hereto annexed, and the defendant endorsed the same before it was delivered to C D, and C D endorsed it to the plaintiff, and payment of the said note was duly demanded of the said A B, who neglected to pay the same, and due notice thereof was given to the defendant. And the defendant owes the plaintiff the amount of the said note, and interest.

4. GRANTEE AGAINST GRANTOR IN A DEED OF WARRANTY FOR BREACHES OF COVENANT.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant made a deed of conveyance to him, a copy whereof is hereto annexed. And the defendant was not seized in fee simple of a part of the land described as follows: (insert description) but the same was held adversely by L M, and the residue of the said land was not free from encumbrances, but was subject to a mortgage to S T to secure the payment of six hundred dollars. And the defendant did not warrant and defend the premises against the rightful claims of all persons, but W S had a right of dower therein, and compelled the plaintiff to assign the same to her.

5. ON AN AWARD.

And the plaintiff says that the parties hereto by their agreement in writing, a copy whereof is hereto annexed, referred the matters therein mentioned to arbitrators, and the said arbitrators made an award thereon in writing, a copy whereof is hereto annexed. (Aver performance of condition by plaintiff, when necessary to be proved, and the non-performance by the defendant, which is relied on. If it is for the mere payment of money, aver as follows: And the defendant owes the plaintiff the amount of the said award.)

6. PROMISE TO PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER.

And the plaintiff says that E F owed him the sum of _____ for _____, and the plaintiff was about to sue the said E F to recover the same. And in consideration that the plaintiff would forbear to sue the said E F, the defendant made an agreement to pay the same to the plaintiff, a copy whereof is hereto annexed, and the plaintiff did forbear to sue the said E F, and the defendant owes him the said sum.

7. AGREEMENT TO CONVEY LAND, THE PLAINTIFF TO PAY IN PART AND GIVE A NOTE FOR THE BALANCE SECURED BY A MORTGAGE OF THE LAND.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant made an agreement with him in writing, a copy whereof is hereto annexed. And the plaintiff was ready and willing (or offered) to perform the said agreement on his part. But the defendant did not complete the said sale [or refused (or neglected) to convey the said land to the plaintiff].

Note. — The form in P. S., p. 977, did not state a breach. It is not right to allege tender of money and mortgage; and all that is required is to be ready and willing. Tinney v. Ashley, 15 Pick. 546; Cook v. Doggett, 2 Allen, 439; Cole v. Killam, 187 Mass. 213; 2 Chitty Pl. (13th Am. ed.) 287. It would be improper for the plaintiff to execute a mortgage before he got a conveyance.

8. BREACH OF PROMISE OF MARRIAGE.

And the plaintiff says that she and the defendant promised to marry each other and she was always ready and willing to marry the defendant, but the defendant refused to perform his promise.

9. NON-DELIVERY OF GOODS SOLD.

And the plaintiff says that he purchased of the defendant the following goods, namely, _____ for the sum of one hundred dollars, to be paid for on delivery and to be delivered by the defendant on the _____ day of _____ at the defendant's store. And the plaintiff was ready and willing (or offered) to perform the said agreement on his part. But the defendant refused to deliver the said goods to the plaintiff.

Note. — See note to form 7 as to purchase of land, and 2 Chitty Pl. (13th Am. ed.) 269.

10. POLICIES OF INSURANCE.

(With or without copy of policy.)

(a) On a Ship for a Total Loss. — And the plaintiff says that the defendants made a policy of insurance, (a copy of which is hereto annexed,) insuring the plaintiff for the sum of ten thousand dollars on the ship John, in which the plaintiff was interested, against the perils of the seas and other perils therein mentioned, on a voyage therein described (or from Boston to Cadiz in Spain, and at Cadiz, and thence to her port of discharge in the United States). And the said ship, while proceeding on the said voyage, was wrecked and totally lost by the perils of the seas, of which the defendants had notice, and the defendants were bound to pay the said amount to the plaintiff within sixty days thereafter. And the defendants owe the plaintiff the said sum of ten thousand dollars. 119 Mass. 592.

(b) For a Partial Loss and Contribution to a General Average. — (State as in the last count to the description of the voyage inclusive.) And the defendants thereby agreed that, in case of any loss or misfortune to the said ship, it should be lawful for the plaintiff and his agents to labor for and in the defence and recovery of the said ship, and that the defendants would contribute to the charges thereof in proportion as the sum assured by them should be to the whole sum at risk. (Omit the preceding sentence if a copy of the policy is annexed.) And the said ship, while proceeding on the said voyage, was by the perils of the seas dismantled, and otherwise damaged in her hull, rigging, and appurtenances, and it was necessary, for the preservation of the said ship and her cargo, to throw over a part of her cargo, and the same was thrown over for that purpose, and the plaintiff was obliged to expend two thousand dollars for repairing the said ship at Cadiz, and five hundred dollars as a contribution for the loss occasioned by the said throwing over of a part of the cargo, and the ship suffered damage that was not repaired at Cadiz, of all which the defendants had notice, and the defendants were bound to pay the same within sixty days thereafter. And the defendants owe the plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars.

(c) For a Total Loss of Cargo by Fire. — And the plaintiff says that the defendants made a policy of insurance, (a copy of which is hereto annexed) insuring the plaintiff for the sum of ten thousand dollars on the cargo of the brigantine William, in which cargo the plaintiff was interested, against fire and other perils therein mentioned, at and from Boston, and on a voyage from thence to Hamburg, or any other port or ports in the north of Europe, and while the said vessel was proceeding on the said voyage the said cargo was totally destroyed by fire, of which the defendants had notice, and the defendants were bound to pay the plaintiff the amount of such loss. And the defendants owe the plaintiff the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Note. — These forms were adapted in 1851, 233, from those in 24 Pick. 406, but they did not mention the plaintiff's interest, as the latter did. They were not intended to have a copy of the policy annexed, and that change was made in 1852, in view of which the alternative methods of declaring noted in the forms may be used. It is, however, better pleading to set out the essential facts in the declaration, and avoid encumbering the pleadings with copies.

266 Mass. 543.

(d) Fire Insurance. — And the plaintiff says that by a policy dated the _____ day of _____ 19____, made by the defendant in the form of a Massachusetts Standard Policy, (or a copy of which is hereto annexed,) in consideration of $ _____ paid to the defendant by the plaintiff (or A F) the defendant insured the plaintiff (or A F) against loss or damage by fire to the amount of $ _____ on a dwelling house in the said policy described (and $ _____ on the furniture and goods in the said dwelling house) for a year from the _____ day of _____ 19____ at noon to the _____ day of _____ 19____ at noon (and payable in case of loss to M F and the plaintiff as their interest might appear). And the plaintiff at the time of the making of the said policy and thenceforth until and at the time of the loss and damage hereinafter mentioned was interested in the several premises so insured to the amount so insured thereon respectively (or in the dwelling house so insured as mortgagee thereof to the amount so insured thereon in priority to any interest of the said M F therein). And while the said policy was in force and during the said year the several premises (or the said dwelling house) so insured were (or was) burnt and destroyed by fire, whereby the plaintiff suffered loss and damage on the said premises (or dwelling house) (and on the said furniture and goods) to the several amounts so insured thereon respectively (or otherwise according to the facts). And thereafter forthwith and more than sixty days before the commencement of this action a statement was duly rendered to the defendant in accordance with the provision in that behalf contained in the said policy, setting forth all the particulars required by the said provision to be set forth therein (or in case of waiver of the statement the necessity of the statement of particulars required by the provision in that behalf contained in the said policy was waived by the defendant), and the amount for which the defendant was liable to the plaintiff on account of the said loss and damage was agreed by them to be $ _____ [or the plaintiff and the defendant having failed to agree as to the amount of the said loss and damage, the same was duly referred to three persons as provided in the said policy, and by the award in writing thereupon made by the (or a majority of the) said referees in respect thereof the amount of the loss and damage was determined to be $ _____] (or the provision in the said policy for a reference as to the amount of the said loss or damage was waived by the defendant). And the defendant has not paid to the plaintiff the amount for which the defendant was so liable or replaced the said property, and owes the plaintiff the sum of $ _____.

Note. — This form, by alleging that the policy was in the Massachusetts standard form, makes it unnecessary to set out the provisions prescribed by law (Chap. 175, § 99), or to load the files of the court with copies containing provisions immaterial to the case. As to the allegations when the loss is payable to a mortgagee, see Frisbee v. Prussian Ins. Co., 223 Mass. 159; Palmer Savings Bk. v. Ins. Co. of North America, 166 Mass. 189. Performance of conditions precedent must be alleged as at common law. R. L. 173, § 6 (11th); Palmer v. Sawyer, 114 Mass. 1; 2 Chitty Pl. (13th Am. ed.) 224 n., or a reason for non-performance must be stated. Lamson Co. v. Prudential Ins. Co., 171 Mass. 433; Lamson & Goodnow Co. v. Russell, 112 Mass. 387.

(e) Life Insurance. — (I) Action by Executor (without Copy of Policy). 138 Mass. 151.

And the plaintiff says that by a policy dated the _____ day of _____ 19____ made by the defendant, in consideration of the payment of premiums by the said A B as therein provided, the defendant insured the life of the said A B in the sum of $ _____ for the term of his life payable at the office of the defendant at _____ to his executors, administrators, or assigns, immediately upon receipt of due proof of his death, and it was thereby provided that the annual premium of $ _____ should be payable by the insured on delivery of the said policy and on the _____ day of _____ in each year at the office of the defendant at _____, or to its agents in exchange for receipts signed by its president or treasurer, until ten full years' premiums should have been paid or until the death of the insured if that event should sooner occur, and that the said policy should not take effect unless the first premium should be paid during the lifetime of the insured. And the insured duly paid the said annual premium to the defendant on delivery of the said policy and in each of the _____ subsequent years, and afterwards and while the said policy remained in force the said A B died, and due proof of his death was produced by the plaintiff to the defendant, and the said sum of $ _____ thereupon became payable by the defendant to the plaintiff, but no part thereof has been paid. And the defendant owes the plaintiff the sum of $ _____.

Instruction: If this form is used, any warranties or conditions precedent contained in the policy or application must be set out, and the truth of the warranties and performance of the conditions averred. Copies of the policy or application, or both, may be annexed to the declaration, in which case such of the allegations of this form as are clearly set forth in such copies may be omitted; but it is always desirable to avoid encumbering the record with bulky copies.

(II) Endowment Policy. Action by Insured or Beneficiary (without Copy of Policy). And the plaintiff says that by a policy dated the _____ day of _____ 19____ made by the defendant, in consideration of the statements and agreements contained in the application therefor, which was made part of the said policy, and the annual premium of $ _____ then paid by the plaintiff (or by A B) to the defendant and the like annual premium so to be paid on the _____ day of _____ in every year thereafter during the continuance of the said policy, the defendant promised to pay the sum of $ _____ to the plaintiff (or the said A B the insured thereunder), if he should be living at the end of ten years from the date thereof, or, in case of his previous death, upon receipt at the office of the defendant at _____ of satisfactory proofs of his death, then to (the plaintiff) C D, his wife, the beneficiary thereunder, if she should then be living, or otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured. (And it was thereby declared that the said policy should be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premium, and that, after payment of the first annual premium thereon, payment of any subsequent premium might be made within thirty-one days after the same should have become due, the policy meanwhile continuing in force, but in the event of the death of the insured during the said thirty-one days, the premium, if unpaid, should be deducted from the sum payable on account of the policy, and that, if the age of the insured had been misstated, the amount payable under the policy should be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age, and that the policy and the application therefor should constitute the entire contract between the parties, and all statements made by the insured should in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement should avoid the policy or be a defence to a claim thereunder unless contained in the said application.) And the plaintiff (or the said A B) duly paid the said annual premiums to the defendant in every year during the continuance of the said policy, and the said period of ten years elapsed, and the sum of $ _____ mentioned in the said policy thereupon became due and payable by the defendant to the plaintiff by virtue thereof (or while the said policy was in force and before the end of the said ten years the said A B died, and satisfactory proof of his death was produced to the defendant at its said office, and the sum of $ _____ mentioned in the said policy thereupon became due and payable by the defendant to the plaintiff by virtue thereof) and no part of the same has been paid to the plaintiff. And the defendant owes the plaintiff the sum of $ _____.

Instruction: This form is subject to the instruction at the end of the preceding form.

DECLARATIONS IN ACTIONS OF TORT.

4 Gray, 333.
6 Allen, 410.
200 Mass. 232.
223 Mass. 568.

Instruction as to all such declarations: The ad damnum is a sufficient allegation of damage in all cases in which special damages are not claimed. The latter, if claimed, should be alleged.

11. CONVERSION.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant converted to his own use one horse (or the goods mentioned in the particulars hereto annexed) the property of the plaintiff.

Note. — Both the form and the fiction of trover were abolished by 1851, 233, § 1, and conversion, which was the substance, is the only thing left.

12. DECEIT.

154 Mass. 445.
161 Mass. 516.
162 Mass. 260.
169 Mass. 576.

(a) And the plaintiff says that the defendant, by fraudulently representing to the plaintiff that ten bags of coffee were the property of the defendant, induced the plaintiff to buy the same of him, for which the plaintiff paid to the defendant the sum of one hundred dollars, whereas the said coffee was not the property of the defendant, as the defendant then knew, but was the property of A S, who has since taken the same from the plaintiff.

(b) And the plaintiff says that the defendant induced the plaintiff to buy a certain horse from him and to pay him three hundred dollars therefor by fraudulently representing to the plaintiff that the said horse was sound, so far as the defendant knew, whereas the said horse was not sound, but had a certain disease called _____, as the defendant then knew.

(c) And the plaintiff says that the defendant, by fraudulently representing to the plaintiff (in writing) that S C was a man possessed of a large property and able to pay his debts, (a copy of which writing is hereto annexed,) induced the plaintiff to sell and deliver to the said S C on credit the goods mentioned in the particulars hereto annexed, whereas the said S C was not a man of property, nor able to pay his debts, but was insolvent, as the defendant then knew, whereby the plaintiff lost the price of the said goods, and was unable to obtain payment therefor.

13. NEGLIGENCE IN DRIVING A MOTOR VEHICLE.

266 Mass. 424.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant so negligently and unskilfully drove a motor vehicle in a public highway, called _____ street, in Boston, that by reason thereof the said motor vehicle struck the plaintiff who was then properly crossing the said highway (or a carriage of the plaintiff in which he was then properly passing along the said highway) whereby the plaintiff was thrown down and had his leg broken and was otherwise much injured (or the said carriage was broken and damaged and the plaintiff was hurt, etc.) and was prevented from transacting his business, and suffered great pain both of body and mind, and incurred expense for medicine, medical attendance and nursing, (and in repairing the said carriage, and was deprived of the use thereof for a long time and was thereby delayed and injured in his business).

14. NEGLIGENCE OF RAILROAD CORPORATION TOWARD PASSENGER.

And the plaintiff says that he was a passenger traveling in a car managed by the defendant upon the defendant's railroad between A and B, and, by reason of the negligence of the defendant in using an insufficient axle in the said car, the said axle broke and the plaintiff was thereby hurt. (Add allegation of special damages, as in form 13.)

Note. — This form may be varied to adapt it to many cases by changing the allegation as to the cause of the accident. It is not intended to restrict a party to the statement of one cause if there were several concurrent causes, and if the plaintiff is in doubt which of several different causes occasioned the accident he may so declare.

15. WANT OF REPAIR OF HIGHWAY.

10 Allen, 18.
197 Mass. 374.

And the plaintiff says that there was in the town of _____ a public highway leading from _____ to _____ which the defendants were bound to keep in repair, and by reason of the want of repair thereof (or a defect therein consisting of, etc.), which the defendants negligently suffered, the plaintiff traveling thereon (fell and) was hurt [or a vehicle in which the plaintiff was traveling thereon was overturned (or if the accident was not the overturning of the vehicle, state what took place) and the plaintiff was hurt (insert allegation of special damages) (and the said vehicle belonging to the plaintiff was damaged)], (insert allegation of special damages relating to carriage, if any). And due notice of the time, place and cause of the said damage was given to the defendants.

Note. — The words "which the defendants negligently suffered" are necessary, because the town is liable for the damage caused by the want of repair, under Chap. 84, § 15, if it negligently suffered the want of repair. A general allegation of the notice required by Chap. 84, § 18, seems necessary.

16. OBSTRUCTING WAY.

And the plaintiff says that he owned a piece of land (describing it), and had a way from the same over a certain close to (here mention the other terminus) and thence back again, for himself and his servants on foot and with horses, cattle and vehicles, and the defendant wrongfully obstructed the said way.

Note. — Cf. 2 Chitty Pl. (13th Am. ed.) 807; Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 251.

17. IMMODERATE DRIVING.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant hired of him a horse and carriage to drive from Boston to Cambridge, and thence back to Boston, and the defendant drove the said horse so negligently and unreasonably that the said horse became sick and lame and was greatly damaged.

Note. — Cf. Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 99; Moors v. Larry, 15 Gray, 451.

18. SLANDER IMPUTING PERJURY.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant falsely and maliciously spoke and published of the plaintiff the words following. "You swore false at the trial of your brother John", the defendant meaning thereby that the plaintiff was guilty of perjury in testifying as a witness at the trial of his brother J F upon a criminal proceeding against him in the District Court of _____ for an assault and battery. 12 Mass. 498.

Instruction: In actions of libel and slander, it is sufficient to allege that the words or matter complained of were used in a defamatory sense, specifying such defamatory sense, without a further statement of facts to show that they were used in that sense, and such allegation shall be put in issue by a denial of the alleged libel or slander. If, however, the natural import of the words is not intelligible without further explanation, or reference to facts understood but not mentioned, or parts of the conversation not stated, a concise and clear statement of such particulars as are necessary to make the words relied on intelligible to the court and jury in the same sense in which they were spoken may be required upon motion of the defendant.

Note. — The foregoing instruction changes the rule followed in Brettun v. Anthony, 103 Mass. 37, requiring all the circumstances, necessary at common law to make the words spoken slanderous or libellous, to be set out in the inducement of prefatory statement, followed by a colloquium or allegation that the words were used of and concerning those circumstances, and permits the simpler form authorized by the English Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, § 61. See Chace v. Sherman, 119 Mass. 387. It is, however, often desirable to draw a declaration containing an introduction or colloquium, and this may be required on an application for particulars.

19. SLANDER INDIRECTLY CHARGING A CRIMINAL OFFENCE.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant falsely and maliciously spoke and published of the plaintiff the words following: "Some of the folks up your way think that Henry burned the store. I have no doubt but what he burned it", the defendant meaning thereby that the plaintiff burned a building and goods and chattels therein belonging to him with intent to injure certain insurance companies by whom the same were insured at the time against loss or damage by fire. 5 Gray, 22.

208 Mass. 600.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant falsely and maliciously printed and published (or wrote and published) of the plaintiff in a newspaper called the words following: "He is a regular prover in bankruptcies", the defendant meaning thereby that the plaintiff had proved and was in the habit of proving fictitious debts against the estates of bankrupts, with the knowledge that such debts were fictitious: [(or, if it is a picture, describe it, e.g.)] falsely and maliciously composed and published of the plaintiff and a court-martial of which he was a member a lithograph picture and caricature of the said court-martial in which the plaintiff is represented in an awkward, ludicrous and contemptible light and posture and as saying of A B the respondent then on trial upon certain charges before the said court-martial the words following: (here set out the words) the defendant thereby meaning to impute to the plaintiff low, vulgar and contemptible language, views and motives.]; [(or, if it is a letter) falsely and maliciously wrote and published of the plaintiff in a letter addressed to W D, by whom the plaintiff was then employed as bookkeeper, the words following: "There is a duplicity about your bookkeeper in serving your interest in this affair of ours which is sadly too transparent. I conceive there is nothing too base for him to be guilty of."]

Note. — The first of these forms for actions of libel is taken from Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 179, 180; the second from Ellis v. Kimball, 16 Pick. 132; and the third from Tighe v. Cooper, 7 Ellis & Bl. 639.

21. TRESPASS TO PERSON.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant assaulted and beat the plaintiff (and imprisoned him and kept him in prison for a long time).

Note. — Cf. Bullen & Leake, 240, 241.

22. TRESPASS TO LAND.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant broke and entered the plaintiff's close (describing it) and ploughed up the soil thereof and took and carried away fifty bushels of the plaintiff's corn therefrom, and converted the same to his own use.

Note. — See also Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 245. The form in 1851, 233 (P. S. p. 979), used the word "forcibly" as the older forms used "with force and arms" (2 Chitty Pl. 869), but no real force is necessary, and "every entry therein without the owner's leave . . . is a trespass". 3 Bl. Com. 208. As the statute dispenses with all averments which the law does not require to be proved (§ 7 of this chapter), the form ought not to require an allegation of force.

23. PENALTY. TREBLE DAMAGES FOR INJURY TO AQUEDUCT.

2 Allen, 320.

And the plaintiffs say that they had an aqueduct (describing it), and the defendant maliciously injured the same by cutting off one of the pipes thereof, whereby the defendant became liable to pay the plaintiffs treble the amount of the damage thereby sustained by the plaintiffs, and the amount of such damage was ten dollars.

Note. — See Chap. 165, § 24.

MIXED ACTION.

24. EJECTMENT UNDER SECTION NINE.

1915, 146, § 1.
225 Mass. 510.

And the plaintiff says that the defendant is wrongfully in possession of a piece of land situate, etc., (description) to which the plaintiff is entitled by virtue of a lease for a term not yet expired.

PARTICULARS OF TITLE.

The premises were leased by A B to the plaintiff (or to X Y) by an indenture dated the _____ day of _____ 19____ for a term of twenty years from the _____ day of _____ 19____ (and were afterwards assigned by the said X Y to the plaintiff by an indenture dated the _____ day of _____ 19____ for the unexpired residue of the said term).

Note. — This is the common law action of ejectment, not the action of summary process in which no declaration is required.

ANSWERS IN ABATEMENT.

25. NON-JOINDER.

The defendant says that, if he is indebted to the plaintiffs for the goods mentioned in the declaration, he is indebted to them jointly with G H, who is still alive, and not alone, and therefore he ought not to be held to answer to the plaintiffs' writ.

Note. — There is no use in saying that "the defendant comes", for "comes" is only the old way of entering on the record the statement of his appearance. 3 Chitty Pl. (13th Am. ed.) 892, 900; see 2 Saund. 30, 108a. Cf. Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 253.

26. MISNOMER.

The defendant says that the plaintiff's name is John Stiles, and not James Stiles, and therefore he ought not to be held to answer to the plaintiff's writ.

ANSWERS IN ACTIONS OF CONTRACT.

27. MONEY HAD AND RECEIVED, OR PROMISSORY NOTE, OR OTHER CAUSE OF ACTION.

The defendant denies all the allegations in the plaintiff's declaration [and denies the genuineness of the supposed signature of the defendant (or the said C D) to the promissory note therein declared on] [and denies that the plaintiff (or the defendant) ever was or is executor as alleged] (and denies that there was at the commencement of this action or is any such corporation as the supposed plaintiff).

Note. — An "answer denying all the allegations in the declaration" (Mosler v. Potter, 121 Mass. 89 at p. 90) has long been in general use, and no one would use the old forms given in P. S. at p. 980. The bill of particulars is part of the declaration (§ 14 of this chapter), and so does not require special mention in the answer.

As to denial of genuineness of signature, see § 29. Spoooner v. Gilmore, 136 Mass. 248.

As to denial of representative capacity or corporate existence, see § 30.

As to executor, etc., cf. Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 335; Story Pl. (2d ed.) 192.

As to corporation, cf. Story Pl. 91; Christian Society v. Macomber, 3 Met. 235; Whiton v. Balch, 203 Mass. 576.

28. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.

The defendant says that the cause of action mentioned in the declaration ^{266 Mass. 543.} did not accrue within six years before the commencement of this action.

29. PAYMENT.

The defendant says that he paid the plaintiff the sum of _____ dollars, which was the full amount of the account stated in the plaintiff's bill of particulars.

(If there are several items, add and he annexes hereto a bill of particulars of the said payment).

30. ACCOUNT ANNEXED. GOODS SOLD AND DELIVERED. WORK.

The defendant, as to the first ten items of the plaintiff's bill of particulars, denies that the plaintiff sold and delivered any of the same to the defendant. And as to the eleventh item, he denies that the price was to be more than ten dollars, which sum he has paid.

31. PROMISSORY NOTE. ALTERNATIVE DEFENCES.

The defendant denies that he made the said promissory note as alleged in the declaration and denies the genuineness of his supposed signature thereto. And, if he made the said note, the same was paid.

Note. — See Swett v. Southworth, 125 Mass. 417; Jewett v. Locke, 6 Gray, 233. See also § 37.

32. MINORITY.

As to the note mentioned in the plaintiff's second count, the defendant says that at the time of making the same he was a minor under the age of twenty-one.

33. DURESS.

As to the contract mentioned in the plaintiff's third count, the defendant says that he was induced to make the same by the plaintiff's unlawfully keeping him in prison until he made the same.

Note. — Cf. Bullen & Leake Pl. (1st ed.) 329.

34. PART PAYMENT. TENDER.

The defendant says that he paid the note mentioned in the declaration, except the sum of fifty dollars, and, before the commencement of this action, he tendered to the plaintiff the said sum of fifty dollars and now brings the same into court for the plaintiff.

35. ACCORD AND SATISFACTION.

The defendant says that he delivered to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff accepted, a wagon, in full satisfaction of the note mentioned in the declaration.

36. RES JUDICATA.

The defendant says that in the superior court held (etc.) the plaintiff recovered judgment against the defendant for dollars and cents damages, and dollars and cents costs, for the cause of action mentioned in the plaintiff's first count.

37. RELEASE.

The defendant says that the plaintiff by deed (a copy whereof is hereto annexed) released him from the cause of action mentioned in the second count.

38. INSURANCE.

(a) The defendants deny that the said loss was actually total, and deny that any abandonment was made.

(b) The defendants say that the said vessel was not seaworthy for the voyage in the said policy mentioned at the inception of the said voyage.

(c) The defendants deny that the said vessel was lost while proceeding on the voyage in the said policy described.

39. EQUITABLE DEFENCE.

Action for not forwarding goods by a specified steamer according to a written agreement and sending them by another steamer, alleged to be unseaworthy, which was lost.

The defendant says that the plaintiff delivered the goods mentioned in the declaration to the defendant to be forwarded by the defendant to L C B at Havre in France by the first steamer sailing from New York for Havre, and without any other directions from the plaintiff as to the steamer by which they should be sent, and the defendant agreed with the plaintiff to forward them accordingly. And by mistake of the defendant's agent the name of the steamer J S was written in the bill of lading and agreement mentioned in the declaration in the supposition that the said steamer J S was the first steamer sailing from New York for Havre after the delivery of the goods as aforesaid, whereas in fact that steamer was not the first steamer so sailing and was not then about to sail and did not sail from New York for Havre. And the defendant in accordance with the real agreement made between the plaintiff and the defendant as aforesaid forwarded the said goods by the steamer P, which was the first steamer so sailing and which sailed soon afterwards on the said voyage and was seaworthy at the commencement thereof.

ANSWERS IN ACTIONS OF TORT.

(a) The defendant denies that the horse mentioned in the declaration was the property of the plaintiff, and also denies that he converted the same to his own use.

(b) The defendant admits that the said horse was the general property of the plaintiff, but says that the defendant had a special property therein by reason of his having attached the same as the plaintiff's property by virtue of a writ (describing it), which writ was delivered to the defendant, who then was a deputy sheriff in the county of _____, for service, and the said action is now pending. And so the defendant denies that he converted the said horse to his own use.

41. DECEIT.

(a) The defendant denies that he made the said representation knowing that the same was not true.

(b) The defendant denies that the said horse was unsound, as alleged in the declaration.

(c) The defendant denies that he made the representation alleged in the declaration. And the defendant also says that the said coffee was the defendant's property, and that he had a right to sell the same.

42. OBSTRUCTING WAY.

(a) The defendant denies that the plaintiff had a right of way as set out in the declaration.

(b) The defendant denies that he obstructed the said way as alleged in the declaration.

43. SLANDER OR LIBEL.

The defendant denies that he accused the plaintiff of the crime of perjury as alleged in the first count.

And answering the second count, the defendant says that (the plaintiff feloniously stole ten dollars the property of S T and so) the words alleged to have been written (or spoken) and published of the plaintiff by the defendant were true.

Note. — The clause in parentheses at the beginning of the answer to the second count might be omitted. McLaughlin v. Cowley, 127 Mass. 316.

3 Allen, 69.
6 Allen, 496.
7 Allen, 61.

44. ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

(a) The defendant says that the plaintiff first assaulted him, and he thereupon necessarily committed the alleged assault in his own defence.

(b) The defendant says that the plaintiff was his apprentice and deserted and ran away from his service, and the defendant lawfully retook and restrained the plaintiff, using no more force than was necessary.

45. TRESPASS QUARE CLAUSUM.

The defendant says that a part of the close mentioned in the plaintiff's writ was the soil and freehold of the defendant, the same being described as follows, etc. And he denies that he broke or entered any part of said close, except the part above described.

REPLICATIONS.

46. LIMITATIONS.

(a) The plaintiff says that within six years before the commencement of this action the defendant in a writing signed by him (or his agent A B), a copy whereof is hereto annexed (or by part payment on account of the moneys then due) acknowledged that the debt mentioned in the declaration remained due and unpaid.

(b) The plaintiff says that during the six years next before the commencement of this action the defendant resided out of this commonwealth for three years.

Note. — The form in P. S., p. 981, is changed because the statute then in force, P. S. 197, § 11, was changed by R. L. 202, § 9. See Chap. 260, § 9.

47. MINORITY.

The plaintiff says that the articles mentioned in his bill of particulars were necessaries for the defendant and suitable to his estate and degree.

1 SECTION 78. An entry in an account kept in a book or by a card
 2 system or by any other system of keeping accounts, or a writing or record,
 3 whether in the form of an entry in a book or otherwise, made as a memo-
 4 randum or record of any act, transaction, occurrence or event, shall not 5 be inadmissible in any civil proceeding as evidence of the facts therein
 6 stated because it is transcribed or because it is hearsay or self-serving,
 7 if the court finds that the entry, writing or record was made in good 8 faith in the regular course of business and before the beginning of the 9 civil proceeding aforesaid and that it was the regular course of such 10 business to make such memorandum or record at the time of such act, 11 transaction, occurrence or event or within a reasonable time thereafter.
 12 For the purposes hereof, the word "business", in addition to its ordinary 13 meaning, shall include profession, occupation and calling of every kind.
 14 The court, in its discretion, before admitting such entry, writing or record 15 in evidence, may, to such extent as it deems practicable or desirable, but 16 to no greater extent than the law required before April eleventh, nineteen 17 hundred and thirteen, require the party offering the same to produce and 18 offer in evidence the original entry, writing, document or account or any 19 other from which the entry, writing or record offered or the facts therein
 20 stated were transcribed or taken, and to call as his witness any person 21 who made the entry, writing or record offered or the original or any 22 other entry, writing, document or account from which the entry, writing 23 or record offered or the facts therein stated were transcribed or taken, or 24 who has personal knowledge of the facts stated in the entry, writing or 25 record offered. When any such entry, writing or record is admitted, 26 all other circumstances of the making thereof, including lack of personal 27 knowledge by the entrant or maker, may be shown to affect its weight.

section one, of good moral character, of sound judgment and free from 5 all legal exceptions, not exempt from jury service under section one or 6 two, as they think qualified to serve as jurors. The board shall not 7 place the name of any person on said list unless such person is deter- 8 mined to be qualified as aforesaid upon the knowledge of one of its mem- 9
 bers, or after personal appearance and, if the board deems it necessary, 10 examination under oath. The board may summon persons to appear 11 before it for examinations as to their qualifications for jury service and 12 may compel their attendance before it and the giving of testimony in 13 the same manner and to the same extent as may magistrates authorized 14 to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses. Such examinations 15 may be held before a single member of the board and for the aforesaid 16 purpose each member may administer oaths. If the board elects, such 17 examination may be in the form of a questionnaire to be answered under 18 oath. The board may further investigate by inquiries at such person's 19 place of residence and of business or employment, or by other means, 20 his reputation, character and fitness for such service. The chief of police 21 or the police commissioner or the official having charge of the police shall 22 upon request give the board all possible assistance in making such investi- 23 gation. Upon the request of the board or any member thereof, any 24 person shall answer all questions and give such information as he may 25 have relating to the character or fitness for jury service of any person 26 concerning whom such request is made, which information shall be con- 27 fidential. To the name of each juror on said list shall be appended his 28 place of residence and of business or occupation. 29

Such lists shall include not less than one juror for every hundred in- 30 habitants nor more than one for every sixty according to the latest cen- 31 sus, state or national, but in Nantucket or Dukes county it may include 32 one for every thirty inhabitants. In no event shall a person's name 33 appear on the jury lists of more than three successive years or on more 34 than three jury lists in any six year period. 35

If any question concerning the preparation of such list arises, as to 36 which the board of election commissioners, registrars or selectmen are 37 equally divided, it shall be referred, if arising in Boston, to the chief 38 justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston, or, in case of his 39 absence or disability, to the senior justice thereof, and, if arising in any 40 other city or in any town, to the justice of the district court within whose 41 jurisdiction such city or town lies, or in case of his absence or disability 42 to the senior special justice thereof, and his decision on the question shall 43 be final. 44

Failure by a registrar of voters or election commissioner to comply 45 with the requirements of this section shall be sufficient ground for his 46 removal from office. 47

SECTION 5. Jury lists prepared as above provided shall annually, 1 before August first, be printed with the address and occupation of each 2 juror, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the mayor or selectmen 3 and to the clerk of the city or town to which such list relates, and to 4 the clerks and assistant clerks of the supreme judicial and superior 5 courts in the county where such city or town is situated, to be kept by 6 said clerks and assistant clerks for the use of said courts. 7

SECTION 19. When jurors are to be drawn in a town, the town clerk and selectmen shall meet at the clerk's office or at some other public place appointed for the purpose, and, if the clerk is absent, the selectmen may proceed without him. The ballots in the jury box shall be shaken and mixed and one of the selectmen, without seeing the names written thereon, shall openly draw therefrom a number of ballots equal to the number of jurors required.

P. S. 170, § 18. R. L. 176, § 19.

1 SECTION 20. If a person drawn as provided in the two preceding
 2 sections is exempt or unable by reason of illness or absence from home
 3 to attend as a juror, or has so served in any court within the time pro-
 4 vided in section two, his name shall thereupon be returned to the box 5 and another drawn.

1 SECTION 24. The constable shall, fourteen days at least before the 2 time when the jurors are required to attend unless the court otherwise 3 orders when issuing venire for additional jurors under section twelve, 4 summon each person who is drawn, by reading to him the venire with 5 the endorsement thereon of his having been drawn, or by leaving at his 6 place of abode a written notice of his having been drawn and of the time
 7 and place of the sitting of the court at which he is required to attend, 8 and shall make a return of the venire with his doings thereon to the 9 clerk of the court, before the sitting of the court by which it was issued.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1 SECTION 25. On the day when jurors are summoned to attend at 2 court for the trial of civil or criminal cases, except capital cases, the 3 clerk of the court shall cause the name, place of abode and occupation
 4 of each person so summoned to be written on separate ballots, sub-
 5 stantially of uniform size, and shall cause them to be placed in a box
 6 provided therefor. When a case is ready for trial the clerk in open 7 court, after shaking the ballots thoroughly, shall draw them out in 8 succession until the names of twelve are drawn who appear and are 9 not excused or set aside. The twelve men so drawn shall be duly sworn and impanelled and shall be the jury to try the issue, and one of them shall be appointed foreman by the court. The ballots containing names of the jurors so sworn shall be kept apart by the clerk until the verdict of such jury has been recorded or such jury has been discharged, when such ballots shall be returned to the box. If a case is ready for trial before the verdict in the preceding case has been recorded or the jury discharged, the court may order a jury for the trial of such issue to be impanelled by the drawing in the manner aforesaid of ballots from those remaining in the box.

Same in capital cases. 1873, 308. P. S. 170, § 32. 1897, 515, § 9. R. L. 176, § 26.

SECTION 26. If a jury is to be impanelled for the trial of a capital case, the clerk of the court shall cause the name of each juror summoned therein to be written on a separate ballot and each ballot to be folded uniformly in such manner that the name written thereon shall not be visible, and shall cause such ballots to be placed in a box provided therefor. He shall then in open court draw the ballots in succession from said box, and the twelve persons whose names are upon the ballots first drawn and who are not excused or otherwise set aside, shall be sworn as the jury for the trial of the case.

Talesmen. 1699-1700, 1, § 4; 2, § 4; 3, § 5. 1784, 7, § 6. 1807, 140, § 7. R. S. 95, §§ 24-26. G. S. 132, §§ 27, 28. P. S. 170, §§ 33, 34. R. L. 176, § 27. 6 Cush. 174. 243 Mass. 472. 255 Mass. 369.

SECTION 27. If, by challenge or otherwise, a sufficient number of jurors duly drawn and summoned cannot be obtained for the trial of a case, the court shall cause jurors to be returned from the bystanders or from the county at large, to complete the panel, if there are on the jury not less than seven of the jurors who were originally drawn and summoned as before provided. The jurors from the bystanders shall be returned by the sheriff or his deputy or by a disinterested person appointed therefor by the court, and shall be such as are qualified and liable to be drawn as jurors.

SECTION 28. Upon motion of either party, the court shall, or the parties or their attorneys may under the direction of the court, examine on oath a person who is called as a juror therein, to learn whether he is related to either party or has any interest in the case, or has expressed or formed an opinion, or is sensible of any bias or prejudice, therein; and the objecting party may introduce other competent evidence in support of the objection. If the court finds that the juror does not stand indifferent in the case, another shall be called in his stead.

SECTION 29. Upon the trial of an indictment for a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for life, each defendant shall be entitled to twelve peremptory challenges of the jurors called to try the case, and in other criminal cases each defendant shall be entitled to two such challenges. In every criminal case the commonwealth shall be entitled to as many such challenges as equal the whole number to which all the defendants in the case are entitled. In a civil case each party shall be entitled to two such challenges. Peremptory challenges shall be made before the 9 commencement of the trial and may be made after the determination 10 that a person called to serve as a juror stands indifferent in the case.

SECTION 17. An original execution shall not issue after the expiration of one year after the party is first entitled to take it out; and an alias or other successive execution shall not issue after the expiration of five years from the return day of that which preceded it. Subject to section twenty of chapter two hundred and sixty, alias or successive executions shall be of full force and effect for five years from the date thereof unless satisfied in whole or discharged by law. All executions shall be returned to the court issuing them within ten days after their satisfaction or discharge. If any execution is returned for any reason to the court issuing the same unsatisfied in whole or in part, the court may, subject to the provisions of this section, order the issue of a new execution for the amount then remaining due.

SPECIAL JUDGMENTS AGAINST BANKRUPTS OR INSOLVENTS.

1 SECTION 24. If a plaintiff would be entitled to a judgment or a decree,
 2 except for the bankruptcy or insolvency of the debtor or his discharge 3 therein, and if, more than four months prior to the commencement of 4 proceedings in bankruptcy, or, in voluntary proceedings in insolvency, 5 more than four months prior to the time of the first publication of the 6 notice of the issuing of the warrant, or, in involuntary proceedings, 7 more than four months prior to the first publication of the notice of the 8 filing of the petition, or, in proceedings in composition in insolvency in 9 which no assignment has been made, more than four months prior to 10 the notice by the register to the creditors of the debtor's proposal of 11 composition, any property, estate, interest or money of a debtor has 12 been attached, or brought within the control of a court of equity by 13 proceedings under clause seven of section three of chapter two hundred 14 and fourteen, by other proceedings in equity, or by payment into court, 15 the court may at any time upon motion enter a special judgment or 16 decree for the plaintiff, for the amount of his debt or damages and costs, 17 or for such other relief as he may be entitled to, to be enforced in the 18 first instance only against the property, estate, interest or money, so 19 attached or brought within the control of a court of equity. If such 20 property, estate, interest or money shall be insufficient to satisfy the 21 judgment or decree in full, the court may thereafter, if the debtor's
 22 discharge is refused, or if he shall unreasonably delay to prosecute 23 said proceedings to a discharge, order an alias or other successive execu-24 tion or other process to be issued upon such judgment or decree for such 25 portion thereof as remains unsatisfied. The creditor may also in case of 26 such refusal or delay have a writ of seire facias or action as provided in 27 section nineteen. This section shall not impair the powers which courts 28 of equity may otherwise exercise.

SECTION 4. If land, which was not attached on mesne process in the action in which the execution issued, is taken on execution, the officer shall forthwith deposit in the registry of deeds for the county or district where the land lies a copy of the execution with a memorandum thereon that the execution is in his hands for the purpose of taking the land of the defendant, and no such taking shall be valid against a purchaser in good faith, for value and without notice, before such copy is deposited. If land was attached on mesne process, a copy of the execution with a memorandum as aforesaid shall be deposited by the officer in the registry

10 of deeds for the county or district where the land lies, within forty days
 11 after the judgment in the action, and the attachment shall become void 12 forty days after said judgment unless the copy is so deposited; provided, 13 that if land was attached on mesne process in Nantucket county and judg-14 ment was rendered in another county, or if judgment was rendered in 15 Nantucket county and land was attached in another county, said copy 16 shall be deposited within seventy days after judgment in the action, 17 and the attachment shall become void seventy days after said judgment 18 unless the copy is so deposited.

 paid on account of any mortgage or other lien recoverable under section 10 forty-eight, and deducting from such amount in each case the rents and 11 profits received or which might have been received by the creditor or 12 purchaser and with which he is lawfully chargeable. The creditor or 13 purchaser shall thereupon deliver to the debtor a deed of release, pre- 14 pared by the debtor or at his expense, of the land or rights so taken and 15 set off or sold. 16

SECTION 34. The debtor may in all cases cause the amount due for 1 redemption to be ascertained at his own expense by three justices of the 2 peace in the manner following: one of the justices shall be chosen by 3 the debtor, one by the creditor, and one by the two first chosen; or if 4 the creditor neglects to choose one, the justice chosen by the debtor 5 shall appoint the other two. After a hearing before the three justices, 6 they or two of them shall make and sign a certificate of the amount 7 which they adjudge to be due for the redemption of the land, which 8 certificate shall be final and conclusive between the parties. A tender 9 by the debtor of the amount so adjudged to be due shall be a sufficient 10 tender notwithstanding any previous tender. 11

SECTION 35. If the creditor or, in case of a sale, the purchaser pays 1 the debt due on a mortgage to which the land levied on is subject, the 2 judgment debtor may redeem the mortgage from the creditor or pur- 3 chaser at the time when, and upon the terms upon which, he might have 4 redeemed it from the mortgagee if no execution had been levied. If the 5 debtor does not so redeem the mortgage, the creditor or purchaser shall 6 hold the land as an assignee of the mortgage and free from any right 7 of redemption, notwithstanding the debtor has redeemed or offered to 8 redeem the right taken on the execution. If the debtor does not within 9 one year after the levy redeem the right taken on the execution, the 10 creditor or purchaser shall hold the land against the debtor, notwith- 11 standing the debtor has redeemed or offered to redeem the mortgage. 12

SECTION 37. If an execution is levied on rents and profits of a life 1 estate, the debtor may, at any time before the debt with interest thereon 2 is fully satisfied, redeem the same by paying or tendering to the creditor 3 the amount then due to him; and the proceedings relative to such re- 4 demption shall be the same as are provided for the redemption of other 5 land. 6

SECTION 38. If the debtor tenders the amount justly due for redemp- 1 tion, and the creditor or, in case of a sale, the purchaser does not within 2
 seven days after the tender release the land as before provided, the 3

4 debtor may recover it, with costs, in a writ of entry on his own seisin
 5 against the creditor or purchaser as a disseisor; but before judgment 6 therein is entered for him, he shall bring into court for the use of the 7 creditor or purchaser the amount so tendered.

 2 found due for redemption and may set forth any tender he has made.
 3 The court shall determine the amount due, unless it has been already 4 ascertained under section thirty-four, and shall require the debtor,
 5 within such time as it may order, to deposit with the clerk for the use
 6 of the creditor or purchaser the amount due for redemption. Upon the 7 debtor's complying with the order, he shall be entitled to judgment and

 2 creditor or purchaser shall not be required to pay costs, unless it appears 3 that he has unreasonably neglected to render, when requested, a just 4 and true account of the amount due on the judgment, of the money
 5 expended in repairing and improving the land and of the rents and 6 profits thereof; or unless it appears that a sufficient amount was ten-7 dered to him for the redemption of the land, and that he neglected for 8 seven days thereafter to execute and deliver a release thereof as before 9 required. If the creditor or purchaser has, before the commencement 10 of the suit, tendered such a deed of release and alleges such tender and

 9 shall be substantially the same as if the right taken and sold on such 10 second execution had been a right of redeeming mortgaged land.

1 SECTION 50. If, before an execution which has been levied on land
 2 is returned and recorded, it appears that there is a defect or error in the 3 proceedings which would defeat the levy, or that the land levied upon 4 cannot be held thereby, the creditor may waive the levy, which shall

 2 creditor that the land levied on, or any part thereof, cannot be held
 3 thereby, he may take out from the court from which the execution issued
 4 a writ of scire facias requiring the debtor to appear and show cause why 5 another execution should not be issued on the same judgment, and the 6 writ may issue although there is a subsequent judgment for a part 7 thereof not satisfied by the levy. If the debtor, after being duly sum-8 moned, does not show sufficient cause to the contrary, the levy of the 9 former execution may be set aside and another execution issued for the

 2 land levied on is held thereby, a warrant may be issued, if the creditor
 3 so requires, to an officer qualified to serve the execution, requiring him 4 to cause the part held thereby to be appraised at its value when taken.
 5 The officer shall thereupon cause such appraisal to be made in the manner
 6 required upon the original levy, and, upon return of said warrant, the 7 levy may be set aside so far as it relates to the part not held thereby,
 8 and, if duly recorded, shall be valid as to the remaining part. A new 9 execution may thereupon be issued for the difference between the amount 10 of the original appraisal of the land levied on and the amount of the 11 appraisal of the part held by the levy, without interest or costs. If the as provided in section twelve of chapter one hundred and eighty-six, a 6 discretionary stay of judgment and execution may be granted, as hereinafter 7 provided, upon application of the tenant, for such period not exceeding 8 one month, as the court may deem just and reasonable. 9

Same subject. SECTION 10. Upon application for such a stay of proceedings, the 1
 Hearing, etc. court shall hear the parties, and if upon the hearing it appears that the 2 1927, 339, § 2. premises of which possession is sought to be recovered are used for 3 dwelling purposes; that the applicant cannot secure suitable premises for 4 himself and his family elsewhere within the city or town in a neighbor- 5 hood similar to that in which the premises occupied by him are situated; 6 that his application is made in good faith and that he will abide by and 8 comply with such terms and provisions as the court may prescribe; or 9

10 that by reason of other facts such action will be warranted, the court 11 may grant a stay as provided in the preceding section, on condition that 12 the terms upon which such stay is granted be complied with.

1 SECTION 11. Such stay shall be granted and continue effective only 2 upon the condition that the applicant shall make a deposit in court of 3 the entire amount, or such instalments thereof from time to time, as the 4 court may direct, for the occupation of the premises for the period of 5 the stay, at the rate to which he was liable as rent for the month im-
 6 mediately prior to the expiration of his term or tenancy plus such ad-7 ditional amount, if any, as the court may determine to be reasonable.
 8 The deposit shall also include all rent unpaid prior to the period of the 9 stay. The amount of the deposit shall be determined by the court at 10 the hearing upon the application for the stay, and such determination 11 shall be final and conclusive in respect only to the amount of the deposit, 12 and the amount thereof shall be paid into court, in such manner and in 13 such instalments, if any, as the court may direct. A separate account 14 shall be kept of the amount to the credit of each proceeding, and all such 15 payments shall be deposited by the clerk of the court, and paid over to 16 the landlord or his duly authorized agent, in accordance with the terms 17 of the stay or the further order of the court.

SECTION 1. If the record title of land is clouded by an adverse claim, or by the possibility thereof, a person in possession of such land claiming an estate of freehold therein or an unexpired term of not less than ten years, and a person who by force of the covenants in a deed or otherwise may be liable in damages, if such claim should be sustained, may file a petition in the land court stating his interest, describing the land, the claims and the possible adverse claimants so far as known to him, and praying that such claimants may be summoned to show cause why they should not bring an action to try such claim. If no better description can be given, they may be described generally, as the heirs of A B or the like. Two or more persons having separate and distinct parcels of land in the same county and holding under the same source of title, or persons having separate and distinct interests in the same parcel or parcels, may join in a petition against the same supposed claimants. If the supposed claimants are residents of the commonwealth, the petition may be inserted like a declaration in a writ, and served by a copy, like a writ of original summons. Whoever is in the enjoyment of an easement shall be held to be in possession of land within the meaning of this section.

SECTION 2. If the petition is not so served, the court shall order notice thereof by publication to the supposed claimants, whether residents or non-residents of the commonwealth. Such notice shall bind all the world, but the court may also require personal or other notice, and if, upon return of the order of notice duly executed, the parties notified do not appear within the time limited or, having appeared, disobey the lawful order of the court to try their claim, the court shall enter a decree that they be forever barred from having or enforcing any such claim adversely to the petitioner, his heirs or assigns, in the land described, and may require them to execute, within such time as the court orders, a conveyance, release or acquittance duly relinquishing the same. A judgment or decree under this section may require the giving of a bond to respond to any action brought under section four within five years after the entry of such judgment or decree.

Proceedings upon appearance.

SECTION 3. If the persons notified or summoned appear and disclaim all right and title adverse to the petitioner, they shall recover costs. If

3 they claim title, they shall by answer show why they should not be 4 required to bring an action to try such title, and the court shall enter 5 an appropriate decree relative to bringing and prosecuting such action.
 6 If the party or parties against whom a judgment or decree for a con-
 7 veyance, release or acquittance may be rendered by any court in the 8 commonwealth do not comply therewith, within the time therein limited, 9 such judgment or decree shall, subject to the following section, have 10 the same effect as if the conveyance, release or acquittance had been 11 executed conformably thereto.

 2 cation in a newspaper, a judgment or decree has been rendered under 3 section two and whose right is barred thereby, may recover from the 4 person in whose favor such judgment or decree was entered, or from his 5 executors, administrators, heirs or devisees, in accordance with chapter 6 one hundred and ninety-seven, the value at the time action is brought 7 of any interest or right, except of improvements made by the defendants, 8 of which he may have been deprived by such judgment or decree, unless 9 at that time an action which, but for such judgment or decree, he might 10 have maintained for the recovery of such interest or the enforcement of 11 such right would have been barred by the statute of limitations.

SUITS IN EQUITY TO QUIET TITLE.

1 SECTION 6. If, in a suit in equity in the supreme judicial or the 2 superior court, or in the land court, to quiet or establish the title to land
 3 situated in the commonwealth or to remove a cloud from the title thereto,
 4 it is sought to determine the claims or rights of persons unascertained, 5 not in being, unknown or out of the commonwealth, or who cannot be 6 actually served with process and made personally amenable to the de-7 cree of the court, such persons may be made defendants and, if they are 8 unascertained, not in being or unknown, may be described generally, as 9 the heirs or legal representatives of A B, or such persons as shall become 10 heirs, devisees or appointees of C D, a living person, or persons claiming 11 under A B. It shall be unnecessary for the maintenance of such suit 12 that the defendants shall have a claim or the possibility of a claim rest-13 ing upon an instrument the cancellation or surrender of which would 14 afford the relief desired; but it shall be sufficient that they claim or may 15 claim by purchase, descent or otherwise, some right, title, interest or 16 estate in the land which is the subject of the suit and that their claim 17 depends upon the construction of a written instrument or cannot be met 18 by the plaintiffs without the production of evidence. Two or more 19 persons claiming to own separate and distinct parcels of land in the 20 same county by titles derived from a common source, or two or more 21 persons having separate and distinct interests in the same parcel, may 22 join as plaintiffs in any suit brought under this section.

SECTION 8. If, after notice has been given or served as provided in the preceding section and the time limited in such notice for the appearance of the defendants has expired, the court finds that there are or may be defendants not actually served with process within the commonwealth who have not appeared in the suit, it may of its own motion, or on the representation of any party, appoint a guardian ad litem or next friend of any such defendant, and if any such defendants have or may have conflicting interests, it may appoint different guardians ad litem or next friends to represent them.

or next friend, including compensation of his counsel, shall be determined by the court and paid by the plaintiff, against whom execution may issue therefor in favor of the guardian ad litem or next friend.

SECTION 10. After all the defendants have been served with process or notified as provided in section seven and after the appointment of a guardian ad litem or next friend, if such appointment has been made, the court may proceed as though all defendants had been actually served with process. Such suit shall be a proceeding in rem against the land, and a decree establishing or declaring the validity, nature or extent of the plaintiff's title may be entered, and shall operate directly on the land and have the force of a release made by or on behalf of all defendants of all claims inconsistent with the title established or declared thereby. This and the four preceding sections shall not prevent the court from also exercising jurisdiction in personam against defendants actually served with process who are personally amenable to its decrees.

SECTION 11. If the title to land appears of record to be affected by a possible condition, restriction, reservation, stipulation or agreement made or imposed more than thirty years prior to the commencement of the proceedings hereinafter provided for, a person having a freehold estate, vested or contingent, in possession, reversion or remainder, in said land, or in any undivided or any aliquot part thereof, or any interest therein which may become a freehold estate, and any person who has conveyed such estate or any such interest therein with covenants of title or warranty, may file a petition on oath in the land court to determine the validity, or define the nature and extent, of such possible condition or other encumbrance, against any person who might be entitled in any event to enforce it or avail himself thereof. Two or more persons owning in severalty different portions of such estate or different interests therein may join in such petition, or two or more such defects of the same general character in the title to the same parcel of land or to different portions of the same parcel of land may be set forth in the same petition, and if the petition is contested the court shall make an appropriate order for separate issues.

1 SECTION 12. If it is averred in the petition that there are necessary
 2 or proper respondents whose names are unknown to the petitioner, they 3 may be described generally, as heirs or devisees of a person deceased, as 4 persons claiming under certain persons named, as the owners of cer-5 tain land, or otherwise, and if it is so averred that the true name of 6 a respondent cannot be ascertained, he shall be described as accurately 7 as practicable. If it is so averred that there are classes of necessary or 8 proper respondents whom it is impracticable and unnecessary to name 9 and to serve with process individually, they may be described gener-
 10 ally. The court may, if in its opinion the petitioner can and should do 11 so, require him by amendment to name or describe respondents more 12 particularly.

1 SECTION 13. The court shall prescribe the notice to be given to 2 non-resident respondents, to respondents whose residences are unknown,
 3 to unknown or unnamed respondents, and to any other respondents
 4 upon whom for any reason service cannot be made. If the court finds 5 that there are respondents to be affected by the decree, who have not 6 had actual notice of the petition, it shall appoint a disinterested person 7 to act for them.

 2 diction of all persons made respondents to the petition in the manner
 3 above provided, and shall, upon a hearing, make a decree determining 4 the validity, nature or extent of any such possible condition or other
 5 encumbrance, which shall be effectual to exclude all the respondents 6 from any claim thereunder contrary to such determination, and shall 7 have the same effect as a release by such respondents of such claims.

DISCHARGE OF MORTGAGES.

1 SECTION 15. If the record title of land or of easements or rights in 2 land held and possessed in fee simple is encumbered by an undischarged
 3 mortgage or a mortgage not properly or legally discharged of record,
 4 and the mortgagor and those having his estate therein have been in unin-
 5 terrupted possession of the land or exercising the rights in easements or 6 other rights in land, either for any period of twenty years after the ex-7 piration of the time limited in the mortgage for the full performance of the 8 condition thereof, or for any period of twenty years after the date of a 9 mortgage not given to secure the payment of money or a debt but to 10 secure the mortgagee against a contingent liability which has so ceased to 11 exist that no person will be prejudiced by the discharge thereof, the 12 mortgagor, or those having his estate in the land, or exercising the rights 13 in easements, or any person named in section eleven, may file a petition
 14 in the land court; and if, after such notice by publication or otherwise 15 as the court orders, no evidence is offered of a payment on account of 16 the debt secured by said mortgage within such period of twenty years 17 after the expiration of the time limited for the performance of the con-18 dition thereof, or of any other act within said time in recognition of its 19 existence as a valid mortgage, or if the court finds that such contingent 20 liability has ceased to exist and that the mortgage ought to be discharged, 21 it may enter a decree, reciting the facts and findings, which shall, within 22 thirty days after its entry, be recorded in the registry of deeds for the under said mortgage shall thereafter be maintained. Two or more 24 persons owning in severalty different portions or different interests, such 25 as are described in section eleven, in the land subject to the mortgage may 26 join in one petition, and two or more defects arising under different 27 mortgages affecting one parcel of land may be set forth in the same 28 petition. If the petition is contested, the court shall make an ap- 29

 strictions are

SECTION 16. The land court shall have jurisdiction upon a petition 1 to register land, or if land has been previously registered, upon a supple- 2 mental petition by the owner thereof, to hear and determine the question 3 whether or not equitable restrictions arising under contracts, deeds or 4 other instruments limiting or restraining the use or the manner of using 5 land are enforceable in whole or in part. 6

Land to be registered free

 restrictions, etc.
 Procedure.
 1915, 112, § 2.
 228 Mass. 242.

SECTION 17. If the land court shall find and determine, after hear- 1 ing, that the enforcement of any of such restrictions or limitations 2 would be injurious to the public interests, it shall register title to the land 3 free from said restrictions as and to the extent required by the public 4 interests, or, in case of registered land, shall enter an appropriate order 5 therefor; provided, that if the land court shall find and determine that 6 any of such restrictions or limitations, though they ought not to be 7 enforced, are nevertheless valid and have not become inoperative, it 8 shall, before registering said land free from said restrictions or limita- 9 tions or any of them, ascertain and determine whether any person or 10 property entitled to the benefits of any of such restrictions or limitations 11 may be damaged by the non-enforcement thereof. If so, the case shall 12 be referred to the superior court for the assessment of such damages. 13
 Chapter seventy-nine, so far as applicable, shall govern such assessment. 14
 The amount of any damages so assessed, with interest thereon from the 15 date of such assessment to the date of payment at the rate allowed by law 16 upon judgments, may be paid by the owner of the land into the superior 17 court at any time after such assessment for the benefit of the persons or 18 property entitled thereto; and, if so paid, the clerk of the superior court 19 shall so certify to the land court, and shall pay the sum so received by 20 him to the parties to whom it has been awarded. If no damages shall 21 be awarded the clerk of the superior court shall certify that fact to the 22 land court. Upon such certification from the clerk of the superior court 23 of the final determination of such proceedings for assessment and of the 24 payment of any damages therein assessed, the title may be registered 25 free from any restrictions, or in case of registered land may be freed 26 therefrom by the entry of such order as may be appropriate therefor. 27

Appeal.
 1915, 112, § 3.

SECTION 18. Any party aggrieved by a finding or decision of the 1 land court that the enforcement of any such restrictions or limitations 2 would be injurious to the public interests may appeal therefrom to the 3 supreme judicial court, which may draw from the facts and instruments 4 stated in the record, findings or decision any inferences of fact that 5 might have been drawn therefrom at a trial, and reverse or order such 6 modification of said findings or decision as justice may require. The 7 appeal shall be taken within twenty days after receipt of notice of 8 9 the filing of such finding or decision, and further proceedings under the 10 preceding section shall be suspended until after the determination of 11 said appeal. If an appeal is not duly prosecuted, the finding or decision 12 shall stand as if no appeal had been taken.

DETERMINATION OF BOUNDARIES OF FLATS.

1 SECTION 19. One or more persons holding land or flats adjacent to 2 or covered by high water may apply by petition to the land court for the 3 settlement and determination of the lines and boundaries of their owner-4 ship therein.

1 SECTION 20. Upon such petition the court may by a warrant appoint
 2 one or more commissioners who shall, before entering upon their duties,
 3 be sworn to faithfully and impartially execute the warrant, and a certifi-
 4 cate of such oath shall be made on the warrant by the person administer-
 5 ing it. The commissioners shall notify all persons interested, by personal 6 service or by publication as the court orders, to appear at a time and 7 place named and be heard relative to a proposed survey of such flats, 8 and thereafter shall survey the flats of the petitioners and all adjacent 9 flats owned by other parties whose rights may be affected by a deter-10 mination of the lines of the flats of the petitioners, shall determine the 11 boundary lines thereof and report to the court the boundaries established 12 for each owner, with a plan of the several portions of flats showing the 13 lines established for each owner, which, after its approval, shall by order 14 of the court be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county or dis-15 trict where said flats lie. The proceedings upon such petition shall be 16 according to sections two, four, six, seven and eight of chapter two 17 hundred and forty-one, so far as applicable thereto.

 2 been accepted by the court and recorded as aforesaid, it shall forever fix
 3 and determine the rights of all persons and parties, except where definite 4 boundary lines have been established by parties legally authorized to 5 establish them.

 2 be allowed by the court; the other costs shall be taxed in the usual
 3 manner, and the whole shall be apportioned by the court among all 4 parties interested in the determination of the boundary lines in such 5 flats, and shall be paid in proportion to the value of the interests which 6 they respectively hold therein.

 2 section twenty, the court may exercise the powers and duties of such 3 commissioners.

1906, 50, § 2.

Court may determine boundaries instead of appointing commissioners.

1 SECTION 24. Whoever, during the pendency of proceedings for the 2 division of flats, acquires by purchase, devise or descent, or by the en-
 3 forcement of a mortgage or lien, an interest or title in or to any flats which 4 are the subject matter of such proceedings, may by order of the court 5 be made a party to such proceedings, and shall be chargeable with such 6 share of the expenses as the court orders.

Boundaries may be determined concurrently with registration. 1906, 50, § 3.

SECTION 25. A petitioner for registration may in his petition request the court to proceed under sections nineteen to twenty-four, inclusive, concurrently with the registration proceedings, and the court may comply with the request, if such compliance seems conducive to justice and the rights of all parties.

Rights of commonwealth. 1864, 306, § 4. 1871, 338, § 6. P. S. 177, § 7.

SECTION 26. Proceedings under sections nineteen to twenty-five, inclusive, shall not affect any right or title of the commonwealth to any land or flats, unless it consents to become a party thereto.

DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS RELATING TO POWER TO CONVEY OR MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE UNDER WRITTEN INSTRUMENTS.

Fiduciary, etc., may petition land court to establish power or authority. 1906, 344, § 1.

SECTION 27. Any person having, in a representative or fiduciary capacity or otherwise, a power or authority created by any written instrument to sell, convey, mortgage or otherwise transfer any interest in real estate may file a petition in the land court setting forth the act or acts which he proposes to do by virtue of such power or authority, and praying that his power or authority under such written instrument to do such act or acts may be established.

Court may determine question, etc. 1906, 344, § 2.

SECTION 28. Upon such petition, after such notice as the court may direct, it may determine the existence and extent of the power or authority of the petitioner to do such act or acts, including the existence of the necessity for its exercise and also any other fact or circumstance required for the exercise of such power or authority.

PROCEDURE.

Procedure under this chapter. 1904, 448, §§ 1-8.

SECTION 29. Except as otherwise provided, procedure in the land court under this chapter shall be that provided by sections fifteen to twenty-five, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and eighty-five.

CHAPTER 241.

PARTITION OF LAND.

- SECT.
1. Who may have partition.
 2. Probate courts to have exclusive jurisdiction.
 3. Case in two or more counties to remain within jurisdiction of court where proceedings were begun.
 4. Partition may be made of all or part of land.
 5. Division into shares.
 6. Form of petition.
 7. Notice to be filed in the registry of deeds.
 8. Notice to be given by citation, etc.
 9. Absent, incompetent and undetermined parties.
 10. Interlocutory decree.
 11. Dispute as to ownership of share.
 12. Commissioners, duties, etc.
 13. If land lies in different counties.
 14. Partition of land indivisible.
 15. Payment or security if money awarded.
 16. Return may be set aside, amended, etc.
 17. Court may order examination of title, etc.
 18. Effect of partition.
 19. Remedy of stranger claiming a share assigned.

- SECT.
20. Remedy of stranger claiming as co-tenant.
 21. Remedy of stranger holding title paramount, etc.
 22. Costs, how paid.
 23. Compensation for improvements.
 24. Improvements made before new partition.
 25. Equity jurisdiction.
 26. Death of part owner during proceedings.
 27. Party evicted.
 28. Mortgage, etc., of co-tenant.
 29. Improvements made by person evicted.
 30. Trusteeship, etc., not to prevent partition.
 31. Partition by sale.
 32. Commissioners not liable.
 33. Penalty for not disclosing attachment or lien.
 34. Disposal of proceeds unclaimed.
 35. Appointment of trustee.
 36. Division of water rights and other incorporeal hereditaments.
 37. Partition of water of a natural stream, etc.

1 SECTION 1. Any person, except a tenant by the entirety, owning a 2 present undivided legal estate in land, not subject to redemption, shall 3 be entitled to have partition in the manner hereinafter provided. If 4 such estate is in fee, he shall be entitled to partition in fee; if a life estate
 5 or a term for years, he shall be entitled to partition thereof to continue so 6 long as his estate endures. A life tenant or a tenant for years of whose 7 term at least twenty years remain unexpired may, in the discretion of 8 the court, have partition of the fee. The existence of a lease of the whole 9 or a part of the land to be divided shall not prevent partition, but such 10 partition shall not disturb possession of a lessee under a lease covering 11 the interests of all the co-tenants.

Who may have partition.

SECTION 6. The petition shall set forth on oath the nature and 1 extent of the share of each co-tenant, so far as known to the petitioner, 2 stating whether he has an estate of inheritance, for life or for years, 3 whether in possession, remainder or reversion, and whether vested or 4 contingent. It shall contain a description of each parcel of land suffi- 5 ciently specific for identification. If the common title is derived by 6 will or inheritance from a common ancestor, the name of the testator 7 or common ancestor shall be given; if under a deed, reference shall be 8 made thereto. The petition shall be in the alternative, praying for 9 division of the land or for the sale, either public or private, of all or 10 any part thereof which the court may find cannot be advantageously 11 divided. If a private sale is desired, the minimum sum for which the 12 sale may be made shall be stated. Only persons having legal title to 13 an estate for years, for life or in fee, whether in possession, reversion or 14 remainder, shall be necessary or proper parties. Mortgagees, lienors, 15 attaching creditors and other persons having or claiming encumbrances 16 on the land shall not be parties, but shall be named in the petition and 17 given such notice as the court may order, and shall be permitted to 18 intervene so far as may be necessary to protect their interests in the 19 land or to establish their rights in the proceeds of a sale. 20

Notice to be filed in the registry of deeds.
1917, 279, § 7.

SECTION 7. Upon the filing of a petition for partition, the petitioner 1 shall forthwith cause to be filed, in the registry of deeds for each registry 2 district where any of the land included in the petition lies, a notice of the 3

4 same, containing a brief description of the land in such district included
 5 therein, and the names of all persons appearing in the petition as parties.
 6 If the probate proceedings are at any time amended, either by the in-7 clusion of more land or by adding new parties, a further notice thereof
 8 shall be filed forthwith in the registry district where said land lies. No
 9 interlocutory decree for partition or sale shall be made by the court 10 until it appears by affidavit that such notices have been filed. If any 11 part of the land is registered land, the petitioner shall, in filing said 12 notices, comply with section eighty-six of chapter one hundred and 13 eighty-five.

1 SECTION 8. Notice shall be given by a citation containing a brief
 2 description of the land, and the minimum price in case it is desired to 3 sell the land or any part thereof at private sale. The citation shall be 4 addressed to all known respondents by name, and, in addition, in ex-
 5 press terms to all other persons interested. Said notice shall be given 6 to each respondent, whether within or without the commonwealth, 7 whose address is known, by serving the same, either personally or by 8 registered mail, fourteen days at least before the return day; and if 9 any party is not so served, by publishing the notice once in each of 10 three successive weeks in such newspaper as the court shall order, the 11 last publication to be one day at least before the return day, and by 12 mailing a copy thereof to the last known address of such party fourteen 13 days at least before the return day. Proof of service and notice shall 14 be made by affidavit, setting forth the particulars of the service on each 15 respondent, and any other notice given, and if actual notice has been 16 given by registered mail the affidavit shall so state. The court may in 17 its discretion cause further notice to be given.

1 SECTION 9. If any party named in the petition has not been served 2 personally with the citation and has not appeared, or is a minor or 3 under other disability and has no guardian or other legal representative 4 within the commonwealth, or if any person whose name is unknown, or 5 who is unascertained or not in being, appears by the record in the case

1 SECTION 10. If it is found that the petitioner is entitled to have 2 partition for the share claimed or for any less share, the court shall 3 make the interlocutory decree that partition be made, and therein
 4 determine the persons to whom and the proportions in which the shares
 5 shall be set off. The petition shall not be defeated by the payment by a 6 party of a mortgage, lien, tax or other encumbrance upon the land, if 7 the other parties are entitled to redeem from such payment; but the

The land not set off, or the proceeds of the share in dispute or uncertain, may be left for the parties entitled thereto in a further partition or distribution in such manner and upon such proceedings as the court may order. The interlocutory decree shall not preclude the parties sharing in the partition from any share to which they may be entitled in a subsequent partition or distribution.

SECTION 12. If the court determines the petitioner entitled to partition, it shall thereupon appoint one or more disinterested commissioners and issue a warrant to them to make partition. The commissioners, before entering upon their duties, shall be sworn to execute the warrant faithfully and impartially, and a certificate of the oath shall be made on the warrant by the person administering it. They shall give at least seven days' notice of the time and place appointed for making the partition, either personally or by registered mail, to all known persons interested therein, and shall make and sign a report of their doings and return it with their warrant.

SECTION 13. If the land lies in different counties, the court may in its discretion issue separate warrants and appoint different commissioners for each county, or for two or more counties together, in which case the partition shall be made of the land in each county, or group of counties, as if there were no other land to be divided.

SECTION 16. The court may after hearing accept and confirm the return of the commissioners, or set it aside and commit the case anew to the same or to other commissioners having the same powers as those originally appointed; or it may, after a hearing, amend the return, and accept and confirm it as amended. After the return of the commissioners has been accepted and confirmed, the court shall thereupon enter a decree that the partition be firm and effectual forever. If the partition is by division, the commissioners shall record a copy of the decree, certified by the register of probate, in the registry of deeds for each district where any of the land lies, together with so much of the return, as finally confirmed, as relates thereto; or, if any part of the 12 land is registered land, they shall in recording the same comply with 1917, 279,

 244 Mass. 1.

SECTION 23. If the court in which partition proceedings are pending finds that one of the co-tenants has erected any buildings or made other permanent improvements on the common land, it may, if justice and equity so require, award such compensation as it deems proper for the value of such buildings or other improvements, not exceeding, however, the actual amount by which the market value of the common land has been increased thereby; and in awarding such compensation the court may deduct any benefit which the party claiming compensation has received from the common land. The court may make orders and decrees for the enforcement or protection of any such claim, and in case of partition by division may order the improved part set off to the party who made the improvement, and the land divided as if the improvement had not been made.

1 SECTION 25. The probate court in which a petition has been brought 2 under this chapter shall have jurisdiction in equity over all matters relat-
 3 ing to the partition, and, in case of sale, over the distribution of the 4 proceeds thereof; also to hear and determine all matters of accounting 5 between the parties to the petition in reference to the common land, and 6 to appoint one or more receivers to take possession of the common land 7 or any part thereof, and collect the rents and profits therefrom. Such 8 jurisdiction may be exercised upon petition according to the usual course 9 of proceedings in the probate court. Such receiver shall give bond in such 10 amount and with such sureties as the court shall order, and shall dis-11 tribute the rents among the co-tenants, or otherwise hold or dispose of 12 the same in such manner as the court shall determine by its decree.

1 SECTION 26. If a party named in the petition has died prior to the 2 filing thereof, or dies during its pendency, and such fact did not appear
 3 during the proceedings, his heir or devisee shall be entitled to the share 4 of land set off to him or his share of the proceeds of a sale. If his death is 5 made known to the court during the proceedings, the share or portion 6 formerly belonging to him may be assigned or set off in his name to be 7 held and disposed of as if the partition had been made prior to his decease, 8 and his heir or devisee may recover the portion assigned to him, or his 9 share of the proceeds, by appropriate action. The court may, however, 10 in any case arising hereunder, if there has been a sale, order his share of 11 the proceeds to be paid to his personal representatives pending settle-12 ment of his estate, or deposited under section thirty-four to await their 13 appointment.

SECTION 31. In partition proceedings the court may order the commissioners to sell and convey the whole or any part of the land which cannot be divided advantageously, upon such terms and conditions and with such securities for the proceeds of the sale as the court may order, and to distribute the proceeds so as to make the partition just and equal. The sale shall be made by public auction, after like notice as is required for the sale of land by an administrator, and the evidence thereof may be perpetuated in like manner by returns filed with the register of the court in which the proceedings are had; or the sale may be a private sale, upon such terms as the court orders, if it finds after notice, as provided in section eight, and a hearing, or after receiving the written assent of all parties in interest, that the interests of all parties will be promoted thereby. If the sale is by auction, section nineteen of chapter two hundred and four shall apply thereto.

Commissioners
1917, 279, § 34.

SECTION 32. If the commissioners, after making a sale in accordance with the preceding section, distribute the proceeds in accordance with the order or decree of the court before learning of any conveyance, mortgage, lien or other encumbrance of or upon the share of any of the joint owners, they shall not be liable to such claimant. If they are in doubt as to the existence or the validity of any such claim against the share of any co-tenant in the proceeds they may ask for instructions by the court.

Penalty for not disclosing attachment or lien.

SECTION 33. Whoever receives any proceeds of a sale of land under this chapter after having sold or mortgaged his interest therein, or with knowledge that it has been attached or liened, without disclosing such fact to the commissioners or the court, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 34. If the proceeds of a sale, or any share thereof, cannot be paid to the persons entitled thereto, the commissioners shall deposit the same in the name of the judge of probate for the county where the proceedings are had, in such savings bank or other like institution as the court orders, to accumulate for the persons entitled thereto. The deposit shall be subject to sections twenty-five to twenty-eight, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and six, so far as applicable.

Appointment
of trustee.
1887, 286.
R. L. 184, § 49.
§§ 37, 40.

SECTION 35. If in any share there are estates in succession, the court making partition may, upon petition of any party interested, appoint a trustee to receive, hold, manage and invest the proceeds of the sale of such share. The annual income of such share shall be paid to the owner of each successive estate for years or for life until it terminates, and the principal, after termination of prior estates, shall be paid to the parties entitled to the fee. The trustee shall, before entering upon the duties of his trust, give to the judge of probate and his successors a bond, with sufficient surety and in such penal sum as the court orders, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and, upon breach of the condition, an action may, by order of the probate court, be brought for the use of the persons interested in the trust property, as upon a bond of an administrator.

1 SECTION 36. Joint tenants or tenants in common of a mill privilege,
 2 water right, or other incorporeal hereditament may be compelled to divide 3 the same in the manner hereinbefore provided for the division of land.
 4 The commissioners appointed to make partition shall set forth in their 5 return the best method of setting off to the several parties their respective 6 shares, and thereupon the court may make such orders and decrees as 7 might be made in equity. If any one of the joint owners so requests, the 8 court shall order a sale, provided that a sale is feasible.

SECTION 2. If an entry for breach of condition is made without a judgment, a memorandum of the entry shall be made on the mortgage deed and signed by the mortgagor or person claiming under him, or a certificate, under oath, of two competent witnesses to prove the entry shall be made. Such memorandum or certificate shall within thirty days

6 after the entry, except as provided in section seventy of chapter one 7 hundred and eighty-five, be recorded in the registry of deeds for the 8 county or district where the land lies, with a note of reference, if the 9 mortgage is recorded in the same registry, from each record to the other.
 10 Unless such record is made, the entry shall not be effectual for the pur-11 poses mentioned in the preceding section.

1 SECTION 3. The mortgagee in an action for possession may declare
 2 on his own seisin, stating that it is in mortgage; and if the court finds upon
 3 verdict or otherwise that the plaintiff is entitled to possession of the land 4 for breach of condition, it shall upon motion of either party, except as 5 provided in the following section, award a conditional judgment.

1 SECTION 4. Unless the defendant is the mortgagor or his assignee, or 2 entitled to hold or claim the land under the mortgagor or his assignee, 3 he shall not redeem the land nor have a conditional judgment, except 4 with the consent of the plaintiff, but the action shall be conducted like 5 a writ of entry, and in all cases the judgment for the plaintiff may be 6 entered for possession as at common law, unless one or the other of the 7 parties moves for the conditional judgment.

 2 shall determine the amount due to the plaintiff on the mortgage, and 3 shall enter judgment that if the defendant within two months after the 4 judgment pays to the plaintiff such amount with interest and the costs,
 5 the mortgage shall be void, and the defendant shall hold the land dis-
 6 charged thereof; otherwise, that the plaintiff shall have execution for pos-7 session and for costs.

1 SECTION 6. If the condition of the mortgage is not for the payment of 2 money, or if a part only of the money, the payment of which is secured
 3 by the mortgage, is due, the court shall vary the terms of the judgment
 4 as the case may require, but shall award execution as before provided 1854, 377, § 1.

G. S. 140, § 38.
P. S. 181, § 14.
R. L. 187, § 11.

SECTION 11. If a conditional judgment has been entered upon a mortgage containing a power of sale, the court shall, instead of issuing a writ of possession, at the request of the plaintiff order the property to be sold pursuant to such power. The plaintiff shall thereupon execute the power and do all things required by it or by the court.

1854, 377, § 2.
G. S. 140, § 40.
P. S. 181, § 15.
R. L. 187, § 12.

SECTION 12. The person selling shall, within ten days after the sale, file in the clerk's office a report on oath of the sale and of his doings, and the court may confirm the sale or set it aside and order a re-sale. Any person interested may appear or be summoned, and the order of the court confirming the sale shall be conclusive evidence against all persons that the power of sale was duly executed.

Necessary parties.
1854, 377, § 3.
G. S. 140, § 41.
P. S. 181, § 16.
R. L. 187, § 13.

SECTION 13. Unless the defendant is seized in fee simple in possession of the whole equity of redemption of the land demanded, an order for a sale shall not be made until all parties interested in the equity of redemption and whose estate or interest therein would be affected by such sale, including a person having a right or possibility of curtesy or dower, have been summoned to appear.

Procedure in foreclosure under power

SECTION 14. The mortgagee or person having his estate in the land mortgaged, or a person authorized by the power of sale, or the attorney

3 duly authorized by a writing under seal, or the legal guardian or con-
 4 servator of such mortgagee or person acting in the name of such mort-
 5 gagee or person, may, upon breach of condition and without action, do 6 all the acts authorized or required by the power; but no sale under 7 such power shall be effectual to foreclose a mortgage, unless, previous 8 to such sale, notice thereof has been published once in each of three 9 successive weeks, the first publication to be not less than twenty-one 10 days before the day of sale, in a newspaper, if any, published in the 11 town where the land lies. If no newspaper is published in such town, 12 notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county where 13 the land lies, and this provision shall be implied in every power of sale 14 mortgage in which it is not expressly set forth. A newspaper which by 15 its title page purports to be printed or published in such town, city or 16 county, and having a circulation therein, shall be sufficient for the purpose.
 17 The following form of foreclosure notice may be used and may be 18 altered as circumstances require; but nothing herein shall be construed

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue and in execution of the Power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage given by.....to.....
 dated.....and recorded with.....
 Deeds, Book....., page....., of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder,.....

(If by assignment, or in any fiduciary capacity, give reference.)

.....
 for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing
 the same will be sold at Public Auction at.....o'clock, M. on the.....day of.....A. D. 19.....
 (place).....all and singular the premises described in said mortgage,

(In case of partial releases, state exceptions.)

To wit: "(Description exactly as in the mortgage, including all references to title, restrictions, encumbrances, etc., as made in the mortgage.)"

Terms of sale: (State here the amount, if any, to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale, and the time or times for payment of the balance or the whole as the case may be.)

Other terms to be announced at the sale.

(Signed).....

Present holder of said mortgage.

20 A notice of sale in the above form, published in accordance with the 21 power in the mortgage and with this chapter, together with such other 22 or further notice, if any, as is required by the mortgage, shall be a suffi-23 cient notice of the sale; and the premises shall be deemed to have 24 been sold, and the deed thereunder shall convey the premises, subject to 25 and with the benefit of all restrictions, easements, improvements, out-
 26 standing tax titles, municipal or other public taxes, assessments, liens 27 or claims in the nature of liens, and existing encumbrances of record created prior to the mortgage, whether or not reference to such restric- 28 tions, easements, improvements, liens or encumbrances is made in the 29 deed; but no purchaser at the sale shall be bound to complete the pur- 30 chase if there are encumbrances, other than those named in the mort- 31 gage and included in the notice of sale, which are not stated at the sale 32 and included in the auctioneer's contract with the purchaser. 33

SECTION 15. The person selling, or the attorney duly authorized by 1 a writing under seal, or the legal guardian or conservator of such person, 2 shall, within thirty days after the sale, cause a copy of the notice and 3 his affidavit, fully and particularly stating his acts, or the acts of his 4 principal or ward, to be recorded in the registry of deeds for the county 5 or district where the land lies, with a note of reference thereto on the 6 margin of the record of the mortgage deed, if it is recorded in the same 7 registry. If the affidavit shows that the requirements of the power of 8 sale and of the statute have in all respects been complied with, the affi- 9 davit or a certified copy of the record thereof, shall be admitted as 10 evidence that the power of sale was duly executed. 11

 R. L. 189, § 3.

SECTION 3. If, in an action, suit or proceeding commenced in the 1 supreme judicial or superior court by trustee process, the court finds 2 that the trustee was made a party in order to give the court jurisdic- 3 tion of the cause in the county where the trustee dwells or has a usual 4 place of business, and that neither the plaintiff nor the principal de- 5 fendant dwells or has a usual place of business therein, it may, upon 6 motion of the defendant at any time before trial, order the cause and all 7 papers relating thereto transferred to a county where some one of the 8 principal parties dwells or has a usual place of business, upon terms. 9
 The cause shall thereupon be entered and prosecuted in the same court 10 for that county as if originally returnable therein, and all prior pro- 11
 ceedings otherwise regularly taken shall thereafter be valid. 12

SECTION 4. No person shall be held to answer as a trustee in an 1 action in a district court, except as provided in section fifty-four of 2 chapter two hundred and eighteen, in any county other than that where 3 he dwells or has a usual place of business; and if a person summoned as 4 trustee in such court is out of the county at the time of the service of 5 the original writ upon him, and does not return before final judgment 6 in the action, he shall not be chargeable as trustee. 7

SECTION 4A. Whenever an action is commenced by trustee process in 1 a district court in the district in which the party named in the writ as 2 trustee lives or has his usual place of business, which could not be brought 3 in that district except because of the residence or place of business of the 4 trustee, the court may on motion of any party thereto transfer such 5 action for trial and final disposition to any other district court in which 6 the action might have been commenced had there been no trustee named 7 in the writ. 8

SECTION 5. Trustee writs shall be served by copy on each trustee and 1 on the defendant. In other respects service upon trustees and defend- 2 ants shall be in the manner provided by chapter two hundred and 3 twenty-three. Goods and estate of the defendant in his own hands and 4 possession may be attached upon a trustee writ in the manner provided 5

6 in said chapter, and the writ shall be further served upon each of the 7 trustees and upon the defendant.

2 ness in the commonwealth is summoned as trustee in an action against 3 one of its employees, service of the writ may be made as provided in sec-4 tion thirty-eight or thirty-nine of chapter two hundred and twenty-three,
5 or upon any paymaster or other officer or agent of the corporation whose 6 duty it is to pay such employee, and such service shall be as binding
7 upon the corporation as if it had been made upon the commissioner of cor-
8 porations and taxation or the commissioner of insurance.

1 SECTION 40. If the goods, effects and credits in the hands of a per-
2 son adjudged a trustee are not demanded of him by force of the execution
3 within thirty days after final judgment, they shall be liable to another
4 attachment, whether made before or after the judgment; or if there 5 has been no such second attachment, they may be recovered by the 6 defendant.

Further attachment of goods, when

1 SECTION 41. If no such second attachment of the goods, effects and 2 credits has been made, and no action has been brought therefor by the 3 defendant, and if they have not been paid or delivered to the defendant 4 before they are demanded of the trustee by the officer, the trustee shall 5 be liable to pay and deliver the same, when so demanded, although said 6 thirty days have expired.

DISSOLUTION OF ATTACHMENT BY TRUSTEE PROCESS.

1 SECTION 66. A person having an interest by assignment or other-
 2 wise in money or credits attached by the trustee process in an action 3 against another may, at any time before final judgment, dissolve such 4 attachment or a part thereof by giving bond, in a sum not exceeding the 5 damages demanded, with sufficient sureties to be approved in writing by 6 the plaintiff or his attorney, by a master in chancery or by a justice of 7 a court, if the attachment is made within the jurisdiction thereof, con-
 8 ditioned to pay to the plaintiff, within thirty days after final judgment
 9 or after a special judgment entered under section twenty-five of chapter 10 two hundred and thirty-five, the amount for which the trustee may 11 be charged, not exceeding the value of the property in his hands, or so 12 much thereof as will satisfy the amount which may be recovered by the 13 plaintiff. If there are several trustees, such bonds may be made to apply 14 to one or more. The provisions of sections one hundred and twenty-15 five and one hundred and twenty-six of chapter two hundred and twenty-16 three, relative to notice, hearing, fees and the filing of the bond, shall 17 apply to bonds given under this section.

 2 the person by whom or in whose behalf as principal the bond was given 3 the money or other thing in his hands, or that part thereof to which the 4 bond applies, and shall not after such delivery be liable to the plaintiff
 5 therefor, nor shall any execution therefor issue against him. No action on 6 such bond shall be commenced after the expiration of six years from the 7 date thereof.

COSTS.

1 SECTION 68. A person summoned as a trustee in the supreme judicial 2 or superior court, who appears and answers pursuant to this chapter, 3 shall be allowed his costs for travel and term fees, and such further 4 amount for counsel fees and other necessary expenses as the court may 5 allow; if summoned in a district court, he shall be allowed the costs
 6 fixed by section twenty-seven of chapter two hundred and sixty-one. If

SECTION 15. If such sureties are to be approved by a justice of a district court or by a master in chancery, the officer who serves the writ shall give written notice to the defendant or to the person from whose custody the property has been taken, stating the time and place of hearing thereon and the names and residences of the proposed sureties, allowing not less than one hour before the time appointed for the hearing and at the rate of one hour additional for each mile of travel.

1 SECTION 16. The fee of the master for the hearing and decision shall 2 be as prescribed in section twenty-three of chapter two hundred and 3 sixty-two; and, if the bond is approved, such fee shall be taxed in the 4 plaintiff's costs, if he prevails in the action.

1 SECTION 17. An action of replevin shall not be dismissed by reason
 2 of a defect in the form or substance of the bond taken therein, if the 3 court is satisfied that such bond was intended in good faith as a com-4 pliance with the law requiring a bond to be taken before service of the 5 writ and if the plaintiff, within such time and upon such terms as the 6 court orders, files a new bond such as is required by law, approved by 7 the court or in the manner provided in section fourteen.

 2 upon a judgment for a return, be held liable to the attachment until 3 final judgment in the action in which they were attached, and for thirty 4 days thereafter, so that they may be taken on execution. If such final 5 judgment is rendered before the return of the goods, or if the goods when 6 replevied were seized and held on execution, they shall be held subject 7 to the same attachment or seizure for thirty days after the return, in 8 order that the execution may be served thereon, or the service thereof 9 completed, in like manner as it might have been if the goods had not

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

(SEAL.) To the sheriffs of our several counties and to their respective deputies,

Greeting.

We command you that the body of _____,
 by _____, of _____,
 imprisoned and restrained of his liberty, as it is said, you take and have before a justice of our supreme judicial court at _____ immediately after the receipt of this writ, to do and receive what our said justice shall then and there consider concerning him in this behalf; and summon said _____ then and there to appear before our said justice to show the cause of the taking and detaining of said _____; and have you there this writ with your doings thereon.

Witness _____ at _____ this day of _____ in the year _____.

1 SECTION 6. If the writ is issued by the court when sitting for the 2 transaction of business, it shall be signed by the clerk, otherwise by the 3 magistrate issuing it, and may be served in any county by any sheriff or 4 deputy sheriff.

1 SECTION 18. Until judgment is given, the court or justice may remand 2 the prisoner, bail him to appear from day to day, commit him to the 3 sheriff of the county, or place him under such other care and custody as 4 the circumstances of the case require.

Custody of prisoner pending examination

G. S. 144, § 24. P. S. 185, § 21. R. L. 191, § 18. 107 Mass. 172.

1 SECTION 19. If the prisoner is detained for a cause or crime for 2 which he is bailable, he shall be admitted to bail if sufficient bail is offered;
3 and if not, he shall be remanded with an order of the court or justice
4 expressing the amount in which he shall be held to bail and the court
5 at which he shall be required to appear; and any magistrate authorized 6 to admit to bail may, at any time before the sitting of said court, bail 7 the prisoner pursuant to such order.

 2 writ of habeas corpus out of the custody of the United States marshal, or 3 his deputy, who holds him by legal and sufficient process issued by any 4 court or magistrate of competent jurisdiction; but this section shall not 5 affect the authority of the supreme judicial court or of its justices, in 6 accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the United States
 7 and of the commonwealth, to investigate and determine the validity and 8 legal effect of any process which may be relied on to defeat the writ, or 9 any other matter properly arising.

PERSONAL LIBERTY.

1 SECTION 35. No person shall be deprived of his liberty or held in 2 custody by any person or in any place against his will or, if he is a minor, 3 against the will of his parents, guardian or other person entitled to his 4 custody, except by due process of law; but this section shall not apply
 5 to persons who have been legally convicted of crime and are serving 6 sentence therefor.

1 SECTION 36. Whoever has reason to believe that another person is 2 deprived of his liberty or held in custody in violation of the preceding 3 section may file a petition, on the oath of the petitioner, in the pro-
 4 bate court for the county where such person is believed to be detained,
 5 stating his name, age and general description, where, when and under 6 what circumstances he was deprived of his liberty, where he is believed 7 to be detained, the name of the person so depriving him of his liberty,
 8 if known, the name of his supposed custodian and any other material 9 facts and circumstances.

Proceedings to obtain personal liberty.
 1894, 536, § 2.

1 SECTION 37. Upon the filing of such petition, the court shall cause
 2 notice to be served upon all the supposed custodians or persons alleged 3 to be detaining or holding in custody said person, as stated in said petition,
 4 or as otherwise known, ordering them to appear before said court at a 5 time and place named therein, to be examined as said court shall order;
 6 and may cause said person to be brought before it for examination as 7 to his desire to be released and as to any other relevant matters.

Notice to custodians, etc.

Probate court may request the district attorney to conduct examination, etc. 1894, 536, § 5. R. L. 191, § 52.

SECTION 39. The probate court may request the district attorney for the district where it is held to attend the examination under the preceding section, and to conduct or assist in conducting the examination. If the court is unable to obtain satisfactory information, or to satisfactorily determine the questions involved or to furnish proper relief, it shall notify the district attorney, who may institute proceedings under sections one to thirty-four, inclusive, or such other proceedings as the case may require. The provisions of said sections shall apply to all proceedings under the four preceding sections so far as appropriate.

Payment of expenses regulated. 1894, 536, § 6. R. L. 191, § 53.

SECTION 40. The fees for the service of process and notices and for summoning witnesses shall, upon the approval of the court or district attorney, be paid by the county where such person is detained, if the petitioner is not able to pay them.

AUDITA QUERELA.

Writ of audita querela. 1780, 47, §§ 1, 3, 10, 11. R. S. 112, §§ 1-4, 6. G. S. 115, §§ 1-4. P. S. 186, §§ 1-3, 6. R. L. 192, § 1. 10 Mass. 101. 17 Mass. 153. 5 Met. 228.

SECTION 1. The writ of audita querela for the purpose of preventing, setting aside or annulling any proceedings upon a judgment or execution shall be sued out of and be returnable to the court in which the judgment was rendered. It shall be sued out and served like an original writ, the forms of process shall be the same as those heretofore established and used in the commonwealth, the proceedings so far as appropriate shall be the same as in personal actions and the court, after the writ has been sued out, may issue an injunction.

SECTION 2. If the plaintiff prevails upon a writ sued out to set aside or annul proceedings upon an execution, he shall recover the damages sustained by said proceedings, and the judgment upon the audita querela shall be a bar to any other action thereafter brought for the same damages.

1 SECTION 3. If the plaintiff is imprisoned on the execution or other
 2 process complained of, the court may release him upon his giving bond
 3 to the defendant in such sum as the court orders, with two or more
 4 sureties approved by the court, conditioned that if final judgment upon 5 the audita querela is rendered for the defendant, he will, within thirty 6 days thereafter, surrender himself to the jailer or other officer by whom 7 he was imprisoned to be detained in custody under the former execution
 8 or process or shall within that time pay the amount due on the former 9 execution or process, with the costs. If the plaintiff so surrenders him-10 self, he shall be in custody under the execution or other process on which 11 he was imprisoned as if the writ had not been sued out.

 3 may be presented to a justice of the supreme judicial court, and he may,
 4 after notice, hear and determine the same. The writ shall not be issued 5 unless the petition therefor is presented within six years next after the 6 proceedings complained of. It may be issued from the clerk's office in 7 any county and shall be returnable as the court orders. The court at 8 any time after the petition is presented may impose costs upon any 9 party, may issue an injunction and may order the proceedings brought 10 up; and, after they are brought up, may quash or affirm them, or may 4 person required to appear shall file an answer showing cause why the 5 writ should not issue, and the petitioner may traverse any material

 6 facts alleged in the answer or may demur thereto. The court may re-
 7 quire a third person who has or claims a right or interest in the subject 8 matter to appear and answer and to stand as the real party. If the 9 petitioner prevails, his damages shall be assessed and judgment shall be 10 rendered therefor, with costs, and for a peremptory writ of mandamus;
 11 otherwise, the party answering shall recover costs of the petitioner. No
 12 action shall be maintained for a false answer. All writs and processes

SECTION 10. Writs of error in such cases may be brought at any time after judgment and may be entered in any county. After the writ has been returned, the court shall examine the case without delay, but may adjourn the examination from time to time.

271 Mass. 21.

Writ of error
in capital case.
§§ 16-18.

SECTION 11. A writ of error upon a judgment for a capital crime, murder in the second degree or manslaughter, or any other felony made

3 subject to sections thirty-three A to thirty-three G, inclusive, of chapter
 4 two hundred and seventy-eight as provided in section thirty-one of said
 5 chapter, shall not issue, unless allowed by a justice of the supreme 6 judicial court after notice to the attorney general or other attorney for the 7 commonwealth; but a writ of error upon a judgment in any other criminal 8 case shall issue as of course, but it shall not stay or delay the execution of 9 the judgment or sentence, unless by an express order of a justice of the 10 supreme judicial court, who may make a further order for the custody of 11 the plaintiff in error or for releasing him on bail.

 271 Mass. 21.

1 SECTION 12. If a final judgment is reversed by reason of error in the 2 sentence, such judgment shall be rendered in the case as the court below
 3 should have rendered, or it may be remanded for that purpose to said 4 court. If the plaintiff in error is discharged, the costs shall be paid by 5 the county where he was convicted.

VACATING JUDGMENT.

1 SECTION 14. If final judgment has been rendered in a civil action,
 2 the court in which it was entered may, within three months thereafter,
 3 if the execution has not been satisfied in whole or in part, vacate it, upon 4 the motion in writing of the prevailing party, and dispose of the case as 5 if it had not been entered. Such motion shall be filed in the case and,
 6 except by special order of the court, no bond shall be required.

SECTION 2. One employee of the department of public health designated by it, one employee of the department of agriculture designated by it and a third member designated by the heads of said departments acting jointly and with the approval of the governor and council shall constitute the state reclamation board, in the fourteen following sections called the board. The designation of any member of said board may be revoked at any time, and in such case or in case of the resignation or disability of any member his successor shall be designated in the same manner as in the original designation. The board shall serve in the department of agriculture, and the members thereof shall receive no additional compensation for service on said board, but shall be entitled to their reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

SECTION 4. In carrying out the provisions of sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, the board may employ necessary engineers, assistants or other agents, who may enter on land which the board desires to survey or examine. The board shall also be allowed other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of its duties.

Authorizing the commonwealth, towns, etc., to institute proceedings under §§ 1-14C. Petition, etc. 1929, 288, § 2.

SECTION 4A. The commonwealth, acting through one or more state departments, or through the metropolitan district commission in respect to the metropolitan parks or water district or either metropolitan sewerage district, and any city, town or district, or any combination thereof, to the extent of their ownership of any area described in section one, may be parties, in their proprietary capacity, to proceedings under sections one to fourteen C, inclusive, in respect to any purpose set forth in said section one, to the same extent as individual proprietors. Said bodies politic, or any combination thereof, may also institute proceedings under said sections in their governmental capacity, in any case where it appears that the public health, safety or convenience will be promoted by improvements to effect any of said purposes, but in such proceedings no district shall be organized, and the improvements shall be constructed and maintained as provided in section five A. The petition in such a proceeding need cover only matters pertinent to the project therein set forth, and the provisions of section five requiring that the petitioners constitute a majority ownership of the lands affected shall not apply to such petition. Individuals and corporations qualifying as proprietors may join in any petition authorized in this section. Action by any such body politic hereunder shall be taken by the administrative head of the state department or commission, or by the mayor, selectmen, or prudential committee or other governing body, as the case may be. Notice of the hearing before said board on such a petition shall be given as provided in the first paragraph of section five to all petitioners and to the administrative heads of such state departments and commissions, mayors of such cities, selectmen of such towns, and the prudential committees or other governing bodies of such districts, as the said board may determine, and to all other known proprietors of lands to be affected by such improvements. Cities, towns and districts are hereby authorized to raise and appropriate money for such purposes.

SECTION 5. The proprietors of any area described in section one or a majority in interest either in value or area may petition the board setting forth their desire to improve such area, the necessity or desirability of such improvements, the objects to be accomplished, a general description of the lands proposed to be affected and the names of known owners of said lands. Upon receipt of said petition and of a sum sufficient to meet its expenses therefor, the board shall proceed to make such investigations and such surveys of said lands as may be necessary to determine the approximate area and boundaries thereof, the need of the proposed improvements, the probable benefit, if any, to the public health, the agricultural or other uses to which the lands can be put and their probable

12 value for such uses after the improvements are completed, and in general 13 the practicability and advisability of undertaking the proposed improve-14 ments. Any unexpended balance of the amount so received shall be reim-15 bursed to the contributors in proportion to their contributions. If such 16 improvements appear to the board to be advisable and practicable, the 17 board shall give notice of the petition therefor by publication in a news-18 paper published in the county where the greater part of the land lies and 19 by registered mail to each known proprietor, stating the date of a hearing 20 to be held by the board not less than seven days after the publication of 21 said notice and the date of mailing notices to the proprietors. After the 22 hearing, if the board approves the proposed improvements, it shall de-23 termine whether or not the organization of a reclamation district is neces-24 sary to construct and maintain said improvements.

25 If the board decides that a district should be organized, it shall issue a 26 certificate appointing three, five or seven district commissioners, who shall 27 be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall authorize 28 said commissioners to form a reclamation district under the following 29 section. The board shall fix the compensation of said commissioners, 30 which shall not exceed five dollars for each day of actual service, and shall 31 allow them their necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance 32 of their duties. Such compensation and expenses shall be paid by the 33 district and the district shall reimburse the contributors to the expenses 34 of the board the amounts of their several contributions less any unex-
 35 pended balances returned to them as hereinbefore provided, and said 36 expenditures shall be a part of the total expense of the improvements.
 37 Any commissioner may be removed by the board for cause and the board
 38 may fill vacancies. The certificate of appointment of said commissioners 39 shall be revoked by the board when the objects for which they were 40 appointed have been accomplished. For the purpose of this and the 41 eleven following sections, a mortgagor or mortgagee in possession shall be 42 deemed a proprietor.

1 SECTION 5A. If the board determines that the proposed improve-
 2 ments should be undertaken and that their construction and maintenance 3 may be effected without the formation of a district, and in every such 4 case where the board is petitioned by a body politic in its governmental 5 capacity under section four A, it shall notify all persons and bodies politic
 6 to be benefited thereby of the estimated expense of constructing the pro-7 posed improvements, including land damages, if any, and of the main-8 tenance thereof. Upon receipt of sums of money sufficient to cover such 9 estimated construction expense, or of any money which can be used for 10 such purposes to the advantage of the contributors, the board shall desig-
 11 nate an identifying name under which said improvements shall be made 12 and shall deposit the money so received with the state treasurer, who shall 13 hold such money in a special fund or funds for such purpose, and shall 14 disburse the same on warrants drawn by the board. The board shall 15 thereupon issue a certificate appointing one or more commissioners, who 16 shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall author-17 ize said commissioners to proceed to make the improvements, which may 18 be made at such places, either within or without the commonwealth, as 19 may be necessary or convenient to make the improvements effective;
 20 and said commissioners shall thereupon proceed so to do. The board 21 shall fix the compensation of said commissioners and shall allow them

formance of their duties. Such compensation and expenses shall constitute a part of the expense of making and maintaining such improvements. Any commissioner may be removed by the board for cause and the board may fill vacancies. The board may discharge the commissioners when the improvements are completed and may appoint others to care for maintenance. Any excess funds received under authority of this section shall be returned to the contributors thereof in proportion to the contributions. If the sums so estimated are not sufficient to complete such improvements, the board shall determine the amount of the estimated additional cost thereof and shall notify the original contributors of their shares of such additional cost. The board shall instruct the commissioners not to continue with such improvements until such additional funds are received by the board, and such commissioners, after receipt of such instructions, shall incur no further expense in connection with such improvements until authorized so to do by the board. If one or more, but less than all, of several petitioners provide their respective proportions of the fund estimated as necessary to make such improvements, the board may appoint commissioners to make such portion of such improvements as, in its opinion, will benefit the contributors. For the purpose of effecting such improvements and providing for their maintenance as provided in this section, the board shall have all the powers conferred by sections two, three, four, five, except the last paragraph thereof, and eight, and the commissioners by it appointed shall have all the powers conferred upon district commissioners under sections twelve and thirteen, provided that in taking by eminent domain or acquiring by purchase, gift or otherwise, land or other property or any interest therein, the commissioners so appointed shall take or acquire the same in the name and on behalf of the city or town wherein the land or other property or interests are situated, but not until such city or town has duly authorized such taking, has assumed all liability for damages therefor and has complied with all provisions of law applicable to land takings by cities or towns. All amounts for which a city or town may be liable hereunder, together with interest and costs, may be contributed by persons or bodies politic benefited by such improvements in proportion to their respective benefits or otherwise.

Determination of mosquito breeding areas as public nuisances by local boards of health. Abatement. 1931, 181.

SECTION 5B. The board of health of a city or town, not then included in an area designated by an identifying name for the purposes of section five A, or the commissioners appointed to make improvements on behalf of a mosquito control project under such a name as provided in said section, may determine any mosquito breeding area within the limits of such city or town or of such a project, to be a public nuisance, and the board of health or the commissioners, as the case may be, may abate such nuisance, in such manner as may be approved by the board, and may maintain such works as may be necessary to prevent its recurrence. Before proceeding with such abatement, the board of health or the said commissioners shall notify the owners of such breeding area of the intended abatement, by publication in a newspaper published in the town wherein such area is situated, and shall appoint in the notice a time and place for hearing, and shall at such time and place hear all interested parties. In case an owner of any such area whereon it is proposed to undertake such an abatement objects thereto, he may appeal, not later than fourteen days after the date of said hearing, to the county commis- 17

18 sioners, who shall, not later than fourteen days after receipt of notice of 19 such appeal, hear the party or parties aggrieved, the board of health or the 20 said commissioners, and the board or its agent. If the county commis-21 sioners shall, within two weeks thereafter, determine that the proposed 22 abatement is required for the promotion of the public health, safety or 23 convenience, the abatement may proceed, but not otherwise. A person 24 damaged in his property by any work undertaken under this section may 25 recover his damages in the manner provided in chapter seventy-nine from 26 the city or town whose board of health undertakes such work, or from 27 the county or counties wherein any city or town included in the mosquito 28 control project is situated, in case such work is undertaken by the com-
 29 missioners under section five A; provided, that the petition to recover
 30 said damages shall be filed within thirty days after the right to the same 31 has vested. All damages paid as aforesaid by the county commissioners 32 shall be assessed upon the cities and towns included in the project on the 33 basis of their taxable valuations as an addition to their respective quotas 34 of the county tax.

1 SECTION 6. The district commissioners, in this and the ten following
 2 sections called the commissioners, after being sworn, shall call a meeting
 3 of the proprietors of the lands to be improved, by giving in such manner 4 as the board may order, a notice to each known proprietor, signed by the 5 commissioners and setting forth the time and place of a meeting for the 6 purpose of organizing a reclamation district to carry out the proposed 7 improvements and maintain the same after they are completed. The 8 notice shall be in the form of a warrant specifying the matters upon which 9 action is to be taken at the meeting. The chairman of the commissioners 10 or another commissioner designated by him shall call the meeting to 11 order and shall determine whether or not proprietors constituting a 12 majority in interest, in either value or area, are present or represented
 13 by proxies duly executed and placed in the hands of other proprietors 14 prior to said meeting. Lacking such a majority, the meeting shall have 15 no power to act, but the commissioners may, in the manner above pro-16 vided, call additional meetings for the same purpose. The meeting shall 17 elect a temporary clerk, who shall be sworn, and a moderator. The 18 moderator shall submit to the proprietors present the question of accept-19 ing sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and of organizing a reclamation 20 district, and if a majority of those present in person or by proxy and 21 voting on the question, vote to accept and to organize such district the 22 provisions of said sections shall take full effect. The vote shall be re-
 23 corded and a copy thereof shall be filed with the board. The meeting 24 may then proceed to act upon the other articles, if any, contained in the 25 warrant. Such district shall at the same meeting elect by ballot a district
 26 clerk and a district treasurer, who may be the same person, to hold office
 27 until one year from the next succeeding annual meeting and at each 28 annual meeting after the first a clerk and treasurer shall be elected by 29 ballot for one year. There shall also be elected by ballot a prudential 30 committee of three members who shall hold office, one for three years, 31 one for two years, and one for one year, from the next succeeding annual 32 meeting. At each annual meeting after the first a member of said com-
 33 mittee shall be elected by ballot for three years. The aforesaid officers 34 of the district shall hold office until their successors are elected and quali-35 fied. The district may also, at the first or any subsequent meeting, borrow for preliminary or current expenses such sums as may be necessary and may issue therefor notes payable in not more than two years from their dates. Notes issued under this provision shall be subject to the provisions of chapter forty-four and to the other requirements for district notes imposed by section ten. The proceeds of such notes shall be held by the treasurer of the district, and payments therefrom shall be made only on vouchers duly approved by a majority of the prudential committee.

Subsequent meetings of the district shall be called by the clerk at the request of the commissioners or any two or more proprietors, or, in case the clerk neglects or refuses to call a meeting when so requested such meeting may upon application by said commissioners or two or more proprietors be called upon a warrant from a justice of the peace directed to one of the applicants and requiring him to give notice of said meeting as hereinafter provided. Notices of meetings shall be given by posting copies of the warrant in two or more public places within the district or by mailing copies of said warrant to each known proprietor at least seven days before the time set for the meeting. At each meeting a moderator shall be chosen who shall have the powers of the moderator of a town meeting so far as may be necessary. The clerk shall preside at each meeting after the first until a moderator is chosen.

The officers of the district shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties. Any vacancy occurring in the office of clerk, treasurer, or member of the prudential committee may be filled by the district for the remainder of the unexpired term at any legal meeting called for the purpose, or in case of a vacancy in the office of clerk or treasurer or disability affecting either of said officers the prudential committee may appoint a person to fill said vacancy until an election can be held or the disability is removed. Such temporary appointee shall be sworn and shall perform the duties of the office to which he is appointed during his tenure thereof.

The prudential committee shall have charge of expenditures on account of the district for maintenance of the improvements made under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and shall exercise the authority conferred upon the district by law except as otherwise expressly provided, and subject to the by-laws of the district and such instructions, rules and regulations as the district may impose by its vote.

The treasurer shall give bond for the faithful performance of his official duties in a sum and with sureties approved by the prudential committee. He shall receive all money belonging to the district except as otherwise specified in this and the ten following sections and shall make payments and account for the same in accordance with the requirements of sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, and of chapter forty-four so far as applicable, under direction of the district or of the prudential committee. A temporary treasurer appointed to fill a vacancy, as above provided, shall give bond in the same manner as the treasurer.

A district organized under the provisions of this section may adopt by-laws consistent with the laws applicable to such district and subject to the approval of the board. Such by-laws may provide for proxy voting by the members at any or all meetings of the district. The district shall have such rights and powers as may be necessary and proper for operating and maintaining the improvements made by the commissioners, and for making, operating and maintaining such further improvements as may be authorized under section fourteen A. The members of the district shall be the proprietors from time to time of lands lying within its limits.

90 No such district shall dissolve without specific authorization by the 91 general court, which shall not be given until provision has been made for 92 payment of the obligations of said district.

1 SECTION 7. As soon as the district shall have been organized under 2 the provisions of the preceding section the commissioners shall, under 3 direction of the board, cause the necessary surveys and investigations to 4 be made and shall prepare a plan showing in detail the boundaries of the 5 district and the improvements to be effected. On the basis of such 6 surveys and investigations the commissioners shall prepare an esti-7 mate of the total expense of the proposed improvements and shall 8 determine the percentage of such expense to be paid by each pro-9 prior, based on the estimated special benefit to his land in excess of 10 the damage thereto by the use thereof for the proposed improvements.
 11 If such damage to the land of any proprietor exceeds the special benefit 12 thereto they shall award him damages for such excess. They shall report 13 their plan, estimate and determination to the board, which shall approve, 14 disapprove or modify such plan and estimate. The commissioners shall 15 also notify each proprietor of such determination by delivering a copy 16 thereof at his residence or by sending the same by registered mail to his 17 last known address and shall certify to the board the date on which such 18 notice is given. If any proprietor is aggrieved by the determination of 19 the commissioners he may, within fifteen days after notice thereof, file 20 with the board his objections thereto and if no such objections are filed by 21 any proprietor within the fifteen days above specified then the determina-22 tion of the commissioners shall be final. The board shall, within thirty 23 days after receiving notice of objections by any proprietor against the 24 determination, notify all the proprietors that such objections have been 25 received and shall hold a hearing thereon, but such hearing shall not be 26 held within seven days after notice is given to all the proprietors that 27 objections have been filed. If objections are made by more than one 28 proprietor all such objections shall be considered in one hearing. After 29 such hearing the board may confirm or modify the determination and shall 30 notify the proprietors of its decision. If any proprietor is dissatisfied 31 with the action of the board he may petition the superior court in the 32 county in which the greater part of the land included within the district
 33 is situated, making all the proprietors who have not joined in his petition
 34 parties respondent and praying for a revision of such decision, provided 35 that such petition shall be entered not later than thirty days after notice
 36 of the decision. The court sitting without jury shall hear the petition 37 and shall confirm or alter the percentages previously determined to be 38 payable by any or all said proprietors, as justice may require. Such 39 petition shall not operate to suspend or delay other proceedings by the 40 board or commissioners on the land to be improved. The expenses in-41 curred under this section shall constitute a part of the total expense of the 42 improvements and shall be paid by the district in the same manner as the 43 remainder of such expense.

44 As soon as the percentages payable as aforesaid by said proprietors in 45 the case of original and of further improvements have been finally deter-46 mined in accordance with this section the board shall on behalf of the 47 reclamation district cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds of every 48 county or district in which the benefited area is situated a description 49 sufficiently accurate for identification of such area, a copy of a plan to 50 which reference shall be made and also an estimate of the total amount to

SECTION 9. As soon as possible after the recording of the description, plan and estimate as provided in section seven, the commissioners shall request the clerk to call a meeting of the district for the purpose of deciding upon a method of financing such improvements in accordance with this or the following section; provided, that the commissioners may in their discretion insert an article covering this question in the warrant for the meeting called to organize the district and the district at said meeting or any adjournment thereof may decide upon a method of financing. Any action under this chapter which involves expenditure by the district shall require a vote of proprietors representing a majority in interest both in acreage and value of the area included in the district. The commissioners shall, if the district so votes, petition the county commissioners of the county where the greater part of the land lies, annexing a certified copy of the petition under section five and of the determination of the board thereon, and a statement of the estimated expense of the proposed improvements and shall request the county commissioners to vote to pay in the first instance the total expense involved in making the improvements approved by the board, and the said county commissioners may so vote. To defray any expense incurred by said county commissioners under such vote, the county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue bonds or notes of the county to an amount not exceeding such expense, payable in such period, not exceeding twenty-five years from their dates of issue, as the county commissioners may determine. Such bonds or notes shall be signed by the county treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell the said securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. The first payment on account of the principal may, if the county commissioners so decide, be deferred for not more than five years after the date of issue of the bonds or notes, but such bonds or notes shall be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-five except as otherwise provided herein. Payments on account of principal and interest shall be made by the county and repaid to the county by the district.

Methods of financing.
1923, 457, § 1.
1926, 393, § 8.

SECTION 10. The district may vote to adopt any of the three methods of financing hereinafter specified. (1) If all the members of the district agree, the district may raise by assessments upon the proprietors or by voluntary contributions and deposit with the state treasurer the total sum required to meet the estimated expense of the improvements. Such deposits shall be held by the state treasurer to the credit of the district,

7 and payments shall be made therefrom as provided in section fourteen.
 8 (2) The district may pay the whole expense of the improvements from 9 time to time as the work is performed and for this purpose may incur debt 10 by a temporary loan in anticipation of the collection of assessments from 11 the members of the district during the calendar year in which said debt
 12 is incurred or during the next succeeding calendar year. (3) The district 13 may incur debt to the amount necessary to pay the estimated expense of 14 the proposed improvements and may issue therefor notes or bonds, and 15 may, if the board approves, issue notes or bonds on the condition that the 16 first payment on account of the principal shall be deferred for a period of 17 not more than five years from the date of issue of such notes or bonds
 18 and that the whole amount of such debt shall be payable within a period 19 of not more than twenty-five years after such notes or bonds are issued.
 20 Indebtedness incurred by the district under the provisions of this sec-21 tion or of section fourteen A shall be subject to chapter forty-four and to 22 other provisions of the General Laws applicable to notes and bonds of dis-
 23 tricts except as otherwise provided in sections one to fourteen B, inclu-24 sive. Money received from the sale of notes or bonds issued under this 25 section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and held by him to the 26 credit of the district. If the district issues notes or bonds and thereafter 27 the general court makes an appropriation to cover such part, if any, of 28 the expenses of the improvements as it shall deem to be for the benefit of 29 the public health of the commonwealth as a whole, the state treasurer 30 may, in his discretion, make all or any part of such appropriation avail-31 able to redeem notes or bonds of the district and shall hold the balance, 32 if any, to the credit of the district to be used for payment of the expense
 33 of the improvements. If, after payment of the total expense of the im-34 provements, money remains in the hands of the state treasurer to the 35 credit of the district the same shall be paid to the treasurer of the district 36 and shall be used to redeem outstanding notes or bonds which shall be 37 cancelled by said district treasurer and not reissued. Bonds or notes 38 issued under this section shall be the general obligations of the district by 39 which they are issued.

1 SECTION 11. The clerk of the district shall certify to the assessors
 2 of the town or towns in which the land of the district lies all sums of money
 3 voted to be raised and all sums payable annually on account of the prin-4 cipal and interest due on bonds or notes issued under the provisions of 5 section nine or ten, together with the amount to be paid by each pro-6 prietor according to the determination made under section seven, and 7 said clerk shall also file an attested copy of such certification with the 8 board. The amounts so certified shall be assessed upon the lands of the 9 several proprietors within the area, and be committed to the collector of 10 taxes of the town wherein the land assessed is situated, who shall have and 11 exercise the same powers and duties in relation to the collection of such 12 assessments as he has and exercises relative to the collection of town taxes.
 13 The collector shall remit weekly to the district treasurer all sums collected 14 by him on account of such assessments. An assessment made hereunder 15 shall be a lien upon the land assessed therefor, and such lien shall take 16 effect upon the recording of the description, plan and estimate under 17 section seven, and shall continue for a period of two years from July first 18 of the year of assessment.

SECTION 12. If sections one to seven, inclusive, have been complied with, and payment of the expense of the improvements has been arranged under section nine or ten, the commissioners shall carry out said improvements in such manner as the board may approve. The commissioners may employ suitable persons to perform the work under their direction. So far as may be necessary to effect the improvements as approved by the board, the commissioners may take on behalf of the district, in the manner provided by chapter seventy-nine, lands, easements and rights in lands, if the improvements are for a public use, and may purchase and convey real and personal property both within and beyond the limits of the commonwealth. Any person damaged in his property by any action under this or the following section may recover his damages from the district in the manner provided by said chapter seventy-nine and such damages shall constitute a part of the total expense of the improvements.

SECTION 13. If the commissioners find it necessary or expedient to lower or raise the water to obtain a view of the land or for the more convenient or expeditious removal of obstructions, they may open the flood gates of any mill or make other needful passages through or around the dam thereof, or erect a temporary dam on the land of a person not a party to the proceedings, and may maintain such dam or passages as long as necessary for such purposes; but before so doing, they shall give to such person reasonable written notice of their intention. If such person appeals from their decision and gives reasonable written notice thereof to any commissioner, the commissioners shall suspend all proceedings upon his land until such appeal is determined; provided, that the petition therefor is entered in the superior court for the county where the greater part of the land improved lies not later than thirty days after the time of giving such notice.

SECTION 14. The commissioners shall at least once a month at such time as the board may require submit to it the accounts and vouchers for expenses incurred in meeting the cost of required improvements under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive. Such accounts and vouchers shall be inspected by the board and if it approves the same it shall forward them to the county treasurer or to the state treasurer, as the case may be, for payment from any funds which may be available for the purpose. Expenses for maintenance or for further improvements incurred under the direction of the prudential committee of the district as provided in section fourteen A shall be paid by the district treasurer on presentation by the prudential committee of accounts and vouchers for such expenses; provided, that accounts and vouchers for expenses incurred in connection with further improvements shall be subject to the approval of the board before payment. The commissioners appointed under section fourteen A to make further improvements shall present their accounts and vouchers to the board for approval in the same manner as the commissioners appointed under section five to make the original improvements.

Undertaking further improvements. 1922, 349, § 10. 1923, 457, § 1. 1926, 393, § 11.

SECTION 14A. A reclamation district organized under this chapter may from time to time at a legal meeting called for the purpose, vote to undertake further improvements within the district, to raise money by assessment to meet the expense thereof and to incur debt therefor in the

5 manner provided by section ten. Such vote shall not be passed until after 6 completion of the original improvements. The district may also vote to 7 request the board to appoint commissioners to carry out the proposed 8 further improvements. Such commissioners shall be appointed by certifi-9 cate of the board as provided in section five. The district may, however, 10 authorize its prudential committee to carry out such further improve-11 ments. The commissioners or prudential committee acting under this 12 section shall have and exercise, so far as necessary, the powers of commis-13 sioners appointed under section five to make original improvements.
 14 The clerk of the district shall notify the board of the vote taken and the 15 commissioners or prudential committee shall submit to the board within 16 a reasonable time the plan or plans for such improvements, which shall 17 not be undertaken until the board approves the same. The district may 18 assess upon its members such sums as may be necessary to pay for im-
 19 provements so voted and for the maintenance of all improvements made 20 under sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, in the manner provided in 21 section eleven for assessment of the expense of the original improvements.
 22 Such assessment shall be subject to the same provisions as the assessment
 23 authorized in said section eleven, shall be collected in the same manner 24 and shall be paid to the treasurer of the district.

1 SECTION 14B. No person obtaining an additional water power or 2 water supply by the doing of any work contemplated by sections one to 3 fourteen B, inclusive, shall gain a prescriptive right to the use thereof,
 4 nor be entitled to any compensation for the taking thereof under said
 5 sections by the removal of any dam or flashboards or by the changing of 6 the height or dimensions of any dam. No water power may be developed 7 in a reclamation district organized under this chapter except by vote of 8 the district and approval by the board.

No prescriptive right to additional water power or water supply, etc. Vote, etc., necessary before developing water power. 1918, 289, § 11. G. L. ed. of 1920 252, § 9.

1 SECTION 14C. Whoever obstructs or injures any ditch, tide gate,
 2 dike or other structure constructed or used for any purpose authorized
 3 by any provision of sections one to fourteen B, inclusive, shall be punished
 4 by a fine of not less than ten dollars. The state reclamation board may 5 also recover, in the name of the commonwealth, for any such obstruction
 6 or injury, in an action of contract, the amount of the damages sustained
 7 by reason thereof, and the provisions of section five A, relative to the dis-8 position of money therein referred to, shall govern the disposition of 9 money recovered in such action.

SECTION 28. In every original petition brought by the owner of land alleged to be injured by a mill dam, the respondent may bring into court and there tender any amount which he considers proper to be paid to the petitioner for the damages incurred up to the time of such tender, and may also offer to pay any certain annual compensation for the damages which may be thereafter caused by the dam. If the petitioner does not accept the amount so tendered with his costs to that time, he shall, unless he recovers greater damages or greater annual compensation than was so offered, be entitled to his costs to the time of the tender, and the respondent shall be entitled to his costs after said time.

SECTION 31. The provisions of chapter two hundred and thirty-one relative to pleas in abatement shall apply to petitions under this chapter; and if new respondents are summoned in pursuance of said provisions, the petitioner may have a verdict against such of the respondents as he proves are liable, although he fails as to the rest. A petition shall not be abated by the death of any party, but it may be prosecuted or defended by the surviving petitioners or respondents, or by the executor or administrator of the deceased.

SECTION 33. If a person who owns, erects or maintains a water mill or a dam to raise water for working such mill upon or across a stream not navigable desires to raise, erect or maintain a dam at such a height or in such a manner as to overflow or otherwise injure an existing public way, he may apply by petition to the county commissioners of the county where such way is located, stating the height at which it is desired to maintain such dam and the ways which may be injured thereby, and asking for the alteration, change of grade or specific repairs of such ways.

Notice.
 1873, 144, § 2.
 P. S. 190, § 43.

SECTION 34. Notice of the hearing upon such petition shall be given to the towns where the ways are situated, and to the owners or occupants of the land affected thereby, in like manner as notice of the laying out of highways is given.

1 SECTION 35. Said commissioners may, after a hearing, order such 2 alteration, repairs or change of grade of such ways as will in their judg-3 ment enable the petitioner to raise, erect and maintain such dam with-4 out overflowing or otherwise injuring such ways, and they may give 5 written direction and authority to the petitioner to make at his own ex-
 6 pense such alterations, changes of grade and repairs within a reasonable
 7 time. They shall record all such orders and shall cause certified copies 8 thereof to be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of each town in 9 which such alterations, changes of grade or repairs are ordered.

1 SECTION 36. The commissioners shall assess and order the petitioner
 2 to pay all damages sustained by any person or town by reason of the 3 alterations, changes of grade or repairs ordered by them, and any person
 4 or town aggrieved by such assessment may, on application within one
 5 year from the entry of such order, have the damages assessed by a jury 6 in the manner provided in chapter seventy-nine.

1 SECTION 38. The order of the county commissioners, duly issued
 2 under section thirty-five, shall authorize the petitioner to do all acts
 3 necessary to be done in compliance therewith; and if it is shown that 4 the petitioner has substantially complied with such order, no indictment 5 shall be maintained for the flowage of, or injury to, the ways mentioned in 6 such order, which may be caused by the dam.

CRANBERRY LAND AND ICE PONDS.

1 SECTION 39. An owner or lessee of land appropriated or which he 2 desires to appropriate to the cultivation and growth of cranberries may 3 erect and maintain a dam upon and across a stream to flow and irrigate
 4 said land, subject to this chapter so far as applicable; but he shall not 5 erect and maintain a dam across a navigable stream or across the outlet
 6 of a great pond, without a license therefor from the department of public 7 works.

1 SECTION 40. If a dam has been so erected or maintained or if a
 2 person has at his own expense made, kept open or repaired any ditches
 3 or drains for the improvement or cultivation of such tract of land, any 4 owner or lessee of a like tract, who uses such dam, ditches or drains or 5 who by more remote means receives benefit thereby for the flowing, 6 irrigating or draining of such last mentioned tract, shall pay to the 7 person who has erected or maintained such dam or incurred such ex-8 pense his proportionate part thereof, which shall be determined by the 9 aldermen of the city or the selectmen of the town and certified to such 10 owner or lessee. Any person aggrieved by such determination may 11 within three months after notice thereof appeal therefrom to the superior 12 court for the county where the dam, ditches or drains are situated, and 13 shall be entitled to a jury trial; but before taking his appeal he shall give one month's notice, in writing, to the aldermen or selectmen of his 14 intention so to appeal, and shall therein specify particularly his objec- 15 tions to the determination, to which specification he shall be confined upon 16 the hearing by jury. If such owner or lessee fails to pay to the person 17 entitled such proportionate part as finally determined, within said three 18 months if there is no appeal, otherwise within seven days after final 19 determination, he shall pay double the amount so determined with all 20 expenses arising from such failure; and such person may recover the 21 same in contract in his own name. But no covenants or agreements by 22 or between the owners or lessees of such land shall be affected by this 23 section. 24

Ice ponds.
1898, 480.
R. L. 196, § 41.
267 Mass. 285.

SECTION 41. An owner or lessee of land used for an ice pond may erect 1 and, between November first and March first, maintain a dam across a 2 stream not navigable, for the purpose of making an ice pond by flowing 3 adjoining land, subject to this chapter so far as applicable, if he annually 4 pays to the owner of land which may be overflowed or injured thereby 5 the amount of the tax which may from time to time be assessed on such 6 land; but such dam shall not be erected without the consent of all of the 7 owners of the land which would be flowed by it, unless the person propos- 8 ing to erect it shall furnish to such owners as do not consent to the erec- 9 tion security, satisfactory to them or approved by a justice of a court of 10 record or by a master in chancery, for the payment of any damages which 11 may be caused by flowing the land of such owners. 12

DAMS OF RESERVOIR CORPORATIONS.

Land flowed
by reservoir corporation.
1869, 383, § 1.
P. S. 190, § 50.
R. L. 196, § 42.

SECTION 42. A domestic reservoir corporation may flow the land 1 of other persons by its reservoir dam, and a person whose land or prop- 2 erty has been flowed or injured by such dam, unless compensation has 3 been otherwise made, may obtain compensation therefor as provided 4 in this chapter. 5

Security.
1869, 383, § 2.
P. S. 190, § 51.
R. L. 196, § 43.

SECTION 43. The court in which a petition for such compensation 1 is pending shall, if requested by the petitioner, require such corporation 2 to give satisfactory security for the payment of all damages and costs 3 which may be awarded thereon, and if, upon petition and notice to 4 the corporation, the court finds that the security has become insuffi- 5 cient, it shall require the corporation to give further security. If the 6 corporation neglects for one month or for such further time as the court 7 allows to comply with any such order, it shall lose all rights under this 8 chapter, and the court may restrain it from flowing or injuring such 9 land or property until such security has been given. 10

SAFETY OF RESERVOIRS AND DAMS.

Reservoir, etc., not to be constructed or altered, until.

P. S. 190, § 52.
R. L. 196, § 44.
1924, 178, § 1.

SECTION 44. A reservoir, reservoir dam or mill dam shall not be con- 1 structed or materially altered until plans and specifications of the pro- 2 posed work have been filed with and approved by the county com- 3 missioners of the county where it is situated. Said commissioners shall 4 retain and record such plans and specifications and shall inspect the work 5 during its progress; and if at any time it appears that the plans and 6 specifications are not faithfully adhered to, they may appoint an in- 7 spector to be constantly engaged at the expense of the owners in the 8 supervision of the work. Upon a refusal of the owners or of their agents 9

10 to adhere to said plans and specifications, said inspector may order the 11 discontinuance of the work. This and the six following sections shall 12 not apply to small dams, constructed for irrigation or for other purposes, 13 the breaking of which would involve no risk to life or property, nor to 14 standpipes or tanks, nor to a dam where the area draining into the pond
 15 formed thereby does not exceed one square mile, unless the dam is more 16 than ten feet in height above the natural bed of the stream at any point 17 or unless the quantity of water which the dam impounds exceeds one 18 million gallons.

1 SECTION 45. The county commissioners shall, as often as once in 2 two years, cause a thorough examination to be made of every reservoir, 3 reservoir dam and mill dam by the breaking of which loss of life or 4 damage to a road or bridge is likely to be caused, and they shall at any 5 time cause such examination to be made upon written application by 6 the mayor and aldermen of a city or the selectmen of a town where such 7 damage is likely to be caused. Any party whose property is likely to 8 be damaged by the breaking of any such structure may make a written 9 application to the commissioners, setting forth the facts and the owner-10 ship of such structure which is believed to be unsafe, and the commis-11 sioners may thereupon cause said structure to be examined. If upon 12 examination the structure is deemed safe, the costs of such application 13 and examination may be ordered paid by the party making the applica-14 tion. The commissioners shall cause every examination to be made 15 by a competent engineer who shall report to them in writing whether 16 he considers the structure safe and in good condition, and if not, its 17 condition in detail and the work or the changes required for safety and 18 the public good. The engineer shall be allowed by the commissioners a 19 reasonable compensation for his services which shall be paid by the 20 county in the first instance. Ownership of the structure shall be ascer-
 21 tained and, so far as possible, examinations shall be made in co-operation 22 with the owner or his agent.

1 SECTION 46. If, upon such examination, the structure is not, in the 2 judgment of the commissioners, sufficiently strong to resist the action
 3 of the water under any circumstances which may reasonably be expected 4 to occur, they shall, with the advice of an engineer, determine and 5 direct what alterations or repairs are required to make the structure 6 permanent and secure, and shall in writing order the owners thereof to 7 make such alterations or repairs within a reasonable time, and the re-
 8 sults of such examination and the orders thereon shall be duly recorded 9 by said commissioners.

R. L. 196, § 46.

1 SECTION 47. If, after notice in writing to the owner of a reservoir or 2 dam which has been so examined and adjudged to be unsafe, the said
 3 owner refuses or neglects to make such alterations or repairs as the 4 commissioners order, they may, at the expense of the county, cause
 5 such reservoir or dam to be altered and repaired or any part thereof
 6 removed or the water drawn off, whichever they may consider necessary 7 for the safety of life, property, roads or bridges on the stream below.
 8 After such removal, no structure shall be erected except in compliance
 9 with the three preceding sections, and after the water has been drawn 10 off, the reservoir shall not be filled again until the orders of the com-11 missioners have been complied with.

SECTION 48. The commissioners shall make such orders as they may deem just as to the payment by the owner, county or other party of the costs and expenses incurred by them under the three preceding sections, and if the reservoir or dam was adjudged to be unsafe, said costs and expenses may be ordered paid by the owner, with interest, from the time they were paid by the county. Notice shall be given the county treasurer and the owner or other party of the amount due the county.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a written contract, dated _____, between _____, owner, and _____, contractor, said contractor is to furnish labor and material for the erection, alteration, repair or removal of a building on a lot of land described as follows:

Said contract is to be completed on or before _____.

12 A notice of any extension of such contract, stating the date to which 13 it is extended, shall also be filed or recorded in the said registry prior to 14 the date stated in the notice of the contract for the completion thereof, 15 and may be filed by any party entitled to file the original notice.

16 Such notices, and all other instruments hereinafter required to be 17 filed or recorded in the registry of deeds, affecting registered land shall 18 be filed and registered in the manner prescribed by section seventy-19 eight of chapter one hundred and eighty-five. Such notices, and all 20 other instruments hereinafter required to be filed or recorded in the 21 registry of deeds, affecting unregistered land shall be indexed in a separate 22 book to be kept for that purpose.

(1919) 112.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a written contract dated _____, between _____, contractor (or sub-contractor), and _____, said _____ is to furnish labor or material, or both labor and material, or perform labor in the erection, alteration, repair or removal of a building or structure by _____, contractor, for _____, owner, on a lot of land described as follows:

Said contract is to be completed on or before _____.

A notice of any extension of such contract, stating the date to which it is extended, shall also be filed or recorded in said registry prior to the date stated in the notice of the contract for the completion thereof.

Upon filing a notice, as hereinbefore provided, and giving actual notice to the owner of such filing, the sub-contractor shall have a lien to secure the payment of all labor and material, which he shall thereafter furnish upon the building or structure, and upon the interest of the owner, as appears of record at the time of such filing, in the lot of land on which said building or structure is situated. But such lien shall in no event exceed the amount due or to become due under the original contract when notice of the filing of the sub-contract is given by the sub-contractor to the owner; and the time for the performance of the contract of the sub-contractor shall not be extended beyond the time for the performance of the original contract and any extension thereof, if the objection thereto of the owner is filed in the registry of deeds and actual notice of such objection is given by the owner to the sub-contractor within five days after the owner received notice of the filing of the contract as provided in this section.

SECTION 5. All proceedings to enforce a lien upon land for the erection, alteration, repair or removal of a building or other structure, shall be begun by bill in equity filed in the superior court for the county where the land lies. The petitioner shall bring his bill in his own behalf and in behalf of all other persons in interest who shall become parties. The subpoena shall be returnable not more than sixty days subsequent to the entry of the bill and shall contain a brief description of the property, sufficient to identify it, and a statement of the amount alleged to be due. An attested copy thereof shall be filed in the registry of deeds and recorded as provided in section nine. All other parties in interest may appear and have their rights determined in such bill, and at any time before a final decree, upon the suggestion of any party in interest that any other person is or may be interested in the suit, or of its own motion, the court may issue a subpoena to such person, or a precept directing him to appear in said cause on or before a day certain or be forever barred from any rights thereunder. The court may in its discretion provide for notice to absent parties in interest. The terms "party in interest" and "person in interest", as used in this chapter, shall include mortgagees and attaching creditors.

SECTION 12. Any person in interest may cause to be recorded in the registry of deeds in the county or district where the land lies a bond having as surety a company or corporation authorized to do a surety business in the commonwealth or individual sureties as herein provided, in which bond the register of deeds and his successors in office shall be obligees, in a penal sum fixed by the building commissioner or other officer performing like duties under any statute, ordinance or by-law of a town where the land in question lies, or, if there is no such officer, by a justice or clerk of a court having jurisdiction in the locality where the land lies. The bond shall describe the land in such detail as is required in a common conveyance of land, and shall be in form substantially as follows:

Know all Men by these Presents.

That we _____ of _____ in the County of _____ and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as principal, and _____ in the Commonwealth, as surety or sureties, are holden and stand firmly bound and obliged unto _____, Register of Deeds for the _____ County of _____, in the full and just sum of _____ Dollars to be paid unto said Register and his successors in said office, to which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals and dated the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and _____.

The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas said _____ is interested in the erection, alteration, repair or removal of a building on a certain lot of land situated within the _____ Registry District in the Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows _____ and desires under the provisions of chapter two hundred and fifty-four of the General Laws and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto to free said land from claims for personal labor in accordance with the provisions of said chapter and amendments thereto;

Now, therefore, if the above bounden _____ shall pay or cause to be paid for any and all personal labor performed in the erection, alteration, repair or removal of said building on said land, under the contract stated in the certificate on the back hereof, irrespective of any agreement made between him and the owner or any other persons now interested or who may hereafter be interested therein, then the above written obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

(CERTIFICATE ON BACK OF BOND.)

(Date)

I, _____, principal in the within bond, hereby certify that the proposed work on the lot of land described in said bond is the erection — alteration — repair — removal of a building, that a fair estimate of the cost of the labor on said building will not exceed _____ dollars. The work is to be done under a contract made _____ (date) the parties thereto being _____ of _____ and _____ of _____ . Said work is to be completed on or before _____ .

(Signed.)

If individual sureties are given on said bond, the sureties shall be not less than three in number, each of whom shall have owned real estate for at least one year next prior to the date of the bond, of a value not less than the penal sum of the bond, and said bond shall not be recorded unless the bond and sureties shall have been approved by a justice or clerk of a court having jurisdiction in the locality where the land lies, after an examination on oath of all the sureties by said justice or clerk.

20 After the recording of said bond no lien shall thereafter attach for 21 personal labor performed under the contract in respect to which the 22 bond is given.

23 The register of deeds may refuse to record the said bond if it be de-24 fective in form or substance, but no party to any such bond shall be dis-
25 charged by any defect therein as against any party who has in good faith 26 allowed his lien to be dissolved by lapse of time in reliance on the bond.
27 The bond may be enforced by a bill in equity in the superior court brought 28 by any party in interest. The petitioner shall bring his bill in his own 29 behalf and in behalf of all other persons in interest who shall become 30 parties. A copy of the subpoena shall be filed and recorded in the registry 31 of deeds.

1 SECTION 13. The rights of an attaching creditor shall not prevail
2 as against a lien under section one, nor against the claim of a lienor where 3 notice or notices of contract have been filed or recorded in the registry of 4 deeds under sections two and four prior to the recording of the attach-5 ment. An attachment recorded prior to the filing or recording of the 6 notice of contract shall prevail against a lien, other than for personal 7 labor, to the extent of the value of the buildings and land as they were 8 at the time when the labor was commenced or the material furnished for 9 which the lien is claimed, and in case of a sale under section eighteen the 10 court shall determine, in the manner provided in section sixteen, what 11 proportion of the proceeds of the sale, as derived from the value of the 12 property at such time, shall be held subject to the attachment. If the 13 attaching creditor recovers judgment, the proceeds so held subject to 14 his attachment, or as much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied 15 upon his execution, and the residue, if any, shall be disposed of in the 16 same manner as if there had been no such attachment. If the interest 17 of the owner of the property is attached after the filing of the notice, the 18 proceeds of any sale of the property under said section eighteen, after dis-19 charging all prior liens and claims, shall be applied to satisfy the execu-20 tion of the attaching creditor, provided the lienor or the officer making 21 the sale has actual notice of the attachment. Several attaching credi-22 tors as between themselves shall be paid according to the order of their 23 attachments.

1 SECTION 14. In a bill in equity under section five, the court may,
2 in its discretion, accept a bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, to dis-
3 solve the lien of any creditor or all liens, as to the whole or any part of 4 the property, or any interest therein. Such bond shall be filed by the 5 obligor in the registry of deeds within ten days after its approval, and 6 shall not dissolve the lien unless so filed. It shall be recorded, and may 7 then be taken from the registry by the obligee.

MORTGAGES.

Mortgages of personal property to be recorded 1832, 157, § 1.

SECTION 1. Mortgages of personal property shall, within fifteen days from the date written in the mortgage, be recorded on the records of the town where the mortgagor resides when the mortgage is made,

4 and on the records of the town where he then principally transacts his 5 business. If the mortgagor resides out of the commonwealth, and the 6 property mortgaged is within the commonwealth when the mortgage is 7 made, the mortgage shall be recorded on the records of the town where 8 the property then is. If a record in two different places is required and 9 the mortgage is recorded in one within said fifteen days, it may be re-10 corded in the other within ten days after the date of the first record.
 11 The mortgage shall not be valid against a person other than the parties
 12 thereto until so recorded; and a record made subsequently to the time 13 limited shall be void. This section shall apply to bills of sale given for 14 security, but shall not apply to assignments which transfer the title of 15 a lessor or conditional vendor to a lease or other instrument containing 16 a conditional sale agreement and to the personal property therein de-17 scribed. If the condition for redemption of the property included in 18 such bill of sale is in writing, it shall be recorded with and as a part of 19 the bill of sale; if the condition for redemption is oral, a written state-20 ment of such condition signed by the mortgagee shall be so recorded.

SECTION 31B. If any part of the amount for which goods are held 1 under said lien remains unpaid for a period of three months after the 2

3 earliest item of said amount became due and payable, the lienor may sell
 4 said goods at public auction, first publishing a notice of the time and place
 5 of said sale once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper published 6 in the town, if any, otherwise in the county, in which said goods are 7 situated, the last publication to be not less than five days prior to the 8 sale, and also giving five days' notice of said sale by posting in five or 9 more public places in said county, one whereof shall be in the town or 10 city ward in which said goods are situated, and, if the residence or busi-11 ness address of the owner of said goods is known or can be ascertained, 12 sending by registered mail a copy of such notice to said owner at such 13 address at least five days before the day of sale; provided, that if said 14 goods are readily divisible, no more thereof shall be so sold than is 15 necessary to discharge the underlying indebtedness and cover the ex-16 penses of the sale. The proceeds of said sale shall be applied to the 17 payment of said indebtedness and said expenses, and the balance, if 18 any, shall be paid to the owner or person entitled thereto. The remedy 19 herein provided to enforce said lien shall be in addition to any other 20 provided by law.

1 SECTION 31C. A person engaged in performing work upon any watch, Lien of 2 clock, silverware or jewelry for a price shall have a lien upon such watch, jewelers,
 3 clock, silverware or jewelry for the amount of any account that may be 1927, 210, § 1.
 4 due for such work: provided, that he gives to the person delivering to 5 him such watch, clock, silverware or jewelry a receipt for the same having 6 printed thereon in clear legible type a copy of this section. Such lien
 7 shall also include the value or agreed price, if any, of all materials furnished 8 by the lienor in connection with such work, whether added to such 9 article or articles or otherwise. If any such account remains unpaid for 10 one year after the completion of the work, the lienor may, upon thirty 11 days' notice in writing to the owner specifying the amount due and in-12 forming him that payment of such amount within thirty days will 13 entitle him to redeem the article or articles covered by such lien, sell the 14 same at public or bona fide private sale to satisfy the account. The 15 proceeds of the sale, after paying the expenses thereof, shall be applied 16 in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by such lien and the balance, 17 if any, shall be paid over to the owner. Such notice may be served by 18 mail, directed to the owner's last known address, or, if the owner or his 19 address be unknown, it may be posted in two public places in the town 20 where the property is located. The remedy herein provided to enforce 21 such lien shall be in addition to any other provided by law.

1 SECTION 32. Liens claimed by public warehousemen and others Dissolution of 2 upon personal property for storage thereof, by innkeepers, boarding house liens on per-
 3 keepers and lodging house keepers upon the baggage and effects of guests, sonal property,
 4 boarders or lodgers, by stable keepers and others for the boarding, keeping 1907, 490, § 2.

SECTION 33. A person who owns or has an interest in any personal property upon which such a lien has been claimed may, at any time after a petition is brought for its enforcement and before the property is lawfully sold to satisfy said lien, dissolve the lien upon his interest in the whole or any part of said property by giving bond to the person claiming the lien, with sufficient sureties, who shall be approved in writing by the claimant or by his attorney, or by a justice of a district court or master in chancery, conditioned to pay to such person within thirty days after the final judgment or order of sale of said property or the interest therein or part thereof for which said bond may be given, an amount fixed as the value of said interest or such part thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount for which said interest or part thereof may be subject to said lien. The property upon which the lien is to be dissolved shall be described in the bond. If the parties do not agree as to the value of the property or of the part to be released from said lien, the value may be determined in accordance with the provisions of sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-six of chapter two hundred and twenty-three. If the said property, or the part to be released from said lien, consists of books, papers, documents or other similar property and the parties do not agree upon the amount for which said bond shall be given, it may be fixed in like manner at such amount as may be reasonable, giving due consideration to the amount for which said lien is claimed, and upon the delivery of the bond in accordance with the provisions hereof the lien upon the property described therein shall be dissolved. The person claiming a lien upon said personal property shall, upon demand therefor, furnish the person owning or having an interest in said property with a statement of the amount and reasons, or other considerations, for which the lien is claimed.

SECTION 36. If personal property exceeding twenty dollars in value is detained from the owner, or person otherwise entitled to its posses-

3 sion, under the claim of a lien, and the contract under which the alleged 4 claim arose did not specifically state in writing the aggregate amount of 5 charges to accrue for the services or materials to be furnished, the owner 6 or such other person may cause the said property to be replevied in the 7 manner and subject to the provisions set forth in sections seven to twenty-8 two, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and forty-seven, so far as the 9 same may be applicable, except as is otherwise provided in the three 10 following sections.

1 SECTION 37. Before the officer serving the writ delivers the goods to 2 the plaintiff he shall take from the plaintiff, or from a person acting in 3 his behalf, a bond payable to the defendant in such sum and with such 4 surety or sureties as may be satisfactory to the defendant, or as may be 5 approved by a justice of a district court or a master in chancery in the 6 county where the action is brought. If the sureties are to be so approved, 7 the officer who serves the writ shall give written notice to the defendant
 8 or to the person from whose custody the property has been taken, stating 9 the time and place of hearing thereon and the names and residences of the 10 proposed sureties, allowing not less than one hour before the time ap-11 pointed for the hearing and at the rate of one hour additional for each 12 mile of travel. The amount of the bond required shall not exceed twice 13 the sum for which a lien is claimed by the defendant. If the defendant 14 or his agent or attorney does not appear in person, and does not state in 15 writing the amount of his claim, no bond shall be required.

1 SECTION 38. If the court finds that the defendant has a lien on the 2 property but that the defendant is not otherwise entitled to possession 3 of the property, judgment shall be rendered for the defendant for the 4 amount due under the contract, together with, or deducting, costs as 5 determined by the following section. Upon payment of this amount 6 to the defendant the bond provided for in the preceding section shall be 7 held satisfied, and shall be delivered up to the plaintiff.

1 SECTION 39. In actions of replevin brought under section thirty-six,
 2 costs shall be taxed against the plaintiff in cases where the court decides 3 that the claim of the defendant for which he asserted a lien was no greater 4 than the amount due under the contract. In all other cases costs shall be 5 taxed against the defendant.

 151 Mass. 392.

SECTION 1. A person who is competent to contract by bond may subject his person and property to be taken on execution by entering into a recognizance before the superior court in any county, substantially as follows:

Be it remembered that on this _____ day of _____ of _____ personally appeared before _____ and acknowledged himself to be indebted to _____ of _____ in the sum of _____ to be paid to said _____ on the _____ day of _____ (or in _____ years, or in _____ months, from this day) with interest from this day; and, if not then paid, to be levied upon his goods, chattels, lands and tenements, and, for want thereof, upon his body. In witness whereof said _____ hath hereto set his hand.

The clause as to the payment of interest may be altered or omitted according to the agreement of the parties; but, unless the recognizance otherwise expressly provides, interest shall be allowed for any delay after the time for payment.

SECTION 4. Before such execution issues, the original recognizance shall be filed with the clerk, who shall compute the amount, deducting any payments endorsed, and shall issue an execution therefor in common form except that it shall recite the recognizance and state the amount then due. Such execution may be issued by the clerk without a special order of the court.

1 SECTION 5. If the conusee dies before the debt is paid, his executor
 2 or administrator may, upon exhibiting to the clerk his letters testamen-
 3 tary or of administration, take out the execution and the form thereof
 4 shall be altered accordingly.

A. G. 52.

SECTION 38. The fees of registers of deeds, except as otherwise provided, to be paid when the instrument is left for recording, filing or deposit, shall be as follows:

For entering and recording any paper, certifying the same on the original, and indexing it, and for all other duties pertaining thereto, including, when a marginal reference or references are required, one such reference, one dollar. If the paper contains more than one page, at the rate of forty-five cents for each page after the first; provided, that if the paper contains the names of more than two parties thereto, other than the husband or wife of the grantor or grantee, an additional fee of ten cents each shall be charged for indexing the names of additional grantors or grantees or other parties thereto. The minimum fee for recording a deed or conveyance or a mortgage shall be two dollars.

For all copies, at the rate of forty cents a page.

For entering in the margin a discharge of a mortgage, fifty cents.

For entering an attachment or an execution, for each defendant named, fifty cents.

For entering a discharge of an attachment or of a lien on buildings and lands, fifty cents.

For entering and filing a plan, of a size not over fourteen inches by nine and one half inches, one dollar; for larger sizes, not less than two dollars.

For entering a partial release of an attachment, fifty cents.

A fee of twenty-five cents each shall be collected for making, when required, any marginal reference the fee for which is not herein otherwise provided for.

LAND COURT.

Certain fees of land court. 1898, 562, § 110. R. L. 128, § 109. 1905, 249, § 3, 5. 1915, 120, § 3. 1923, 374, § 4. 1928, 386, § 4. 262 Mass. 45.

SECTION 39. The fees payable under chapter one hundred and eighty-five shall be as follows:

For the entry of every original petition or writ and transmitting it to the recorder, when filed with an assistant recorder, three dollars.

For every plan filed in an original proceeding, seventy-five cents, and for every new plan filed after original registration or for making a new plan on request of a registered owner, five dollars. The filing fee in a registry of deeds upon receipt from the recorder of the land court of a plan or copy of a plan shall be one dollar.

For indexing an instrument recorded while a petition for registration is pending, twenty-five cents.

For examining title, on a petition to register land, or on a petition to register easements or rights in land, the actual amount charged or allowed therefor to the examiner by the court.

For each notice by mail, twenty-five cents and the actual cost of printing.

17 For all services by a sheriff or deputy sheriff under provisions of 18 chapter one hundred and eighty-five, the same fees as are provided by 19 law for like services.

20 For each notice by publication, twenty-five cents and the actual cost 21 of publication.

22 For entry of an order dismissing a petition for registration of title, 23 or for foreclosure of a tax title, or a decree of foreclosure of a tax title 24 or of redemption, and sending a memorandum to the assistant recorder, 25 one dollar.

26 For entry of a decree of registration and sending a memorandum to 27 the assistant recorder, one quarter of one per cent of the assessed value 28 of the property registered, on the basis of the last assessment for mu-29 nicipal taxation, in addition to any sum payable under section ninety-30 nine of chapter one hundred and eighty-five, but in no one proceeding 31 shall the amount payable under this paragraph be less than ten nor 32 more than one thousand dollars.

33 For a copy of a decree of registration, foreclosure or redemption, one 34 dollar.

35 For the entry of an original certificate of title and issuing one dupli-36 cate, three dollars.

37 For making and entering a new certificate of title, including issue of 38 one duplicate, one dollar.

39 For each additional duplicate certificate after the first, one dollar.

40 For the registration of every instrument, whether single or in dupli-
41 cate or triplicate, including entering, indexing and filing it and attesting 42 the registration thereof, and also making and attesting a copy of memo-43 randum on one instrument or on a duplicate certificate when required, 44 two dollars.

45 For making and attesting copy of memorandum on each additional 46 instrument or duplicate certificate if required, seventy-five cents.

47 For filing and registering an adverse claim, three dollars.

48 For entering statement of change of residence or postoffice address, 49 including endorsing and attesting it on a duplicate certificate, fifty cents.

50 For entering any note in the entry book or in the registration book, 51 fifty cents.

52 For the registration of a suggestion of death or notice of issue of a 53 warrant in insolvency or of adjudication of bankruptcy, fifty cents.

54 For the registration of a partial release, discharge or release of a 55 mortgage or other instrument creating an encumbrance, or of an assign-56 ment or extension of a mortgage, or of a power of attorney, seventy-57 five cents.

58 For the registration of a memorandum or certificate of entry for 59 possession or deposition in proof thereof, seventy-five cents.

60 For the registration of any levy, or of any discharge or dissolution 61 of any attachment or levy, or of any certificate of or receipt for pay-62 ment of taxes, or of a notice of any mechanic's lien or lien for labor or 63 materials, or a notice of any pending action or of a judgment or decree,
64 fifty cents.

65 For endorsing on any mortgage, lease or other instrument a memo-66 randum of partition, one dollar.

67 For every petition after the original registration, one dollar.

68 For a certified copy of any decree or registered instrument, the same 69 fees as are provided for registers of deeds.

REGISTERS OF PROBATE AND INSOLVENCY.

Registers of probate and insolvency. 1893, 469, § 2. R. L. 204, § 30. 1926, 363, § 2.

SECTION 40. The fees of registers of probate and insolvency, payable in advance by the petitioner or libellant, shall be as follows: 1
 For the entry of a libel for divorce or for affirming or annulling marriage, five dollars. 2
 For the entry of a petition for the probate of a will, for administration on the estate of a person deceased intestate, of a petition under section thirty-five or thirty-six of chapter two hundred and nine by a husband or wife for authority to convey land as if sole, of a petition for partition, of a petition for change of name, of a petition for leave to carry on the business of the deceased, and for filing a representation of insolvency, and, except when the petition is certified by the register or assistant register to be incidental to proceedings already pending in the same county, for the entry of a petition for the appointment of a special administrator, conservator, trustee, receiver of the estate of an absentee, or of a guardian except when the petitioner certifies that the ward's estate does not exceed one hundred dollars, three dollars. 3
 For each certificate issued by the register, fifty cents. 4
 For copies of records or other papers in the charge of said registers at the rate of forty cents a page, except as otherwise provided by law. 5

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

Notaries public. R. S. 122, § 16. 1839, 93. G. S. 157, § 13. P. S. 199, § 21. R. L. 204, § 31.

SECTION 41. The fees of notaries public shall be as follows: 1
 For the protest of a bill of exchange, order, draft or check for non-acceptance or non-payment, or of a promissory note for non-payment, if the amount thereof is five hundred dollars or more, one dollar; if it is less than five hundred dollars, fifty cents; for recording the same, fifty cents; for noting the non-acceptance or non-payment of a bill of exchange, order, draft or check or the non-payment of a promissory note, seventy-five cents; and for each notice of the non-acceptance or non-payment of a bill, order, draft, check or note, given to a party liable for the payment thereof, twenty-five cents; but the whole cost of protest, including necessary notices and the record, if the bill, order, draft, check or note is of the amount of five hundred dollars or more, shall not exceed two dollars, and if it is less than five hundred dollars, shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents; and the whole cost of noting, including recording and notices, shall in no case exceed one dollar and twenty-five cents. 2

COMMISSIONERS IN OTHER STATES.

Commissioners in other states, etc. 1862, 76. P. S. 199, § 22. R. L. 204, § 32. 118 Mass. 422. 139 Mass. 296.

SECTION 42. The fees of commissioners appointed under section four of chapter two hundred and twenty-two shall be as follows: 1
 For administering oaths and certifying the same under their official seals, one dollar for each; for taking acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments and certifying the same under their official seals, one dollar for each; for each written page contained in any deposition or affidavit taken by them, fifty cents; for administering the oath or affirmation to each deponent, one dollar; for authenticating, sealing up and directing each deposition, one dollar; for services not hereinbefore specified, the same fees as are allowed to justices of the peace in this 2

11 commonwealth for like services; but the court to which a deposition is 12 returnable shall order further allowance therefor if it appears proper to 13 do so.

1 SECTION 47. No fees shall be allowed upon the return of an officer
 2 upon a precept in a criminal case, in which expenses are charged, unless 3 every item of expense incurred and the name of the person to whom 4 each amount was paid is set forth under oath in the return; and no
 5 item of expense which may be considered unreasonable shall be allowed
 6 by the court or trial justice without satisfactory proof that the expense
 7 was necessarily incurred and the amount reasonable. But the superior
 8 court, with the written approval of the district attorney, or a district 9 court or a trial justice, may, upon the petition of an officer named in 10 sections fifty and fifty-one, allow extra compensation for any meritorious 11 service for which the fees allowed by law are manifestly inadequate.
 12 No allowance shall be made for aid in the service of a mittimus, unless 13 first authorized in writing by the court which issues it. Justices, clerks 14 and assistant clerks of courts shall administer the oath to officers upon 15 their returns, at their request; and no fee shall be allowed to an officer 16 for such oath, and no justice of the peace shall be entitled to a fee for 17 administering such oath.

SECTION 53. Any officer named in section fifty who attends as a witness at a place other than his residence shall, instead of his expenses, be allowed the witness fee in the court or before the trial justice where he testifies. A police officer on duty at night who attends the superior court as a witness for the commonwealth shall be paid the same fees as any other witness. A police officer who is a witness for the commonwealth, and who under the direction of the district attorney aids in securing the attendance of other witnesses, may receive, instead of his expenses, witness fees for one day's attendance. Any police officer named in section fifty, except a police officer of the city of Boston, who attends as a witness in a criminal case pending in a district court or before a trial justice and who by reason of a continuance or postponement thereof at the request of the defendant, is required to again attend, shall, if not on duty and if it is so ordered by the court or trial

15 justice, be paid for such further attendance the same fee as other wit-
 16 nesses. Police officers shall serve subpoenas upon witnesses when re-17 quested by the district attorney, and their returns of service shall have 18 the same force and effect as the return of a deputy sheriff or constable.

1 SECTION 54. A deputy sheriff or other officer attending the superior
 2 court for criminal business, who serves any subpoena or capias between 3 the daily sessions of said court, may receive such extra compensation 4 as the district attorney may allow. The officers shall make return, on 5 oath, of the time actually occupied and of all expenses actually in-6 curred and paid in performing such extra service.

1 SECTION 56. Except as otherwise provided, an officer of the com-
 2 monwealth whose salary is fixed by law, or any employee of the com-
 3 monwealth receiving regular compensation therefrom, other than a 4 police officer of the metropolitan district commission, shall not be en-5 titled to a witness fee before any court or trial justice in a cause in which 6 the commonwealth is a party. An officer whose compensation is de-
 7 rived solely from fees shall not be entitled to receive more than one fee
 8 as a witness for a day's attendance on court under one or more sum-9 monses in behalf of the commonwealth, and the said fee shall be ap-10 portioned by the clerk among the cases in which he is summoned. Noth-11 ing in this section shall be construed to authorize the payment of a 12 witness fee to any member of the police department of said commission 13 if he is on duty at the time of his attendance on court as a witness.

1 SECTION 57. If it appears on oath that a salaried officer of the 2 commonwealth has attended court as a witness in behalf of the com-
 3 monwealth, at a place other than his residence, and that his necessary
 4 expenses have been increased by such attendance, the court or trial
 5 justice may allow such increased necessary expenses, not exceeding 6 one dollar and fifty cents a day in all, for such actual and necessary 7 attendance.

1 SECTION 58. Whoever receives a witness fee or allowance for in-
 2 creased necessary expenses in violation of any provision of the three 3 preceding sections shall be punished by a fine of not more than one 4 hundred dollars. Every clerk of a court and trial justice shall report 5 forthwith to the district attorney for his county every violation of 6 said sections which comes to his knowledge, and said district attorneys 7 shall institute prosecutions therefor.

If, on the trial of a criminal case, it appears that a witness has induced the defendant to commit the crime with which he is charged with intent to appear as a witness against him, the court or magistrate may in his discretion refuse to allow him his fees.

Officers not to purchase orders, etc. 1855, 180, § 3. G. S. 157, § 22. P. S. 199, § 41. R. L. 204, § 52. SECTION 61. A sheriff, deputy sheriff or other officer who takes the certificates of witnesses in criminal cases shall not purchase or discount or have any interest in orders drawn or demands upon the treasury by such witnesses.

Penalty for false certificates of witnesses, etc. 1854, 380. G. S. 157, § 23. P. S. 199, § 42. R. L. 204, § 53. SECTION 62. Whoever, with intent to defraud, signs or procures to be signed a certificate of attendance or travel as a witness before a court, trial justice or reference founded upon a rule of court, in any case in which the witness did not so attend, or for a greater number of days than he actually attended, or for a greater number of miles than he actually traveled, upon which certificate the attendance or travel so claimed is allowed as a part of the expenses of prosecution, shall forfeit thirty dollars for each offence, to be recovered on complaint or indictment to the use of the county, or by action of tort to the use of any person against whom such excessive costs were taxed, with four times the whole amount taxed for attendance or travel on such false certificate, and double costs in the action of tort. Such complaint, indictment or action shall be commenced within two years after the offence is committed.

Refusal of fees to delinquent magistrate. 1855, 180, § 1. G. S. 157, § 19. P. S. 199, § 43. R. L. 204, § 54. SECTION 63. If the administration of justice or the progress of business in criminal proceedings is delayed, obstructed or prevented by the negligence of a magistrate in certifying and returning recognizances, records or other official papers which it is his duty to transmit to a higher court, or in omitting the formalities required by law, the district attorney, with the approval of the court, may refuse to allow the fees, either in whole or in part, to which such magistrate would otherwise be entitled.

Refusal of fees to complainant. 1890, 440, § 13. R. L. 204, § 55. SECTION 64. If the court finds that a complaint in a criminal case is unfounded, frivolous or malicious, it may refuse to allow any fees to the complainant.

RIGHTS OF PERSONS ACCUSED OF CRIME.

SECT.	SECT.
1. Person arrested to be informed of charge.	6. Persons indicted, how convicted. Waiver of right to trial by jury.
2. Penalty for arrest on false pretence.	7. When former acquittal a bar.
3. Action for false imprisonment limited.	8. When former acquittal not a bar.
4. Prosecution of crimes.	8A. Former acquittal in district court, etc., a bar to second complaint.
5. Accused entitled to counsel, etc.	9. No person to be punished until convicted.

1 SECTION 1. Whoever is arrested by virtue of process, or whoever is 2 taken into custody by an officer, has a right to know from the officer
 3 who arrests or claims to detain him the true ground on which the arrest 4 is made; and an officer who refuses to answer a question relative to the 5 reason for such arrest, or answers such question untruly, or assigns to 6 the person arrested an untrue reason for the arrest, or neglects upon 7 request to exhibit to the person arrested, or to any other person acting 8 in his behalf, the precept by virtue of which such arrest has been made, 9 shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by 10 imprisonment for not more than one year.

Person arrested to be informed of charge. 1852, 224, § 1. G. S. 158, § 1. P. S. 200, § 1. R. L. 205, § 1. 253 Mass. 509.

Penalty for arrest on false pretence. 1852, 224, § 2. G. S. 158, § 2. P. S. 200, § 2. R. L. 205, § 2.

SECTION 2. An officer who arrests or takes into or detains in custody a person, pretending to have a process if he has none, or pretending to have a different process from that which he has, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

Action for false imprisonment limited. 1914, 126.

SECTION 3. No action, except for use of excessive force, shall lie against any officer other than the arresting officer, by reason of the fact that, in good faith and in the performance of his duties, he participates in the arrest or imprisonment of any person believed to be guilty of a crime unless it can be shown that such other officer in the performance of his duties took an active part in the arrest or imprisonment as aforesaid, either by ordering or directing that said arrest or imprisonment take place or be made, or by actually initiating the making and carrying out of said arrest and imprisonment. No action, except for use of excessive force, shall lie against any bystander assisting an officer in making an arrest, at the request of the officer.

Prosecution of crimes. Decl. of Rights, art 12. (Const. Rev. art. 12.) R. S. 123, § 1.

SECTION 4. No person shall be held to answer in any court for an alleged crime, except upon an indictment by a grand jury or upon a complaint before a district court or trial justice or in proceedings before a court-martial.

G. S. 158, § 3. P. S. 200, § 3. R. L. 205, § 3.

Accused entitled to counsel, etc. Decl. of Rights, art 12. (Const. Rev. art. 12.)

SECTION 5. A person accused of crime shall at his trial be allowed to be heard by counsel, to defend himself, to produce witnesses and proofs in his favor and to meet the witnesses produced against him face to face.

R. S. 123, § 2. G. S. 158, § 4. P. S. 200, § 4. R. L. 205, § 4.

Persons indicted, how convicted. Waiver of right to trial by jury. R. S. 123, § 3. G. S. 158, § 5. P. S. 200, § 5. R. L. 205, § 5. 1929, 185, § 1.

SECTION 6. A person indicted for a crime shall not be convicted thereof except by confessing his guilt in open court, by admitting the truth of the charge against him by his plea or demurrer or by the verdict of a jury accepted and recorded by the court or, in any criminal case other than a capital case, by judgment of the court rendered as hereinafter provided. Any defendant in the superior court in a criminal case other than a capital case, whether begun by indictment or upon complaint, may, if he shall so elect, when called upon to plead, or later and before a jury has been impanelled to try him upon such indictment or complaint, waive his right to trial by jury by signing a written waiver thereof and filing the same with the clerk of the court, whereupon he shall be tried by the court instead of by a jury, but not, however, unless all the defendants, if there are two or more, shall have exercised such election before a jury has been impanelled to try any of the defendants; and in every such case the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and try such cause and render judgment and sentence thereon.

When former acquittal a bar R. S. 123, § 4. G. S. 158, § 6. P. S. 200, § 6. R. L. 205, § 6. 12 Gray, 171. 111 Mass. 404. 113 Mass. 200. 160 Mass. 276.

SECTION 7. A person shall not be held to answer on a second indictment or complaint for a crime of which he has been acquitted upon the facts and merits; but he may plead such acquittal in bar of any subsequent prosecution for the same crime, notwithstanding any defect in the form or substance of the indictment or complaint on which he was acquitted.

220 Mass. 142. 241 Mass. 131. 254 Mass. 560. 255 Mass. 317.

1 SECTION 8. If a person has been acquitted by reason of a variance
 2 between the indictment or complaint and the proof, or by reason of a 3 defect of form or substance in the indictment or complaint, he may be 4 again arraigned, tried and convicted for the same crime on a new indict-
 5 ment or complaint, notwithstanding such former acquittal.

When former acquittal not

1 SECTION 33. Whoever, with intent to defraud, obtains by a false
 2 pretence the making, acceptance or endorsement of a bill of exchange
 3 or promissory note, the release or substitution of collateral or other 4 security, an extension of time for the payment of an obligation, or the 5 release or alteration of the obligation of a written contract, shall be 6 guilty of larceny.

Persons obtaining credit by false pretences to be guilty of larceny.
1913, 312.

SECTION 36. Whoever, with intent to defraud, by a false statement in writing respecting the financial condition, or means or ability to pay, of himself or of any other person, obtains credit from any bank or trust company or any banking institution accustomed to give credit in any form whatsoever, shall be guilty of larceny.

Drawing and uttering fraudulent checks, drafts and orders.
1919, 141.

SECTION 37. Whoever, with intent to defraud, makes, draws, utters or delivers any check, draft or order for the payment of money upon any bank or other depository, with knowledge that the maker or drawer has not sufficient funds or credit at such bank or other depository for the payment of such instrument, although no express representation is made in reference thereto, shall be guilty of attempted larceny, and if money or property is obtained thereby shall be guilty of larceny. As against the maker or drawer thereof, the making, drawing, uttering or delivery of such a check, draft or order, payment of which is refused by the drawee, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and of knowledge of insufficient funds in, or credit with, such bank or other depository, unless the maker or drawer shall have paid the holder thereof the amount due thereon, together with all costs and protest fees, within ten days after receiving notice that such check, draft or order has not been paid by the drawee. The word "credit", as used herein, shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the bank or depository for the payment of such check, draft or order.

Wrongful detention of money by carriers and their employees.
1919, 188.

SECTION 38. Whoever, being engaged in the business of transporting merchandise, parcels or other property for hire, accepts from a consignor or his agent or from a connecting carrier any merchandise, parcel or other property for delivery to a consignee upon payment by the consignee of an amount of money for said merchandise, parcel or other property, and embezzles or fraudulently converts to his own use, or with intent to use or embezzle, takes, secretes or otherwise disposes of, or fraudulently withholds, appropriates, lends, invests or otherwise uses or applies such money in whole or in part or any substitute therefor received by him from such consignee, contrary to the instructions or without the consent of the consignor, shall be deemed guilty of larceny. A member or employee of a co-partnership, or an officer or employee of a corporation, engaged in said business of transporting merchandise, parcels or other property for hire who so disposes of such money in whole or in part or any substitute therefor for his own use or for the use of said co-partnership or corporation, contrary to the instructions or without the consent of the consignor, shall be guilty of larceny.

Misuse of construction loans.
1928, 351.

SECTION 38A. Whoever obtains a building or construction loan, secured by a mortgage of real estate, for the payment for labor furnished or to be furnished and/or materials used and/or employed or to be used

4 and/or employed in the construction, repair, removal or alteration of 5 a building or other structure which is attached or is to be attached to 6 such real estate, and, before payment in full for all labor furnished or 7 to be furnished and/or materials used or to be used and or employed 8 or to be employed as aforesaid, applies the proceeds of such loan, or any 9 part thereof, to any use other than payment for labor and/or materials
 10 as aforesaid, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred 11 dollars or by imprisonment in jail for not more than one year, or both.

1 SECTION 39. Whoever steals or for any fraudulent purpose destroys,
 2 mutilates or conceals a will, codicil or other testamentary instrument
 3 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 4 five years or in the house of correction for not more than two years. An 5 indictment for a violation of this section need not contain any allegation 6 of value or ownership; and in the trial of such an indictment, no dis-
 7 closure made by any person under section fourteen of chapter one hun-
 8 dred and ninety-one shall be used in evidence against him.

SECTION 44. Whoever by a trespass, with intent to steal, takes and carries away anything which is parcel of the realty or is annexed thereto, the property of another and of value, against his will, shall be guilty of such simple or aggravated larceny as he would be guilty of if such property were personal property. Any person may become an accessory to such larceny before or after the fact, or may become a receiver of the property stolen, in like manner as if the property stolen were personal, and shall be punished accordingly. The same courts and justices as would have jurisdiction if the property stolen were personal property shall have jurisdiction of such crimes.

Same subject. 1851, 151, §§ 4, 5. G. S. 161, §§ 28, 29. P. S. 203, §§ 30, 31. R. L. 208, § 36.

SECTION 45. The stealing of such real property may be a larceny from one or more tenants, sole, joint or in common, in fee, for life or years, at will or sufferance, mortgagors or mortgagees, in possession of the same, or who may have an action of tort against the offender for trespass upon the property, but not from one having only the use or custody thereof. The larceny may be from a wife in possession, if she is authorized by law to hold such property as if sole, otherwise her occupation may be the possession of the husband. If such property which was of a person deceased is stolen, it may be a larceny from any one or more heirs, devisees, reversioners, remaindermen or others, who have a right upon such decease to take possession, but not having entered, as it would be after entry. The larceny may be from a person whose name is unknown, if it would be such if the property stolen were personal, and may be committed by those who have only the use or custody of the property, but not by a person against whom no action of tort could be maintained for acts like those constituting the larceny.

SECTION 47. Whoever wrongfully removes the collar from or steals a dog which is licensed and collared as provided in chapter one hundred and forty shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by six months' imprisonment, or both. Whoever distributes or exposes a poisonous substance, with intent that it shall be eaten by a dog, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars.

SECTION 2. Whoever sells arsenic (arsenious acid), atropia or any of its salts, chloral hydrate, chloroform, cotton root or its fluid extract, corrosive sublimate, cyanide of potassium, Donovan's solution, ergot or its fluid extract, Fowler's solution, oil of pennyroyal, oil of savin, oil of tansy, Paris green, Parson's vermin exterminator, phosphorus, prussic acid, "rough on rats", strychnia or any of its salts, tartar emetic, tincture of aconite, tincture of belladonna, tincture of digitalis, tincture of nux vomica, tincture of veratrum viride, compounds of fluorine, or carbolic acid, without the written prescription of a physician, shall affix to the bottle, box or wrapper containing the article sold a label of red paper upon which shall be printed in large black letters the name

12 and place of business of the vendor and the words "POISON" and 13 "ANTIDOTE", and the label shall also contain the name of an antidote, 14 if any, for the poison sold. He shall also keep a record of the name and 15 quantity of the article sold and of the name and residence of the person 16 or persons to whom it was delivered, which shall be made before the 17 article is delivered, and shall be open to inspection by the officers of 18 the state police and by the police authorities and officers of towns.
 19 Whoever neglects to affix such label to such bottle, box or wrapper be-20 fore delivery thereof to the purchaser, or whoever neglects to keep or 21 refuses to show to said officers such record, or whoever purchases any 22 of said poisons and gives a false or fictitious name to the vendor shall 23 be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. This section shall 24 not apply to sales made by wholesale dealers or manufacturing chemists
 25 to retail dealers; or to a general merchant who sells Paris green, London 26 purple or other arsenical poisons in unbroken packages containing not 27 less than one quarter of a pound, for the sole purpose of destroying po-28 tato bugs or other insects upon plants, vines or trees, except that he shall 29 record each sale and label each package sold as above provided; or to 30 sales of compounds containing not more than fifty per cent of sodium 31 fluoride intended solely for the destruction of roaches, ants or other 32 household insects, when sold in sealed metal packages containing not 33 less than one fourth of a pound, plainly labelled in such a manner as to 34 show the purposes for which the preparation was intended.

1 SECTION 2A. No person shall sell, exchange, deliver or have in his
 2 possession with intent to sell, exchange or deliver any dangerous caustic
 3 or corrosive substance designed for household use unless there is affixed
 4 to the bottle, box, wrapper or other container containing such substance 5 a conspicuous and easily legible label conforming to the provisions of 6 federal law regulating the distribution and sale thereof in interstate and 7 foreign commerce.

Distribution,
 etc., of certain dangerous caustic or corrosive substances for household use.
 1927, 224, § 1

8 In this section, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires,
 9 the term "dangerous caustic or corrosive substance" means: hydrochloric
 10 acid and any preparation containing free or chemically unneutralized 11 hydrochloric acid in a concentration of ten per centum or more; sul-12 phuric acid and any preparation containing free or chemically unneutral-
 13 ized sulphuric acid in a concentration of ten per centum or more; nitric
 14 acid or any preparation containing free or chemically unneutralized nitric 15 acid in a concentration of five per centum or more; carbolic acid, other-16 wise known as phenol, and any preparation containing carbolic acid in a 17 concentration of five per centum or more; oxalic acid and any prepara-18 tion containing free or chemically unneutralized oxalic acid in a concen-19 tration of ten per centum or more; any salt of oxalic acid and any prepa-
 20 ration containing any such salt in a concentration of ten per centum or 21 more; acetic acid or any preparation containing free or chemically un-22 neutralized acetic acid in a concentration of twenty per centum or more;
 23 hypochlorous acid, either free or combined, and any preparation con-
 24 taining the same in a concentration so as to yield ten per centum or more
 25 by weight of available chlorine, excluding calx chlorinata, bleaching
 26 powder, and chloride of lime; potassium hydroxide and any preparation 27 containing free or chemically unneutralized potassium hydroxide, includ-
 28 ing caustic potash and Vienna paste, in a concentration of ten per centum 29 or more; sodium hydroxide and any preparation containing free or 30 chemically unneutralized sodium hydroxide, including caustic soda and lye, in a concentration of ten per centum or more; silver nitrate, some- 31 times known as lunar caustic, and any preparation containing silver 32 nitrate in a concentration of five per centum or more; and ammonia 33 water and any preparation yielding free or chemically uncombined 34 ammonia including ammonium hydroxide in a concentration of five per 35 centum or more. 36

Any person violating any provision of this section shall be punished by 37 a fine of not more than fifty dollars; but no person shall be prosecuted 38 hereunder if the substance is marked as it was when purchased by him 39 and he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber or 40 manufacturer from whom he purchased such substance, to the effect that 41 the same is correctly marked as required by this section, designating it. 42
 Such guaranty, to afford protection, shall contain the names and ad- 43 dresses of the parties making the sale of such substances to such person. 44

Products for household cleaning and washing purposes subject to this 45 section, if labelled in accordance therewith, may be sold, offered for sale, 46 held for sale and distributed in this commonwealth by any dealer, whole- 47 sale or retail. 48

Distribution,
 etc., of harmful or injurious medicines, etc., prohibited.

SECTION 4. Whoever, himself, or by his servant or agent, or as the 1 servant or agent of another, sells or exchanges, or has in his possession 2 with intent to sell or exchange, or knowingly delivers or has in his pos- 3 session with intent to deliver, any article of food or drink, or any drug 4 intended for internal use, containing any wood alcohol, otherwise known 5 as methyl alcohol, either crude or refined, under or by whatever name or 6 trade mark the same may be called or known, shall be punished by a 7 fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in a jail 8 or house of correction for not more than two and one half years or in 9 the state prison for not more than five years, or by both such fine and 10 imprisonment. 11

Sale or delivery of liquor, etc., to patients in certain hospitals for-bidden, etc.
 1911, 30.

SECTION 5. Whoever, except under the direction of a physician, 1 gives, sells or delivers spirituous or intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug 2 to a patient in any hospital who is suffering from inebriety or from the 3 effect of inebriety, or from excessive use of narcotic drugs or from the 4 effect of such use, and whoever has in his possession within the pre- 5 cincts of any hospital any such liquor or drug with intent to convey or 6

SECTION 17. Whoever keeps a building or room, or any part thereof, or occupies, or is found in, any place, way, public or private, park or parkway, or any open space, public or private, or any portion thereof, with apparatus, books or any device, for registering bets, or buying or selling pools, upon the result of a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance of man, beast, bird or machine, or upon the result of a game, competition, political nomination, appointment or election, or whoever is present in such place, way, park or parkway, or any such open space, or any portion thereof, engaged in such business or employment; or, being such keeper, occupant, person found or person present, as aforesaid, registers such bets, or buys or sells such pools, or is concerned in buying or selling the same; or, being the owner, lessee or occupant of a building or room, or part thereof, or private grounds, knowingly permits the same to be used or occupied for any such purpose, or therein keeps, exhibits, uses or employs, or knowingly permits to be therein kept, exhibited, used or employed, any device or apparatus for registering such bets, or for buying or selling such pools, or whoever becomes the custodian or depositary for hire, reward, commission or compensation in any manner, of any pools, money, property or thing of value, in any manner staked or bet upon such result, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

1 SECTION 18. Whoever keeps, sets up, promotes or is concerned as 2 owner, agent, clerk or in any other manner, in managing a policy lottery
 3 or policy shop, or writes, prints, sells, transfers or delivers a ticket, cer-
 4 tificate, slip, bill, token or other device, purporting or designed to guar-
 5 antee or assure to a person, or to entitle him to a chance of drawing or 6 obtaining a prize or thing of value in a lottery or in the game or device
 7 commonly known as policy lottery or policy, whether drawn or deter-8 mined, or remaining to be drawn or determined, or who receives from a 9 person any money or other thing of value for such article or chance; or 10 for himself or another writes, prints, sells, transfers or delivers or has 11 in his possession for the purpose of sale, transfer or delivery, or in any 12 way aids in selling, exchanging, negotiating, transferring or delivering a 13 chance or ticket in a lottery, or in the game or device commonly known 14 as policy lottery or policy, whether drawn or to be drawn, or any such 15 bill, slip, certificate, token or other device, shall be punished by a fine of 16 not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more 17 than one year.

 hibited.
 1892, 409, § 1.
 1895, 419, § 7.
 R. L. 214, § 18.

1 SECTION 19. The printing, writing, advertising, issuing or delivery
 2 of any ticket, paper, document or other article or material representing 3 or purporting to represent the existence of or any chance or interest in any 4 lottery, policy lottery or policy game, pool or pools, registered or other
 5 bet or other game or hazard, whether drawn or determined, or remaining 6 to be drawn or determined, or the receiving of money or other thing of 7 value for such article or chance, shall be prima facie evidence of the 8 existence, location and drawing of such lottery, policy lottery or policy
 9 game, and of the act or event upon which such pool or pools, bet, game 10 or hazard depends or may depend, and of the unlawful character of such 11 lottery, policy lottery, pool, bet, game or hazard, and the issuing or 12 delivery of such ticket, paper, document or other article or material 13 shall be prima facie evidence of value received therefor by the person, 14 company or corporation issuing or delivering the same, or aiding or 15 abetting therein, and that such person, company or corporation is con-
 16 cerned in keeping, managing or promoting such lottery, pool, bet, game 17 or hazard.

 evidence.
 1892, 409, § 2.
 1895, 419, § 8.
 R. L. 214, § 19.

1 SECTION 20. All lottery, policy or pool tickets, slips or checks, 2 memoranda of any combination or other bet, manifold or other policy or 3 pool books or sheets, are hereby declared a common nuisance and the 4 possession thereof unlawful; and the possession of any such article, or 5 of any other implements, apparatus or materials of any other form of 6 gaming, shall be prima facie evidence of their use, by the person having 7 them in possession, in the form of gaming in which like articles are com-
 8 monly used. Any such article found upon the person of one lawfully 9 arrested for violation of any law relative to lotteries, policy lotteries
 10 or policy, the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets or other 11 form of gaming shall be competent evidence upon the trial of a com-
 12 plaint or indictment to which it may be relevant. If a person so arrested 13 in a building or structure or part thereof conceals or attempts to conceal 14 such articles upon his person or elsewhere, the possession and concealment 15 or attempt at concealment thereof shall be prima facie evidence that 16 the place in which the same occurs is kept, maintained, used or occu-17 pied for the form of gaming in which like articles are commonly used.

SECTION 21. In a prosecution or proceeding relative to lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, buying and selling pools or registered bets, any words, figures or characters, written, printed or exposed upon a blackboard, placard or otherwise, in a place alleged to be used or occupied for such business, purporting or appearing to be a name of a horse or jockey, or a description of or reference to a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance of man, beast, bird or machine, or game, competition, political nomination, appointment or election, or other act or event, or any odds, bet, combination bet or other stake or wager, or any code, cipher or substitute therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the race, game, contest or other act or event so purporting or appearing to be referred to, and that such place is kept or occupied for gaming; and in all cases the same may be proved by a copy or by oral description thereof.

Penalty for delivery, etc., of certain letters, etc. 1895, 419, § 5. R. L. 214, § 22.

SECTION 22. Whoever receives a letter, package or parcel for delivery to or transportation from a person, or delivers or transports the same to or from a person, having reasonable cause to believe that such person is engaged or in any way concerned in the management or promotion of or agency for a lottery, or the game known as policy lottery or policy, or the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets, or other form of gaming, and that such letter, package or parcel has relation to such business, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars; but this section shall not apply to the receipt, carriage or delivery of United States mail matter by an officer or employee thereof.

Charity whists, etc. 1931, 331.

SECTION 22A. Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the prosecution, arrest or conviction of any person for conducting or promoting, or for allowing to be conducted or promoted, a game of cards commonly called whist or bridge, in connection with which prizes are offered to be won by chance: provided, that the proceeds of the charges for admission to such game are donated solely to charitable, civic, educational, fraternal or religious purposes.

Common gaming houses, etc., to be entered and certain persons arrested. 1834, 172. R. S. 50, § 19. 1857, 194, § 3. G. S. 85, § 8. 1869, 364, § 1. P. S. 99, § 10. 1883, 120. 1887, 448, § 2. 1895, 419, § 9. R. L. 214, § 23. 11 Met. 79. 141 Mass. 106. 165 Mass. 40. 166 Mass. 370.

SECTION 23. If a person makes oath before a district court or a trial justice that he suspects or has probable cause to suspect that a house or other building, room or place is used as and for a common gaming house, for gaming for money or other property, or is occupied, used or kept for promoting a lottery, or for the sale of lottery tickets, or for promoting the game known as policy lottery or policy, or for the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets upon any race, game, contest, act or event, and that persons resort thereto for any such purpose, such court or trial justice, whether the names of the persons last mentioned are known to the complainant or not, shall, if satisfactory evidence is presented, issue a warrant commanding the sheriff or his deputy or any constable or police officer to enter such house, building, room or place, and to arrest the keepers thereof, all persons in any way assisting in keeping the same, whether as janitor, doorkeeper, watchman or otherwise, all persons who are there found participating in any form of gaming and all persons present whether so participating or not, if any lottery, policy or pool tickets, slips, checks, manifold books or sheets, memoranda of any bet, or other implements, apparatus or materials of any form of gaming are found in said place, and to take into their custody all the implements, 19

20 apparatus or materials of gaming, as aforesaid, and all the personal 21 property, furniture and fixtures there found, and to keep said persons, 22 implements, apparatus or materials, property, furniture and fixtures so 23 that they may be forthcoming before some court or magistrate to be 24 dealt with according to law. The provisions of chapter two hundred 25 and seventy-six relative to disposal of gaming articles seized upon search 26 warrants shall apply to all articles and property seized as herein pro-27 vided for.

1 SECTION 24. This chapter shall not authorize the arrest or convic-
 2 tion of the owner or proprietor of a race track or trotting course for the 3 reason that another person has without his knowledge or consent violated 4 any of its provisions relative to the buying and selling of pools or the 5 registering or making of bets or to any offence mentioned in the preced-
 6 ing section; nor the arrest or conviction of a person for being present
 7 on a race track or trotting course where pools are sold or bets registered 8 or made on trials of speed or endurance between horses or other animals;
 9 but this exception shall not apply to a person in any way participating or 10 assisting in the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets.

1 SECTION 25. If a captain of police in Boston or marshal or chief of 2 police in any other city or town in the commonwealth finds that access 3 to any building, apartment or place which he has reasonable cause to 4 believe is resorted to for the purpose of unlawful gaming is barred by 5 any obstruction, such as a door, window, shutter, screen, bar or grat-6 ing of unusual strength, other than what is usual in ordinary places of 7 business, or any unnecessary number of doors, windows or obstructions,
 8 he shall order the same removed by the owner or agent of the building
 9 where such obstruction exists, and if any of said officers cannot find 10 either of the persons mentioned, so as to make personal service, said 11 notice shall be posted upon the outside of the apartments and on the 12 outside of said building, and upon the neglect to remove such obstruc-13 tion for seven days from the date of said order or posting of said notices, 14 any of said officers shall cause such obstruction to be removed from such 15 building, and the expense of such removal shall be a lien on said building
 16 and be collected by the officer removing such obstruction, in the manner 17 in which a mechanic's lien is collected.

 1892, 388, § 1
 R. L. 214, § 25.

1 SECTION 26. If, within one year after removal of said obstruction,
 2 the premises are again obstructed as above defined, the captain of police 3 or marshal or chief of police shall have the same power of removal as 4 provided in the preceding section, and in addition the owner or agent
 5 when such second order of removal is given, either by personal service 6 or by posting on the building, shall be punished by a fine of not less than 7 two hundred and fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and the amount 8 of said fine shall be a lien upon said building and be collected in like 9 manner as provided in the preceding section. And for every subsequent 10 obstruction as above defined, at any time within two years of the giving 11 of the second notice, as above provided, said officers shall have the same 12 powers as provided in the preceding section for removing the obstruc-
 13 tions, and the owner or agent at the time such third or subsequent order 14 of removal is given, either by personal service or by posting on the build-15 ing, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more 16 than one thousand dollars or may be punished by imprisonment for one

R. L. 214, § 27.
270 Mass. 260.

SECTION 27. Any court or magistrate having criminal jurisdiction 1 may take judicial notice of the general methods and character of lotteries, 2 policy lotteries or the game called policy, pools or combination bets, and 3 the buying and selling of pools and registering of bets. In the trial of a 4 complaint or indictment to which it may be relevant, any lottery, policy 5 or pool ticket, certificate, slip or check, manifold or other policy or pool 6 book or sheet, or memorandum of any pool or sale of pools, or of a bet 7 or odds, or combination bet, or any other implement, apparatus, ma- 8 terials or articles of a character commonly employed in or in connection 9 with lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, the buying or selling of pools or 10 registering of bets, or other form of gaming, shall be prima facie evidence 11 of the existence and unlawful character of a lottery, policy lottery or 12 game, pool or pools, bet, game or hazard, or other form of gaming in 13 which like articles are commonly used, and that such article has relation 14 thereto. 15

nomer, how received.
1895, 419, § 6.
R. L. 214, § 28.
184 Mass. 198.

SECTION 28. No plea of misnomer shall be received to a complaint or 1 indictment for violation of any law relative to lotteries, policy lotteries 2 or policy, the selling of pools or registering of bets, or any form of gam- 3 ing; but the defendant may be arraigned, tried, sentenced and punished 4 under any name by which he is complained of or indicted. No such 5 complaint or indictment shall be abated, quashed or held insufficient 6 by reason of any alleged defect, either of form or substance, if the same 7 is sufficient to enable the defendant to understand the charge and to 8 prepare his defence. No variance between such complaint or indict- 9 ment and the evidence shall be deemed material, unless in some matter 10 of substance essential to the charge under the rule above prescribed. 11

SECTION 29. Whoever sells, exchanges or disposes of any property, 1 or offers or attempts so to do, upon a representation, advertisement, 2 notice or inducement that anything other than what is specifically 3 stated to be the subject of the sale or exchange is or is to be delivered 4 or received, or is in any way connected with or is a part of the transaction, 5 or whoever gives a stamp, coupon or other device which entitles a pur- 6 chaser to demand or receive from a person or company other than the 7 merchant dealing in the goods purchased or the manufacturer thereof, 8 any other property than that actually sold or exchanged, or whoever 9 delivers by any person or company other than the merchant dealing in 10 the goods purchased, or the manufacturer thereof, goods, wares or mer- 11 chandise upon the presentation of such stamp, coupon or other device, 12 shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than five hundred 13 dollars. 14

Sale, etc., of trading stamps, etc., prohibited—
1903, 386.

SECTION 30. Whoever, in connection with the sale of any article or 1 any merchandise whatsoever, sells, gives or delivers any trading stamps, 2 checks, coupons or similar devices to be exchanged for, or to be redeemed 3 by the giving of, any indefinite or undescribed article, the nature and 4 value of which are not stated, or to be exchanged for, or to be redeemed 5

6 by the giving of, any article not distinctly bargained for at the time when 7 such trading stamps or other devices as aforesaid were sold, given or 8 delivered, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than 9 fifty dollars.

1 SECTION 31. Whoever, except in trials of speed of horses for premiums
 2 offered by legally constituted agricultural societies, or by corporations au-
 3 thorized thereto by section fourteen of chapter one hundred and eighty,
 4 engages in racing, running, trotting or pacing a horse or other animal 5 of the horse kind for a bet, wager of money or other thing of value or 6 a purse or stake made within the commonwealth, or whoever aids or 7 abets therein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand 8 dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

1 SECTION 32. Whoever, for the purpose of competing for a purse or 2 premium offered by an agricultural society, or by a person or associa-
 3 tion in the commonwealth, knowingly and designedly enters or drives a 4 horse that is painted or disguised, or is a different horse from the one 5 that purports to be entered or driven, or knowingly and designedly, for 6 the purpose of competing for a premium or purse, enters or drives a 7 horse in a class to which it does not belong, shall be punished by a fine
 8 of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more 9 than six months.

 2 race ground or trotting park without the previous consent of and location
 3 by the mayor and aldermen or selectmen, who may regulate and alter 4 the terms and conditions under which the same shall be laid out, used or 5 continued in use and may discontinue the same when in their judgment 6 the public good so requires; and no land shall be used for any of the 7 purposes declared unlawful in section thirty-one.

1 SECTION 35. The following words and phrases used in this and the 2 three following sections of this chapter shall, unless a different meaning 3 is required by the context, have the following meanings:
 4 "Person", an individual, partnership, corporation or association,
 5 whether acting in his or their own right or as the officer, agent, serv-
 6 ant, correspondent or representative of another.
 7 "Contract", any agreement, trade or transaction.
 8 "Securities", all evidences of debt or property and options for the 9 purchase and sale thereof, shares in any corporation, joint stock com-10 pany or association, bonds, coupons, scrip, rights, choses in action and 11 other evidences of debt or property and options for the purchase or sale 12 thereof.

Certain words and phrases defined as applied to bucket shops.
 1907, 414, § 1

“Commodities”, anything movable that is bought and sold.	13
“Bucket shop”, any room, office, store, building or other place where any contract prohibited by the following section is made or offered to be made.	14 15 16
“Keeper”, any person owning, keeping, managing, operating or promoting a bucket shop, or assisting to keep, manage, operate or promote a bucket shop.	17 18 19
“Bucketing” or “Bucket-shopping”,	20
(a) The making of, or offering to make, any contract respecting the purchase or sale, either upon credit or upon margin, of any securities or commodities, wherein both parties thereto intend, or such keeper intends, that such contract shall be, or may be, terminated, closed or settled according to, or upon the basis of, the public market quotations of prices made on any board of trade or exchange upon which said securities or commodities are dealt in, and without a bona fide purchase or sale of the same; or	21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28
(b) The making of, or offering to make, any contract respecting the purchase or sale, either upon credit or upon margin, of any securities or commodities, wherein both parties intend, or such keeper intends, that such contract shall be, or may be, deemed terminated, closed or settled, when such public market quotations of prices for the securities or commodities named in such contract shall reach a certain figure without a bona fide purchase or sale of the same; or	29 30 31 32 33 34 35
(c) The making of, or offering to make, any contract respecting the purchase or sale, either upon credit or upon margin, of any securities or commodities, wherein both parties do not intend, or such keeper does not intend, the actual or bona fide receipt or delivery of such securities or commodities, but do intend, or such keeper does intend, a settlement of such contract based upon the differences in such public market quotations of prices at which said securities or commodities are, or are asserted to be, bought and sold.	36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43

Penalty for keeping a bucket shop, and jurisdiction to dissolve such corporation 1907, 414, § 2. 253 Mass. 65

SECTION 36. Whoever makes, or offers to make, any contract of bucketing or bucket-shopping, or who is the keeper of any bucket shop, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year. Whoever shall be convicted of a second offence shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years. The continuing of the keeping of a bucket shop, by any person, after the first conviction therefor, shall be deemed a second offence hereunder. If a domestic corporation shall be convicted of a second offence, the supreme judicial court may, upon an information in equity in the name of the attorney general, at the relation of the commissioner of corporations and taxation, dissolve the corporation; and if a foreign corporation shall be convicted of a second offence, the supreme judicial court may, in the same manner, restrain it from doing business in this commonwealth.

Penalty for communicating, etc., to make prohibited contracts 1907, 414, § 3.

SECTION 37. Whoever shall communicate, receive, exhibit or display in any manner any statement of quotations of prices of any securities or commodities with an intent to make, or offer to make, or to aid in making, or offering to make, any contract prohibited by the preceding section shall be punished as provided therein.

1 SECTION 38. Every person shall furnish, upon demand, to any cus-
 2 tomer or principal for whom such person has executed any order for 3 the actual purchase or sale of any securities or commodities, either for 4 immediate or future delivery, a written statement containing the names 5 of the persons from whom such property was bought, or to whom it has 6 been sold, as the fact may be, the time when, place where and the price
 7 at which the same was either bought or sold; and if such person refuses 8 or neglects to furnish such statement within twenty-four hours after 9 such demand, such refusal or neglect shall be prima facie evidence that 10 such purchase or sale was bucketing or bucket-shopping.

Written statement to be furnished in certain cases. 1907, 414, § 4

1 SECTION 39. Whoever corruptly gives, offers or promises to an agent, 2 employee or servant any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to in-
 3 fluence his action in relation to the business of his principal, employer 4 or master; or an agent, employee or servant who corruptly requests or 5 accepts a gift or gratuity or a promise to make a gift or to do an act
 6 beneficial to himself, under an agreement or with an understanding that 7 he shall act in any particular manner in relation to the business of his 8 principal, employer or master; or an agent, employee or servant who,
 9 being authorized to procure materials, supplies or other articles either 10 by purchase or contract for his principal, employer or master, or to 11 employ service or labor for his principal, employer or master, receives 12 directly or indirectly, for himself or for another, a commission, discount 13 or bonus from the person who makes such sale or contract, or furnishes 14 such materials, supplies or other articles, or from a person who renders 15 such service or labor; and any person who gives or offers such an agent, 16 employee or servant such commission, discount or bonus, shall be punished 17 by a fine of not less than ten nor more than five hundred dollars or by 18 such fine and by imprisonment for not more than one year; except that 19 if the person who commits the said offence acts as agent or officer of any 20 person, to employ persons as clerks, laborers or otherwise, the offence 21 shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than 22 five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more 23 than three years. The district attorneys in their respective districts 24 shall prosecute all violations of this section. No person shall be excused 25 from attending, testifying or producing books, papers, contracts, agree-
 26 ments and documents before any court or in obedience to the subpoena 27 of any court having jurisdiction of the offence described herein on the 28 ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary 29 or otherwise, required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him 30 to a penalty or forfeiture. But no person shall be liable to any suit or 31 prosecution, civil or criminal, for or on account of any transaction, matter 32 or thing concerning which he may testify or produce evidence, documen-33 tary or otherwise, before said court or in obedience to its subpoena or in 34 any such case or proceeding.

SECTION 81. Railroad corporations shall not permit animals carried or transported by them to be confined in cars longer than twenty-eight consecutive hours without unloading them for at least five consecutive hours for rest, water and feeding, unless prevented by storm or accident. In estimating such confinement, the time during which the animals have been confined without such rest on connecting roads from which they are received shall be included. Animals so unloaded shall during such rest be properly fed, watered and sheltered by the owner or person having the custody of them, or, in case of his default, by the railroad corporation

10 transporting them, at the expense of said owner or person in custody
 11 thereof. In such case the corporation shall have a lien upon such animals 12 for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for such 13 detention. A corporation, owner or eustodian of such animals failing to 14 comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than one 15 hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. This section shall not apply 16 to animals carried in cars in which they can and do have proper food, 17 water, space and opportunity for rest.

1 SECTION 82. A person found violating any provision of section
 2 seventy-seven or eighty-one may be arrested and held without a warrant 3 as provided in section fifty-four; the person making an arrest with or 4 without a warrant shall use reasonable diligence to give notice thereof to 5 the owner of animals found in the charge or custody of the person arrested,
 6 shall properly care and provide for such animals until the owner thereof
 7 takes charge of them, not, however, exceeding sixty days from the date 8 of said notice, and shall have a lien on said animals for the expense of 9 such care and provision.

 2 to issue warrants in criminal cases that the complainant has reasonable 3 cause to believe that the laws relative to cruelty to animals have been or 4 are violated in any particular building or place, such court or magistrate,
 5 if satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue a 6 search warrant authorizing any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or police 7 officer to search such building or place; but no such search shall be made 8 after sunset, unless specially authorized by the magistrate upon satisfac-
 9 tory cause shown.

 3 justice for a decree of forfeiture of the same; and if, upon the hearing
 4 of such application, notice thereof having been previously given as the 5 justice or court orders, it shall be found that such birds, dogs or other 6 animals, or any of them, at the time of such seizure were engaged in 7 fighting at an exhibition thereof, or were owned, kept, possessed or 8 trained by any person with the intent that they should be so engaged, 9 such birds, dogs or other animals shall be adjudged forfeited and such 10 justice or court shall thereupon, unless an appeal is taken as provided 11 in the following section, issue an order for killing them, which shall be 12 directed to any officer authorized to serve criminal process; and the 13 officer receiving said order shall cause such birds, dogs or other animals 14 to be killed within twenty-four hours thereafter. Birds, dogs or other 15 animals seized as hereinbefore provided, which are not adjudged for-16 feited, shall be delivered to the owner or person entitled to the posses-

SECTION 1. Any husband or father who without just cause deserts his wife or minor child, whether by going into another town in the commonwealth or into another state, and leaves them or any or either of them without making reasonable provision for their support, and any husband or father who unreasonably neglects or refuses to provide for the support and maintenance of his wife or minor child, and any husband or father who abandons or leaves his wife or minor child in danger of becoming a burden upon the public, and any mother who deserts or wilfully neglects or refuses to provide for the support and maintenance of her child under the age of sixteen, and any parent whose minor child by reason of the neglect, cruelty, drunkenness, habits of crime or other vice of such parent is growing up without education, or without salutary control, or without proper physical care, or in circumstances exposing such child to lead an idle and dissolute life, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. No civil proceeding in any court shall be held to be a bar to a prosecution hereunder for desertion or non-support. In a prosecution hereunder for desertion or non-support against a husband, a decree or judgment of a probate court in a proceeding in which the husband appeared or was personally served with process, establishing the right of the wife to live apart, or her freedom to convey and deal with her property, or the right to the custody of the children, shall be admissible and shall be prima facie evidence of such right.

SECTION 2. Proceedings under the preceding section shall be begun if in the superior court, in the county in which is situated the place where the husband and wife last lived together or where the husband or wife or parent of the child is living, and, if begun in a district court or before a trial justice, in the court or before the trial justice having such place within its or his judicial district.

1 SECTION 3. The court imposing a fine under section one may at any 2 time order it paid in whole or in part to a probation officer, to be paid
 3 by him to the wife or to the city, town, corporation, society or person
 4 actually supporting the wife, child or children, or to the state treasurer
 5 for the use of the department of public welfare if the child has been

1 SECTION 4. The district court, or a trial justice, at any time after 2 arraignment and before an appeal from such court or trial justice is per-
 3 fected by entry in the superior court, and the superior court at any time
 4 after such entry and before final determination of the case, may, upon 5 motion of the complainant or district attorney and upon notice to the 6 defendant, enter such temporary order as may seem just, providing for 7 the support of the wife, or children, or both, pendente lite, and said order, 8 wherever made, shall continue in force until modified or revoked by the 9 court before which the case is pending. If any such order is made by a 10 district court, or by a trial justice, an appeal to the superior court shall 11 not vacate such order. Violation of an order made by either court may 12 be punished as for a contempt by the court before which the case is then 13 pending.

Orders pendente lite.

 1922, 397.

1 SECTION 5. Before trial, with the consent of the defendant, or after 2 entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or after conviction, if the 3 defendant is placed on probation, with or without suspension of the execu-4 tion of a sentence, the court, having regard to the circumstances and to 5 the financial ability or earning capacity of the defendant, may make an 6 order, which shall be subject to change from time to time as circumstances 7 may require, directing the defendant to pay certain sums periodically,
 8 for a term not exceeding six years, to the probation officer, and may re-9 lease the defendant from custody on probation. The probation officer, 10 subject to the direction of the court, shall pay over payments received by 11 him to the wife or guardian or custodian of the child, or to the city, town, 12 corporation, society or person supporting the wife or child, or to the state 13 treasurer for the use of the department of public welfare when the pay-14 ments are for the support of a child committed to it. If the court be satis-
 15 fied by due proof under oath that at any time the defendant has violated
 16 the terms of the order for payments, it may proceed to try the defendant 17 upon the original charge, or sentence him under the original plea or con-18 viction, or enforce the suspended sentence, as the case may be.

1 SECTION 6. The court, in releasing a defendant from custody on pro-
 2 bation, may in its discretion require him to enter into a recognizance,
 3 with or without surety, in such sum as the court may order. The con-4 dition of the recognizance shall be, that if the defendant shall make his 5 personal appearance in court, whenever ordered to do so, and shall comply 6 with the order for payments, and with any change therein, then the recog-7 nizance shall be void, but otherwise shall be and remain of full force and 8 effect. Suit may be brought upon such recognizance by the district
 9 attorney or any other person authorized by the court. If the defendant 10 is admitted to bail pending trial, and the bail is forfeited, or if a recogni-
 11 zance under this section is forfeited, the court may order that the money
 12 forfeited or recovered be paid in whole or in part to a probation officer,

SECTION 7. No other or greater evidence shall be required to prove the marriage of the husband and wife, or that the defendant is the parent of the child, than may be required to prove the same facts in a civil action. In any prosecution begun under section one, both husband and wife shall be competent witnesses to testify against each other to any relevant matters, including the fact of their marriage and the parentage of the child; provided, that neither shall be compelled to give evidence incriminating himself. Proof of the desertion of the wife or child, or of the neglect or refusal to make reasonable provision for their support and maintenance, shall be prima facie evidence that such desertion, neglect or refusal is wilful and without just cause. In no prosecution under sections one to ten, inclusive, shall any existing statute or rule of law prohibiting the disclosure of confidential communications between husband and wife apply.

4 guilty, against the objection of the defendant, until the child is born
 5 or the court finds that the mother is at least six months pregnant. At 6 the sitting when such adjudication is made by a district court, if made 7 after a plea of not guilty, the defendant may appeal therefrom to the 8 superior court as in other criminal cases. The adjudication, whether any 9 sentence be imposed or not, shall be final and conclusive unless an appeal
 10 therefrom be taken as hereinbefore provided, or, if such adjudication
 11 be made by the superior court, unless set aside upon an appeal taken 12 not later than three days thereafter under section twenty-eight of chap-
 13 ter two hundred and seventy-eight or upon exceptions. Such adjudica-
 14 tion may be entered by the superior court notwithstanding exceptions 15 have been alleged or an appeal has been taken. The court making the 16 adjudication may within one year thereafter grant a new trial for any

1 SECTION 13. No law limiting adjournments or continuances shall 2 apply to any proceedings under sections eleven to nineteen, inclusive.
 3 If the child has not been born at the time of the adjudication, the court 4 shall continue the case from time to time until the child is born. At any 5 time after adjudication, after inquiring into the respective means of the 6 defendant and the mother, the court having jurisdiction of the case may 7 make an order for the payment to the mother or to a probation officer of a 8 sum of money determined by the court for the expenses of the pregnancy 9 and of the confinement of the mother, whether the child is born dead or 10 alive. If the child has died, or subsequently if the child dies, the court 11 may make an order for the payment of its funeral expenses, whether or not 12 other relief is sought. For failure to comply with any such order the 13 court may order the defendant committed to jail, as for a contempt of 14 court, for a term not exceeding two months, unless he shall sooner comply 15 therewith.

 2 as may be considered expedient relative to the care and custody of the 3 child, and from time to time may revise and alter said order, as justice
 4 and the welfare of the child require, which order shall be binding on all 5 persons.

1 SECTION 15. Any father of an illegitimate child, whether begotten
 2 within or without the commonwealth, who neglects or refuses to contribute 3 reasonably to its support and maintenance, shall be guilty of a misde-4 meanor. If there has been any final adjudication of the paternity of the 5 child, such adjudication shall be conclusive on all persons in proceedings
 6 under this section; otherwise, the question of paternity shall be deter-7 mined in proceedings hereunder. The duty to contribute reasonably to 8 the support of such child shall continue during its minority.

1 SECTION 3. Whoever counsels, hires or otherwise procures a felony 2 to be committed may be indicted and convicted as an accessory be-3 fore the fact, either with the principal felon or after his conviction; or 4 may be indicted and convicted of a substantive felony, whether the 5 principal felon has or has not been convicted, or is or is not amenable
 6 to justice; and in the last mentioned case may be punished in the same 7 manner as if convicted of being an accessory before the fact. An acces-8 sory to a felony before the fact may be indicted, tried and punished in 9 the same county where the principal felon might be indicted and tried,

PROCEEDINGS TO PREVENT CRIMES.

SECT.

1. Justices authorized to keep the peace.
2. Complaint of threat to commit crime.
3. Arrest.
4. Penalty. Recognizance to keep the peace.
5. Commitment on failure to recognize, etc.
6. Complainant. When to pay expenses.
7. Payment of expenses.
8. Appeal.
9. Witnesses to recognize.
10. Proceedings on appeal.

SECT.

11. Recognizance to remain in force if appeal is not prosecuted.
12. Discharge from commitment upon recognizing.
13. Recognizance to be transmitted to superior court.
14. Recognizance. When to be required on view of court or justice.
15. Persons who go armed to find sureties for the peace, etc.
16. Remission of penalty.
17. Surrender of principal by surety.

1 SECTION 1. The justices of the supreme judicial court, of the su-
 2 perior court, of district courts and trial justices may cause all laws made
 3 for the preservation of the public peace to be kept; and in the execution
 4 of that power may require persons to give security to keep the peace,
 5 or for their good behavior, or both, as provided in this chapter.

Justices authorized to keep the peace.
 R. S. 134, § 1.
 G. S. 169, § 1.
 P. S. 211, § 1.

1 SECTION 2. If complaint is made to any such court or justice that 2 a person has threatened to commit a crime against the person or property
 3 of another, such court or justice shall examine the complainant and 4 any witnesses who may be produced, on oath, reduce the complaint to 5 writing and cause it to be subscribed by the complainant.

1 SECTION 3. If, upon such examination, it is found there is just 2 cause to fear that such crime may be committed, such court or justice
 3 shall issue a warrant, reciting the substance of the complaint, and re-4 quiring the officer to whom it is directed forthwith to apprehend the 5 person complained of and take him before such justice or some other

4 Mass. 497.
8 Mass. 78.

SECTION 4. If the person complained of is convicted, he may be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months. He may appeal as in other criminal cases, and section twenty-four of chapter two hundred and seventy-eight shall apply to such appeals. Instead of imposing sentence, the court or justice may order the person complained of to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the court or justice orders, to keep the peace toward all the people of the commonwealth, and especially toward the person requiring such security, for such term, not exceeding six months, as the court or justice may order. The court or justice may, for good cause, revoke such order or reduce the amount of the recognizance, or order that it be taken without surety.

If an officer in the execution of a search warrant finds property or articles therein described, he shall seize and safely keep them, under the direction of the court or justice, so long as necessary to permit them to be produced or used as evidence on any trial. As soon as may be afterward, all property seized under clauses one and two of section	1 2 3 4 5

6 one shall be restored to the owner thereof; property seized under clause
 7 three of said section shall be disposed of as the court or justice orders;
 8 property or other articles seized under clause six of said section shall, if 9 upon a hearing the court or justice finds that they were so kept or con-
 10 cealed, be destroyed or disposed of in accordance with section one hun-11 dred and forty-six of chapter ninety-four by the board of health or 12 by an officer designated by the court or justice, otherwise, they shall be 13 returned to the owner; diseased animals seized under clause seven of 14 said section one shall, if upon a hearing the court or justice finds that 15 they were kept or concealed in a particular building, place or enclosure, 16 be destroyed or disposed of by the division of animal industry of the 17 department of conservation, without compensation to the owners thereof, 18 otherwise, they shall be returned to their owners; property seized under 19 clause thirteen of said section one, if found to have been kept for an un-
 20 lawful purpose, shall be forfeited and disposed of as the court or justice 21 orders; and all other articles seized by virtue of such warrants shall be 22 adjudged forfeited and be destroyed or sold as hereinafter provided.

1 SECTION 4. Before a decree of forfeiture of property seized under a 2 search warrant is issued, the court or justice shall, unless otherwise 3 expressly provided, issue a notice under seal, signed by the clerk of the 4 court or by the justice, setting forth the substance of the complaint,
 5 and commanding the persons, if any, in whose possession the articles
 6 were found, and the owner, if alleged, and all other persons who claim
 7 an interest therein, to appear at a time and place therein named to show 8 cause why the articles seized should not be forfeited.

court or trial justice may appeal therefrom to the superior court; but 2 before his appeal is allowed, he shall recognize to the commonwealth 3 in the sum of two hundred dollars, with sufficient surety or sureties, to 4 prosecute his appeal and to pay all such expenses as may thereafter 5 arise, if final judgment is rendered against the articles adjudged forfeited, 6 and to abide the judgment of the superior court thereon; and upon such 7 appeal, any question of fact shall be tried by a jury. All proceedings in 8 the superior court, including the right of exception, shall conform so 9 far as may be to proceedings in criminal cases; and if, upon final judg- 10 ment, the articles are adjudged forfeited, they shall be disposed of under 11 the direction of the superior court as they might have been disposed of 12 had no appeal been taken. 13

SECTION 57. A justice of the supreme judicial or superior court, a clerk of courts or the clerk of the superior court for criminal business in the county of Suffolk, a standing or special commissioner appointed by either of said courts or, in the county of Suffolk, by the sheriff of said county with the approval of the superior court, a justice or clerk of a district court, a master in chancery or a trial justice, upon application of a prisoner or witness held under arrest or committed, either with or without a warrant, or held in the custody of an officer under a mittimus, may inquire into the case and admit such prisoner or witness to bail; and may admit to bail any person committed for not finding sureties to recognize for him. All persons authorized to take bail under this section shall be governed by the rules established by the supreme judicial or superior court. No person offering himself as surety shall be deemed to be insufficient if he deposits money of an amount equal to the amount of the bail required of him in such recognizance, or a bank book of a savings bank or of the savings department of a trust company or national bank, doing business in the commonwealth, properly assigned to the clerk or trial justice with whom the same is or is to be deposited, and his successors, and satisfactory to the person so authorized to take bail, or deposits non-registered bonds of the United States or of the commonwealth or of any county, city or town within the commonwealth equal at their face value to the amount of the bail required of him in such recognizance. The sheriff of Suffolk county may, with the approval of the superior court, appoint standing or special commissioners to take bail to a number not exceeding twenty and may, with like approval, remove them.

Before the amount of bail of a prisoner charged with an offence punishable by imprisonment for more than one year is fixed in court, the court shall obtain from its probation officer all available information relative to prior criminal prosecutions, if any, of the prisoner and to the disposition of each such prosecution.

SECTION 59. After a person is committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury, he shall not be admitted to bail by a master in chancery who does not reside or have a usual place of business within the county where the jail is situated, except upon proof that written notice of the proposed application has been duly served upon the district attorney, or one of the assistant district attorneys, for the district, at least twenty-four hours before a hearing on the application, specifying the name of the person, the crime with which he is charged, the time and place of hearing, and the name, occupation and residence of the proposed sureties, or upon proof that the district attorney, or one of the assistant district attorneys, for the district has waived notice of the hearing on such proposed application.

1 SECTION 60. After a conviction or a plea of guilty or of nolo con-
 2 tendere in the superior court in Suffolk county, the prisoner shall not be 3 admitted to bail except in open court; but when said court is not in ses-
 4 sion, bail may be taken by any judge of a court of record or by any com-
 5 missioner appointed under section fifty-seven, upon proof that written 6 notice of the proposed application has been duly served upon the district
 7 attorney, or one of the assistant district attorneys for the Suffolk district, 8 at least twenty-four hours before the hearing of such application, specify-9 ing the name of the prisoner, the crime of which he has been convicted, 10 the time and place of hearing, and the name, occupation and residence of 11 the proposed sureties. No person who has been once offered and rejected 12 as surety shall afterward be accepted as surety for the same person in the 13 same case.

1 SECTION 61. If bail is taken out of court, the person authorized to 2 admit to bail in criminal cases shall cause a certificate to be signed and 3 sworn to by each surety, which shall contain his name, his residence,
 4 including the name of the street and number, if any, of the dwelling house
 5 thereon, his occupation and place of business, a statement of the nature, 6 location, purchase price, assessed value and fair market value of his 7 property, and of the encumbrances, if any, thereon, the amount of his 8 indebtedness, the amount and number of other bonds or recognizances 9 on which he is or may be liable and all other matters pertinent to the 10 amount and value of such property, each and all of which statements shall 11 be deemed to be material statements in prosecutions for perjury, and 12 shall return such certificate or certificates and a proper recognizance to 13 the proper court. A surety may, instead of making such certificate, give 14 his personal recognizance as surety and deposit money, bonds or a prop-15 erly assigned bank book of the kind and in the amount and under the 16 conditions set forth in section fifty-seven for making deposit of like nature.
 17 A person authorized to take bail shall take such bail in the presence of the 18 person to be bailed and the surety or sureties, except as otherwise provided 19 in section one hundred and five of chapter one hundred and seventy-five.
 20 On the second Monday of each calendar month, every person taking 21 bail out of court shall transmit to the chief justice of the superior court a 22 written statement, setting forth each separate occasion, as defined in 23 section sixty-one B, on which each bail or surety was accepted as aforesaid
 24 during the preceding calendar month, the name and address of each bail 25 or surety, the date of such acceptance, the name of the defendant or 26 defendants, the offense or offenses charged, and the court or trial justice

1 SECTION 61A. Whenever a person becomes bail or surety in a criminal 2 case and has offered real estate as his qualification for his acceptance as 3 such bail or surety, and subsequently and while the case in which he has 4 qualified as bail or surety is pending, desires to dispose of or encumber
 5 such real estate, he shall in writing notify the court in which the case is 6 then pending of his desire, and shall, unless expressly authorized by the 7 court to continue as such bail or surety, terminate his liability as such bail
 8 or surety before he disposes of or encumbers such real estate. Any person 9 violating any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not 10 more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the house of cor-11 rection for not more than one year, or both. Nothing in this section shall

SECTION 61B. No person proposing to become bail or surety in a criminal case for hire or reward, either received or to be received, shall be accepted as such unless he shall have been approved and registered as a professional bondsman by the superior court or a justice thereof. No person proposing to become bail or surety in a criminal case in any calendar year after having become bail or surety in criminal cases on five separate occasions in said year shall be accepted thereafter during said year as bail or surety unless he shall have been approved and registered as a professional bondsman as aforesaid. A person who has been accepted as bail or surety, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall nevertheless be liable on his obligation as such bail or surety. Such approval and registration may be revoked at any time by such court or a justice thereof, and shall be revoked in case such a bondsman fails for thirty days after demand to satisfy in full a judgment recovered under section seventy-four or a new judgment entered on review under section seventy-six. The district attorney or prosecuting officer obtaining any such judgment which is not satisfied in full as aforesaid shall, forthwith upon the expiration of such period of thirty days, notify in writing the chief justice of such court. All professional bondsmen shall be governed by rules which shall be established from time to time by the superior court. Any unregistered person receiving hire or reward for his services as bail or surety in any criminal case, and any unregistered person becoming bail or surety in any criminal case in any calendar year after having become bail or surety in criminal cases on five separate occasions in said year, and any professional bondsman violating any provision of the rules established hereunder for such bondsmen, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. The provisions of this section shall not apply to surety companies or to probation officers.

A person shall be deemed to have become bail or surety on a separate occasion within the meaning of this section if he becomes such: (1) for a person in respect to a single offense; or (2) for a person in respect to two or more offenses wherefor he at one and the same time offers bail or surety, or in respect to two or more offenses committed at the same time or arising out of the same transaction or course of conduct wherefor he at different times offers bail or surety; or (3) for two or more persons at the same time offering bail or surety in respect to offenses committed jointly or in common course of conduct. Becoming bail or surety for the same person or persons in subsequent proceedings in connection with prosecution for the same offense or offenses shall not be deemed an additional occasion or occasions.

SECTION 83. The superior court, the chief justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston, subject to the approval of the associate justices thereof, and the justice of each other district court and of the Boston juvenile court may appoint such male and female probation officers as they may respectively from time to time deem necessary for their respective courts; and if there is more than one probation officer in one court, one of such officers may be designated as chief probation officer. All officers so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the court making the appointment. The compensation of each probation officer appointed by the superior court shall be fixed by that court and by it apportioned from time to time among the counties wherein said officer performs his duties. In the municipal court of the city of Boston the chief justice of said court, subject to the approval of the associate justices thereof, and in other district courts and the Boston juvenile court, the justice thereof, shall fix the compensation of each probation officer appointed for such court, which compensation shall be subject to approval by the county commissioners and shall be paid by the county on vouchers approved respectively by the chief justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston or by the justice of such other district or juvenile courts.

Bonds.
1913, 120.

SECTION 84. Before performing any official duty, each probation officer shall give bond to the county treasurer, in a sum to be fixed and with sufficient sureties to be approved by a justice of the superior court, conditioned to account for and pay, as and when required by law, all moneys or property received by him in the exercise of his official duty. Failure to so give bond shall be sufficient cause for removal from office.

Duties.
1880, 129,
§§ 3-5, 11.

SECTION 85. In addition to the other duties imposed upon him, each probation officer shall, as the court may direct, inquire into the nature

3 of every criminal case brought before the court under the appointment of 4 which he acts, and inform the court, so far as is possible, whether the 5 defendant has previously been convicted of crime and in the case of a 6 criminal prosecution before said court charging a person with an offence
 7 punishable by imprisonment for more than one year the probation officer 8 shall in any event present to the court such information as the board of 9 probation has in its possession relative to prior criminal prosecutions, if 10 any, of such person and to the disposition of each such prosecution, and 11 all other available information relative thereto, before such person is 12 admitted to bail in court and also before disposition of the case against 13 him by sentence, or placing on file or probation. When it comes to the 14 knowledge of a probation officer that the defendant in a criminal case 15 before his court charged with an offence punishable by imprisonment for 16 more than one year is then on probation in another court or is then at 17 liberty on parole or on a permit to be at liberty, such probation officer 18 shall forthwith certify the fact of the presence of the defendant before his 19 court to the probation officer of such other court or the parole authorities 20 granting or issuing such parole or permit to be at liberty, as the case may 21 be. He may recommend to the justice of his own court that any person 22 convicted be placed on probation. He shall perform such other duties 23 as the court requires. He shall keep full records of all cases investigated 24 by him or placed in his care by the court, and of all duties performed by 25 him. Every person released upon probation shall be given by the pro-26 bation officer a written statement of the terms and conditions of the 27 release.

You, as grand jurors of this inquest for the body of this county of do solemnly swear that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge; the commonwealth's counsel, your fellows' and your own, you shall keep seeret; you shall present no man for envy, hatred or malice, neither shall you leave any man un-presented for love, fear, favor, affection or hope of reward; but you shall present things truly, as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; so help you God.

5 The other jurors shall then be called in such divisions as the court con-
 6 siders proper, and the following oath shall be administered to them:

The same oath which your fellows have taken on their part, you and each of you on your behalf shall well and truly observe and keep; so help you God.

1 SECTION 6. If a person who is returned as a grand juror is con-
 2 scientiously scrupulous of taking the oath prescribed, he may affirm.

INDICTMENTS AND COMPLAINTS.

Discharge of prisoner not indicted. SECTION 15. The grand jury shall, during its session, make daily return to the court of all cases wherein it has finally determined not to present an indictment against an accused person held in custody pending its action, and such person shall thereupon forthwith be discharged by order of the court unless he is held on other process. Whoever is held in custody on a charge of crime shall be discharged if he is not indicted before the end of the second sitting of the court at which he is held to answer, unless the court finds that the witnesses for the prosecution have been enticed or kept away, or are detained and prevented from attending the court by illness or accident, and except as provided in the following section.

Commitment if not indicted by reason of insanity. SECTION 16. If the grand jury does not indict a person who is held in custody on a charge of crime by reason of his insanity, they shall so certify to the court, which, if satisfied that he is insane, may order him committed to a state hospital, except the Bridgewater state hospital, under such limitations as it may order; or, if the court finds that he has been a criminal or is of vicious tendency, it may order him committed to the Bridgewater state hospital, and if he is charged with felony his expenses in any such hospital or in any state charitable institution to which he may be transferred shall be paid by the commonwealth.

Contents of indictment. SECTION 17. An indictment shall contain —
 First, The caption, which shall consist of the name of the commonwealth, county and court in which the indictment is presented, and the 4 time of the sitting of the court. One caption shall be sufficient, although 5 the indictment contains more than one count.

 6 Second, A plain and concise description of the act which constitutes 7 the crime, or the appropriate legal term descriptive of such act, without a 8 detailed description thereof. The words used in a statute to define a 9 crime, or other words conveying the same meaning, may be used.

 2 grand jury, he may be described by a fictitious name or by any other 3 practicable description, with an allegation that his real name is unknown.
 4 An indictment of the defendant by a fictitious or erroneous name shall not 5 be ground for abatement; but if at any subsequent stage of the proceed-6 ings his true name is discovered, it shall be entered on the record and may 7 be used in the subsequent proceedings, with a reference to the fact that

 3 of time in the caption shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered as an 4 allegation that the act was committed before the finding of the indict-5 ment, after it became a crime, and within the period of limitations. The 6 name of the county and court in the caption shall, unless otherwise stated, 7 be considered as an allegation that the act was committed within the 8 territorial jurisdiction of the court. All allegations of the indictment 9 shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered to refer to the same time

Compensation of persons discharged in certain cases. 1911, 577. SECTION 73. Any person in the commonwealth kept in confinement 1 awaiting trial for more than six months after having been indicted, and 2 finally acquitted or discharged without trial, if the delay in trial was not 3 at his request or with his consent, or at the request or with the consent 4 of his attorney of record, may receive compensation for the period of his 5 confinement after the lapse of said six months and until his acquittal or 6 discharge; provided, that the payment of compensation is approved by 7 the justice who presided at the trial, or in case of a discharge without trial, 8 by a justice of the superior court sitting at a session for criminal business 9 in and for the county where the indictment was found. Such compen- 10 sation shall be paid by the county where the indictment was found and 11 shall be equivalent to the amount which the indicted person earned or 12 received from his regular employment for any period of equal length 13 during the two years immediately preceding his confinement; and if he 14 had no employment, the compensation shall be such reasonable sum as 15 shall be determined by the justice who presided at the trial, or, in case of 16 a discharge without trial, by a justice of the superior court sitting at a 17 session for criminal business in and for the county where the indictment 18 was found. The justice, upon application by the person acquitted or 19 discharged, shall give a hearing at which such person or his representa- 20 tive may be present, if he so desires, and the district attorney or other 21 officer representing the commonwealth or the county may also be present, 22 and the person acquitted or discharged and the commonwealth or county 23 allegation that, at a certain sitting of a certain court, which shall be set 2 forth, the defendant was lawfully acquitted or convicted, as the case 3 may be, of the same crime with which he is again charged shall be 4 sufficient. 5

Commission to examine witnesses. R. S. 136, § 32. G. S. 171, § 32. SECTION 76. If an issue of fact is joined upon an indictment, the 1 court may, upon application of the defendant, grant a commission to 2 examine any material witnesses residing out of the commonwealth, in 3

4 the same manner as in civil causes; and the prosecuting officer may join murder or manslaughter, or upon an indictment or complaint for any 2 other felony by order of a justice of the superior court made subject to 3 this and the six following sections as provided in section thirty-one, the 4 evidence shall be taken by an official stenographer or by a stenographer 5 appointed by the court, and transcribed in such number of copies as the 6 7 court may direct. The evidence transcribed shall be designated as the 8 "Transcript of the Evidence", shall be certified by the stenographer and 9 shall, with such corrections as are made therein by direction of the court,

 2 sentenced to imprisonment, the court may direct that the execution of 3 the sentence be suspended, and that he be placed on probation for such 4 time and on such terms and conditions as it shall fix. When a person so 5 convicted is sentenced to pay a fine, and to stand committed until it is 6 paid, the court may direct that the execution of the sentence be suspended 7 for such time as it shall fix, and that he be placed on probation on condi-
 8 tion that he pay the fine within such time. If the fine does not exceed 9 fifteen dollars and the court finds that the defendant is unable to pay it 10 when imposed, the execution of the sentence shall be suspended and he 11 shall be placed on probation, unless the court shall find that he will prob-
 12 ably default, or that such suspension will be detrimental to the interests 13 of the public. If he is committed for non-payment of a fine, the order of 14 commitment shall contain a recital of the findings of the court on which 15 suspension is refused. The fine shall be paid in one payment, or in part 16 payments, to the probation officer, and when fully paid the order of com-

SECTION 1A. When a person convicted before a district court is sentenced to fine and imprisonment, the court may direct that the execution of the sentence be suspended as to the fine or the imprisonment or both, and that he be placed on probation for such time and on such terms and conditions as it shall fix; the court may direct, as one of such terms and conditions, that payment of the fine may be made to the probation officer in one payment, or in part payments, during the period of probation or any extension thereof, and when such fine shall have been fully paid the order of commitment as to the fine shall be void, but the order of commitment as to imprisonment shall not be affected by such payment. The probation officer shall give a receipt for every payment so made, shall keep a record of the same, shall pay the fine, or all sums received in part payment thereof, to the clerk of the court at the end of the period of probation or any extension thereof, and shall keep on file the clerk's receipt therefor. If during or at the end of said period the probation officer shall report that the fine is in whole or in part unpaid, and in his opinion the person is unwilling or unable to pay it, the court may either extend said period, place the case on file or revoke the suspension of the execution of the sentence. When such suspension is revoked, in a case where the fine has been paid in part, the defendant may be committed for default in payment of the balance, and may also be committed for the term of imprisonment fixed in the original sentence. This section shall not permit the suspension of the execution of the sentence of any person convicted of a felony if it shall appear that he has been previously convicted of any felony.

2 of the state prison, or by a person acting under his direction, within the 3 week appointed by the court, unless the governor pardons the crime,
4 commutes the punishment therefor or respites the execution or said execu-
5 tion is otherwise delayed by process of law. If the execution is respited or 6 stayed by process of law, the sentence of death shall be executed within 7 the week beginning on the day next after the day on which the term of 8 respite or stay expires. The sentence of death shall be executed upon 9 such day within the week appointed as the warden elects, at some time
10 between midnight and sunrise; but no previous announcement thereof 11 shall be made, except to such persons as may be permitted to be present.

2 when motion for sentence is made, found by the court to be insane, it may 3 cause such person to be removed to one of the state hospitals for such term
4 and under such limitations as it may order. If a woman convicted of a 5 capital crime is, at the time when motion for sentence is made, found by 6 the court to be quick with child, the court shall not pass sentence upon 7 her until it finds that she is no longer quick with child.

 R. L. 220, § 43. the advice and consent of the council, an opportunity to pardon the convict 4 and to investigate and consider the facts of the case for that purpose. 5

Stay of execution. SECTION 49A. The execution of a sentence of death may be stayed 1 1929, 133, § 1. from time to time for definite and stated periods by the supreme judicial 2 court, or a justice thereof, pending the final determination of any judicial 3 question arising in or out of the case in which the sentence is imposed. 4

Witnesses of the execution. SECTION 50. There shall be present at the execution of the sentence 1
 R. S. 139, § 14. of death, in addition to the warden, deputy warden and such officers of the 2

 2 except as otherwise provided, be paid over to the treasurer of the county
 3 where the proceeding in which the fine or forfeiture was imposed was 4 tried, or in Suffolk county to the collector of Boston, except that in cases 5 appealed from district courts or trial justices, in counties other than 6 Suffolk, the fine or forfeiture shall be paid into the treasury of the 7 county where it was imposed, and the treasurer of the said county shall 8 pay to the town where the offence was committed the costs as certified 9 by the clerk of the inferior court from which the case was appealed.
 10 A fine or forfeiture imposed by a district court or trial justice shall, ex-
 11 cept as otherwise provided, be paid to the town where the crime or offence 12 was committed. If the whole or any part of a fine is by law payable 13 to a complainant or informant or to a person or corporation as benefi-14 ciary, the court or trial justice may apportion the fine or forfeiture be-15 tween such complainant, informant or other beneficiary and the county
 16 or town, respectively. This section shall not apply to fines payable into

SECTION 10. The treasurer of Boston shall pay to the persons entitled thereto all witness fees or other money due for services rendered or expenses incurred in any of the courts named in section eight, or for any of the aforesaid officers, upon presentation to him of a certificate 1 2 3 4

5 stating the name of the claimant, of the court and of the case, the nature
 6 of the services rendered or expenses incurred and the amount due therefor,
 7 signed by the clerk of the court or by the officer for whom the service 8 was rendered.

1 SECTION 11. Except as otherwise provided in section eighty of 2 chapter two hundred and seventy-six, fines and forfeitures imposed in 3 criminal prosecutions by the superior court to the use of the common-
 4 wealth, or to any county, or to Boston, and all amounts found to be due 5 on forfeited recognizances, shall, under the direction of the court, be 6 certified by the clerk to the sheriff. The sheriff or his deputy may re-
 7 ceive such fines and forfeitures, but the sheriff shall, except as otherwise 8 provided by law, within ten days after the final adjournment of the 9 sitting of the court, pay the same without deduction to the county
 10 treasurer and render to him, or in Suffolk county to the collector of 11 Boston, an account, on oath, of all amounts which he has received since 12 the last preceding sitting of the court for fines, forfeitures and forfeited 13 recognizances and the names of the persons from whom received and 14 against whom awarded. If a sheriff neglects for thirty days to render 15 such account he shall be liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars, which 16 shall be recovered in the manner provided in section thirteen.

253 Mass. 314.

SECTION 9. If a limitation or period of time prescribed in any of the acts repealed for acquiring a right, barring a remedy or any other purpose has begun to run, and the same or a similar limitation is prescribed in the General Laws, the time of limitation shall continue to run and shall have like effect as if the whole period had begun and ended under the operation of the General Laws. If a shorter period of time is prescribed by the General Laws in any matter relating to wills or to the administration of the estates of deceased persons, and the limitation has begun to run, it shall continue to run for the time fixed by the law in effect at the time when it began to run, notwithstanding the repeal thereof by the General Laws. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

Temporary laws to continue in force.

SECTION 10. All acts and resolves or parts thereof in force at the time of the taking effect of the General Laws which are of limited duration shall continue in effect according to their terms, notwithstanding any provisions of said General Laws inconsistent therewith. 1 2 3 4

CHAPTER 282.

EXPRESS REPEAL OF CERTAIN ACTS AND RESOLVES.

[Chapter omitted.]

NOTE: The provisions of this chapter as originally enacted are set forth in chapter 282 of the General Laws (Edition of 1920). For reference to certain legislation affecting the schedule of acts and resolves expressly repealed by said chapter in connection with the original enactment of the General Laws, see the table of changes relating to chapter 282 appearing in the volume containing the laws and resolves of 1931.
